Union Pacific Earnings. The official figures are out showing the earnings of the Union Pacific for the month of June, 1908, and for the twelve months ending June 30. Previous figures have been estimated. The report shows the gross revenue to have decreased $556,812.42 in June and the operating expenses decreased $216,052, making an increase of the revenue over operating expenses and taxes of $340,760.37. The amount of revenue over operating expenses and taxes showed a decrease of $2,169,491.41 for the year. Special for Ak-Sar-Ben. The Northwestern is already lining up special trains for Ak-Sar-Ben, having arranged for special service from Carroll, Okla., Norfolk, Lincoln and Omaha and intermediate points. The transportation committee has made application for reduced rates, and while nothing definite has been given out by the roads the board of governors is confident Omaha will secure rates. Lincoln got rates and so did Sioux City and Mitchell. E. D. and Des Moines. Samson has sent out his posters all over the west saying that reduced rates will be given. The Krug Brewing company has put its beautiful posters of the king's highway all over the state and all Nebraska will soon learn that it is nearly time to come to Omaha for the fall festivities.

HARRIMANS HAPPY AT TIME

Members of Distinguished Party Express Delight at Their Entertainment in Omaha.

"We have had a better time in Omaha than at any place since we left New York," said one of the younger members of the Harriman party at Union station on leaving for the east, and the sentiment was echoed by several others. Quite a tribute was paid to Mr. Mohler at the station when all the members of the Harriman party, as if by prearranged plans, came to the rear platform of Mr. Harriman's private car, Arden, and threw a rose each at Mr. Mohler as the train was pulling out. Roland Harriman, the 15-year-old son of the magnate, had his wish of killing a bear gratified. When the party went west through Omaha Roland had blood hounds of all sizes and descriptions and although some of them looked more like rabbit dog than bear dogs, the young hunter was able to run down a bear with them in Oregon. He also had a good shot at another bear, which got away. At the close of the speechmaking at the Field club Thursday night a corner was cleared to the dance hall, which was used for the banquet room, and the younger members of the Harriman party enjoyed a waltz. Averill Harriman, 17 years of age, made the suggestion as he had been admiring the dance floor all evening, and when his dance was finished he remarked that "We don't have such nice dancing floors in New York."

HOLLISTER LEADS KINSLER

Has Majority of Seventeen on the Preliminary Footing.

Two Omaha ministers and one from Benson are very likely to leave this city for charges in other fields after the meeting of the next Methodist church conference, which will begin at Stanton, Neb., September 23. Rev. S. D. Bartle, assistant pastor of the First Methodist church; Rev. John F. Poucher of the Seward Street church and the Rev. J. M. Leddy of the Benson church will probably be moved by the church dignitaries when they get together for the annual meeting. The Rev. Mr. Bartle has been planning for some time to leave and has been offered the pastorate of churches in several different places. He will go, as is the Methodist custom, to the church which is assigned to him, but the strictness of this rule is being lessened and the Methodist conferences are leaning more and more to the practice of the Congregational churches in allowing their own inclinations and the

DARLOW SAYS KING EXCELS

Sees Several Eastern Carnivals, but None to Compare with Ak-Sar-Ben.

"I saw the great carnivals at Asbury Park, Atlantic City, Bellmar and Spring Lake and really I must say that not one of these much touted eastern festivals compared in actual merit with our own Ak-Sar-Ben festivities each autumn," said Alfred Darlow, who, with Mrs. Darlow and their children, has just returned from a visit up and down the Atlantic seaboard. "I was a careful observer at these various places, and while they all were good not one ranked with Ak-Sar-Ben. It is really gratifying to an Omahian to perceive how well advertised is Ak-Sar-Ben in the east.

Trains for Landseekers

Prospective settlers are flocking into the towns of registration for the Tripp county lands which the government is about to throw open for settlement. Reports show that several hundred a day are already passing through the town of Bonstedt to look over the lands, which are easily reached from Dallas and Gregory. The dates of registration are October 5 to 11 and the date of the drawing is October 13. The Northwestern officials have estimated that at least 65,000 people will attend this opening and preparations are already being made for handling the crowds. The man lucky enough to draw a part of the 600,000 acres will draw a prize, as the land costs him but 10 cents an acre and is now worth $20 to $40 an acre.

MRS. MAGUIRE GOES ON WEST

Sets Out for Wyoming to Visit a Daughter, So Family Here Believes.

From the direction taken by Mrs. Mary Maguire, mother of Mrs. H. R. Hurst, 249 Blondo street, who left the home of her daughter Sunday afternoon, her relatives believe the demented woman has started for the home of another daughter living in Wyoming. Mrs. Maguire left her daughter's home Sunday afternoon at 3:15 and Mr. Hurst has learned that she ate supper at the home of Mrs. Ketter on the southwestern limits of Benson that evening and that later some man driving a bay team gave her a ride west of Benson, picking her up about two miles west of that city. Mr. Hurst says that his mother-in-law seemed to have an idea Sunday that she was going to accompany her granddaughter to her home at Rollins, Wyoming, where Mrs. Maguire's other daughter, Mrs. Harry Phelan, lives. Miss Phelan, 17 years of age, spent Sunday at the Hurst home on her way back to Rollins from a visit at Racine, Wis. The grandmother talked as though she was going with the girl to the western city and while Mr. Hurst had money in the train to see Miss Phelan off, his mother-in-law disappeared, telling Mrs. Hurst that she was going to the store. Mrs. Phelan in Rollins has been notified of the disappearance of Mrs. Maguire, but she telegraphed Mr. Hurst on Friday that she had heard nothing from her. Mr. Hurst says that his wife's mother generally gives her maiden name, Mary Ann Dalton, that she left his home with no wrap or hat and had no money with her. Mrs. Hurst is deeply worried and fears her mother, who is past 60 years of age, will meet with an accident before she is found. The description of the aged woman has been furnished the officers in all nearby cities and towns.

SUIT FOR SUM PAID ON NOTE

Trustee of Allen M. Stewart Company Wants to Recover Two Thousand Dollars.

Sidney W. Smith, trustee of the Allen M. Stewart company, which went into bankruptcy last April, has started suit in district court to recover $2,000 which it is asserted the officers of the company paid to the Merchants National bank shortly before the bankruptcy proceedings were started. The money was paid to discharge a note held by the bank against the company, but the trustee affirms the note should have been listed with the other liabilities of the company and taken its turn with the rest. After the money had been paid over the petition states, there remained but $1,500 in assets to cover $5,000 in liabilities. The note in question, according to the petition, was signed by Allen M. Stewart, president of the company, whose whereabouts are declared to be unknown. The note was endorsed by the other officers of the company and this is given as the reason they were anxious to pay it before bankruptcy proceedings were started. The petition asks the court to annul the payment of the money and declare it a part of the assets with which to pay creditors.

OUR JIM NOW A RANK QUITTER

Dahlman Offers to Support Shallenberger, Whom He Denounced in Fiery Terms.

James Charles Dahlman. Our Jim, the man with a backbone, has decided to support for governor of Nebraska a man who a few night ago he was denouncing as a "railroad tool," "trimmer," "traitor to Bryan," and a few other carefully selected things. In other words, Our Jim has crawled down off his looking broncho, thrown away his lance, ditched his gun and is now knocking his head on the ground to Ashton C. Shallenberger. "Congratulations on your nomination. Permit me to offer to you the heartiest
