hamps Drop Game to Tailenders by Score of 6 to 7.

ROURKES ARE ALL TO THE BAD

Needless Errors, Shaky Pitching and Poor Base Running Features of Zigzagging Contest in Which Locals Are Worsted.

Omaha, 6; Pueblo, 7.

Needless errors, shaky pitching and poor base-running cost Omaha another game of ball to those tail-end contenders from Pueblo, who took the second game of the series by the score of 7 to 6. Pat Ragan dared to face the "jinks" of ladies' day, but he no sooner entered the box than it fastened upon him and he passed the first man and hit the second. With Omaha one run ahead in the ninth, he repeated the performance of passing the first man up and hitting the second but that time it cost him the game, because of the three-sacker which Matticks drove into Belden's garden.

Fisher made an error which cost the game, but the game was won back, and a little later Pat Ragan dropped a ball while trying to cover first and lost the game again, but again was the game saved by Dr. Welch's home run, only to be lost in the last inning by that base on balls and man hit, for which Pat was solely responsible. To be sure, Slats Davis had to make one of his star decisions and that cost Omaha a run, giving Pueblo its first. Mitze had connected safely with the ball and Slim Owen hit one to Franck. The captain had time for a double, but he fumbled the ball. When he recovered the ball Davis thought he was going to throw to first and turned in that direction to watch the play. Instead Franck caught Mitze before he reached second, but Slats was posing like a Grecian goddess and refused to turn to see the play, even while Franck was holding Mitze away from the sack. That decision gave the Puebs the first run and a little confidence.

Omahans Go Wrong.

It is hard to tell just what was the matter with the Omaha athletes. In the first inning they made three singles, and these, coupled with an error and a stolen base, failed to bring results. Clark's wild throw to catch Austin at third gave Omaha the first run. James, after a single, went from first to third on Belden's sacrifice. Clark was so surprised at the nerve of the lad that he threw wild to third and James scored. James hit the ball safely four times in four times at bat, and on three of those occasions Belden made a successful sacrifice. Twice James got all the way around; once he was nailed at home plate, and in the eighth inning died at third, as neither Belden nor Franck could do anything for him.

Omaha made the first run in the second inning and Pueblo tied in the third, but Omaha went ahead again in the last of the third. In the fourth Pueblo made another, and in the fifth made two, giving the Mountaineers a lead of two. Omaha tied the score in the seventh and Dr. Welch put the champions one in the lead in the eighth by his long home run hit high over the right field fence. Then came the ninth, and Pat was shaky, at least he pitched that sort of ball, and Pueblo made three. Omaha got one of those back in the ninth and threatened a few more, but nixey. With two out in the ninth Fisher made his third safe hit, and King sent him home with a two-sacker to the left field fence. Then came Chiczen with fire in his eye, but he could not start the blaze and popped one to Corhan.

Bad Slump in Fifth.

With two out in the fifth, Hoggie hit safe and Spencer was passed. Smith hit toward first and Chicken got the ball and tossed it to Pat Ragan, who dropped it, filling the bases and missing a chance to retire the side with no runs. Instead the bases were filled and Matticks, one of the hard hitters of the league, put one through Franck which allowed two runs to cross the plate. In the fourth inning Fisher had a chance to close the inning with no score, but he dropped an easy fly and Miller crossed the sack. That was how the game was lost. Pueblo again today.

The score:

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 4.—The Greenbackers slumped again today and dropped another game to the tailenders. Bonno was in poor form and was batted for eleven hits. Olmstead, however, pitched a tight game and Davidson was the only Greenbacker able to do anything with his delivery. It was Des Moines' game all the way. SIOUX CITY HAS AN EASY TIME

Olmstead for Denver is Wild and Hit at Opportune Times.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Sept. 4.—Coupled with wildness, Olmstead was hit hard in the pinches, and the Sioux won an uninteresting game from the Denver Grizzlies, 7 to 1. The game was called in the first half of the eighth on account of darkness. Furchner was practically invincible with men on bases. Welch's batting was the feature of the game, four of the runs coming through his efforts. Score:

Franklin Wins at Last.

FRANKLIN, Neb., Sept. 4.—(Special Telegram.)—Franklin has been playing Kensington, Kan., base ball for the last five years and never has been able to defeat them until today. Franklin was badly crippled with Catcher Bohner and Left Fielder Kealer out of the game, while Kensington had the help of a first baseman and shortstop from McCook. The game was close and there was no error. The umpire made a doubtful decision in the ninth with the score a tie. Byrley of Franklin made a fine hit, the ball hitting third base and going on, making a two-base hit and scoring two men. It was called a foul. Byrley then got a single and won the game. The score:

ST. LOUIS DEFEATS DETROIT

Browns Take Another Step in Direction of First Place.

WILLETTS IS HIT HARD

Crowd is Largest that Ever Saw Week Day Game in Mound City, Ground Rules Being Necessary.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 4.—By defeating Detroit, 4 to 2, this afternoon St. Louis drew nearer first place in the American league pennant race and now but a game and a half separates the locals from Detroit, which still holds first place. The percentages stand: Detroit, .583; St. Louis, .570. The crowd that witnessed the contest this afternoon was the largest week day crowd at a game in St. Louis this year. It is estimated that 16,000 people saw the struggle. Ground rules were necessary.

Willetts, the Detroit pitcher, was ineffective. He was hit hard from the start, three hits in the first inning giving St. Louis two runs after Detroit had opened with one run on a single by McIntyre, Schaefer's sacrifice and Cobb's single.

After the first inning Detroit was unable to do anything until the eighth, when doubles by Jones and McIntyre and a long sacrifice fly by Crawford scored another run. In the eighth Willetts gave way to Summers. St. Louis hit in bunches. Stone led off with a single in the first, Schweitzer sacrificed and Heidrick doubled to the right field fence, scoring Stone. Heidrick scored while Downs was throwing Wallace out at first. Doubles by Williams and T. Jones scored St. Louis its third run, and Stone's double, followed by Wallace's double, scored another in the seventh. Score:
