Beckton, assistant to President Underly Evans of the Wells-Fargo Express company, is in the city renewing friendships he made twenty years ago, when he was a law student in Omaha. He read law with Charles J. Grege and was admitted to the bar here. He went into the office of Wells-Fargo & Co. when Mr. Evans was district superintendent here and went with him when he was promoted. "Omaha shows wonderful improvement in the last twenty years," he said. "I have been here so long since I left that I have lost track of many of my old friends. The city has shown a marked improvement in the number of new modern buildings since the time I was familiar with it."

Small Gains Are the Rule in Commercial Reports and Many Factors Resume Work. NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: Small gains are the rule in trade reports, although changes are often insignificant and it is only in the aggregate that any tangible progress can be discerned.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Small Gains Are the Rule in Commercial Reports and Many Factors Resume Work. NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: Small gains are the rule in trade reports, although changes are often insignificant and it is only in the aggregate that any tangible progress can be discerned.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Movement of Cereals and Cotton Start Business Revival. NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Bradstreet's says: The advance of the fall season and the notable enlargement of the movement of cereals and cotton to market at good prices have made for further moderate expansion in foreign and retail trade and collections. This is especially marked on the Pacific coast and southern centers, but the point is made that agricultural districts have done relatively better than large industrial cities in the matter of retail trade, possibly because of the warm weather and the reduced purchasing power of city workers and the high prices paid for farm products.

Dr. Ross, Dentist, 45 Barker Block. The Esteemed Mr. Wu. Of the famous Wu Tung-fang, who is said to have become a recent convert to vegetarianism, a Washington correspondent said the other day:

FROST CANNOT HURT CORN

No Danger Now, as Crops Are Too Far Advanced, Says J. M. Daugherty.

"The corn of Nebraska is almost beyond the reach of frost," said John M. Daugherty, who came in from his ranch in western Nebraska Saturday morning. "There is not ten acres of corn on my ranch which would be injured if frost was to come now, but, of course, this weather is all fine for corn and there don't seem to be much prospect for frost for a while."
