Cracker Factory.

ONLY OMAHA LABOR EMPLOYED

Suilding Will Be Five Stories High and Stand at Twelfth and Davenport, Sixty-Six by Hundred and Thirty-Two.

Work will begin on the new factory of the Loose-Wiles Cracker and Confectionery company, which is to be erected at Twelfth and Davenport street, within two weeks and the contract provides that it shall be built by Omaha labor.

C. E. Gould, general manager of the Loose-Wiles company, is in Omaha to complete the deal for the building and has the plans, which were drawn in Kansus City. sids may be received early next week for the construction work.

The building is to be five stories in height, 68x183 feet, and the mill construction of slow burning materials will be used throughout. The building alone will cost rom $40,000 to $45,000. Machinery for the new cracker factory has been ordered and will cost when installed between $25,000 and $30,000.

The bids will be let on the condition that the building is completed by the middle of December, and if this is accomplished the factory will be in operation by the last of Walsh. January or first week in February. The company will employ 100 people to start Rice. and later increase the force to 150 people. It is said no definite action was taken on most of whom will be Omahaus. most of whom will be Omahans.
