OMAHA, Sept. 5 .- To the Editor of The Bee: Mr. Debs is a much-mistaken man in his socialistic preaching, but he is, personally, a man of intellectual ability, a scholar and a gentleman who is, I believe, ambitious for place and power, but honest and sincere. In the latter respect Mr. Debs is, therefore, what Mr. Bryan s not. Mr. Debs himself in his recent address to a paid audience of 3,000 people in the Auditorium in this city made this fact too clear for further debate. He dissected the Pretender in a fashion that everybody could see what Mr. Bryan is in the double character of hypocrite and demagogue. Mr. Debs should have been a professor of anatomy and a surgeon. ## Odd Minutes Make Bank Account

What do you do with the odd minutes—the in-between-times?

Instead of putting them in brooding over the collapsed state of your finances-or your unsatisfactory position-why not use them to your profit?

Develop that little turn for making quick pen and ink sketches-or clever little pencil drawings, designs, etc. So far you've only used it to while away an idle hour for your friends or yourself Here's a man in The Bee Want Ads who will pay you for that kind of work.

Or that knack for telling clever stories-get them down on paper.

In The Bee Want Ads you'll find a market for all these odds and ends of genius. There's good money in it-and it need not interfere with your regular work.

Bee Want Columns hold a fund of suggestion for turning odd minutes to account-to a bank

Reading the Want Ads today will give you a start-Reading them every day will keep you govance of the BERLIN, Sept. 7.-Prices on the Bourse ing toward success and prosperity.
