HARRIMAN DENIES REPORTS

No Immediate Changes in Financing of Pacific Roads Contemplated.

OPERATING EXPENSES DECREASE

Favors Increase in Freight Rates to Enable Weaker Roads to Improve Their Physical Condition.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—E. H. Harriman returned to this city today after an absence of seven weeks. The greater part of which time he devoted to an inspection of the Union Pacific system and the Southern Pacific railway. Mr. Harriman denied that he contemplated any immediate financing for Southern Pacific.

Later Mr. Harriman gave another interview in which he stated more fully in general conditions. He declared there was nothing in the often repeated rumor of a holding company for the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific properties and no immediate financing was contemplated for those lines.

"Why have the stocks of Union Pacific and Southern Pacific been so exceedingly strong recently?" someone asked. "Because they were too weak before," was Mr. Harriman's quick reply.

Operating Expenses Increase. Mr. Harriman told with apparent satisfaction of a great reduction in operating expense by his lines.

"And we hope to do still better," he added. "The reason we are operating at such a low rate is because of our good physical condition."

Mr. Harriman said he favored an increase in freight rates. "It is only to help the weaker roads, which are in low physical state, and cannot hope to improve their condition until they get better returns. The people," Mr. Harriman says, "were getting to feel more favorable to proper railroad management. The most cordial relations now exist west and the further west you go the more this feeling is emphasized," he said.

Mr. Harriman declined to discuss the political situation, but speaking generally, he said: "Something has got to be done to rouse the people to a sense of their responsibility, whether it be for the one party or the other."

Letter of Three Years Ago. "The existing interstate commerce laws are a menace to the railway development of the country," Mr. Harriman said. "Repeal so much of the Sherman law as applies to the transportation companies," he added. Here Mr. Harriman said: "Let me read an extract of a letter I wrote to Secretary Taft while I was in Japan, exactly three years ago today."

The extract follows: "Our transportation interests both on land and water need encouragement. I believe in regulation and publicity, but would like to go further at this time. The rail-

RUSTIN INTENDED TO VOTE

Registered as Democrat at Primaries Last Day of His Life.

DANIEL DID NOT HEAR SHOT

City Prosecutor Passed Rustin Home About Three in the Morning and Saw Not Heard Person or Shot.

Dr. Frederick T. Rustin, shot on the morning of September 2, intended to vote in November. One of the last things he did before his death was to register and say he would vote the democratic ticket straight.

To some this discovery is taken to mean that certainly the physician was not planning to die, when he told democratic friends at the primary election booth at Fortieth and Farnam streets on Tuesday, September 1, that he wanted to register so he might vote the "straight democratic ticket in November."

Herbert S. Daniel, city prosecutor, was at the booth where Dr. Rustin registered. He says the physician entered the booth at 6:45 in the evening, asked for a democratic primary ticket and made the remark that he would vote for the "good democrats" in November.

Dr. Rustin was seemingly in good spirits, said Mr. Daniel. "How he could have been planning his death and gone to the trouble to register that he might vote two months later I don't understand. We talked some of the ticket and, as Dr. Rustin was always a democrat, he was not wanting to register that he might help out some of the democrats who were candidates for office."

Daniel Passed Rustin Home.

Mr. Daniel remained about the booth and other voting places until a late hour. The back seats in the neighborhood of the Rustin home at an early hour the morning of September 2 was evidently the one called by the city prosecutor when he went home around 3 a. m. Mr. Daniel drove by the Rustin home to reach his residence at Forty-second and Harney streets at about 3 o'clock. He says: "I remember of looking out on the north side of the carriage and of passing the Rustin home. I saw nothing and heard nothing. When I reached home I read a paper for fully twenty minutes. I remember it was within a block and a half of the Rustin home. I did not hear a shot or any commotion in the neighborhood, though I was probably within a distance to hear a shot from a few minutes before 3 o'clock until at least 5:30."

Hat Puzzle Cleared Up.

The mystery of Dr. Rustin's hat and how it got on the hook in the hall of his home has been satisfactorily explained to the detective department. The hat worn by the physician the evening previous to the tragedy, was picked up by a neighboring woman when she went to the Rustin home early on the morning of the tragedy to assist Mrs. Rustin in any way she could. Captain Savage of the detective department said: "The woman who picked up the hat and hung it up was the woman who was in the hall at the time we went to the house and saw it there. We went to the hospital first, and then to the Rustin home. The woman who picked up the hat and hung it in the hall says it was in the hall when she found it."

It is supposed that Dr. Rustin had the hat on his head when Mrs. Rustin found him in the chair on his porch. That Dr. Rustin fell at the doorway as she was assisting him into the house, explains why the physician's hat was found in the hall to the satisfaction of detectives on the case. They believe the hat fell inside the house, from the physician's head when he fell at the doorway.

Rounding Up Witnesses.

County Attorney English says the officers, at present, are spending their time securing witnesses who know something about the tragedy. He said he would have at least six, perhaps more new witnesses when the preliminary hearing is called next Tuesday. The county attorney is taking the statements of these witnesses as they are secured by the detectives.

Tuesday afternoon the county attorney began his investigations at the Chatham apartments on Thirteenth street, where Charles E. Davis says he returned after his trip to the west part of the city and his attempt on his own life within a short distance of the Rustin home. Mr. English says he has talked with no one at the Chatham, but understands Frank Graham, clerk in the Omaha National bank, will testify as to the time Davis reached the apartments, and that the time according to the witness, will be 3 o'clock or shortly after. The county attorney will talk with Graham.

WESTERN MEN MEET

tion, Mr. Taft today sent this telegram: "I am greatly interested in the work of the New York state convention in adopting the resolutions which you transmit. Please convey to the members of the convention my grateful appreciation of their kindly expressions and their good wishes."

"I do not think there is anything in what Mr. Bryan had added that calls for a further interview from me. Should it appear so later, I will take up the question in my public speeches."

This was the manner in which Judge Taft today disposed of the inquiry of Mr. Bryan in the Roosevelt-Taft letter controversy.

Upon hearing of the nomination of Governor Hughes by the New York republican state convention, Judge Taft sent him the following telegram: "I sincerely congratulate you upon your well deserved re-nomination. It not only makes the state of New York safe in November, but it greatly strengthens the national ticket in every state in the union. I hope that you will be able to devote a portion of your time to the campaign in the west."

DEMOCRATS WIN IN ARKANSAS

Little Change in Aspect of State on Liquor Question.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 15.—The election of George W. Donaghy, the democratic nominee for governor, and the entire democratic ticket by a majority which may exceed that received by Governor John E. Little two years ago, more than 6,000, and apparently even break between the prohibitionists and license advocates, the adoption of one constitutional amendment and the defeat of another, are the most important results of the state election held yesterday, as indicated by incomplete returns from a majority of the seventy-five counties in Arkansas. A record breaking vote was polled throughout the state.

Interest in the election centered in the result of the campaign which was waged in many counties by the prohibitionists. The returns on the license question are not completely out, but apparently neither the prohibitionists nor the license advocates have made any considerable net gain.

The indications are that Miller county, in which Texarkana is located, and Pottawattomie county have been captured by the prohibitionists while Crawford and Perry counties are thought to have been lost to the license forces.

Both sides claim St. Francis and Chicot counties, which have a large majority for license two years ago. Craighead and Green counties remain dry. Pulaski, Jefferson, Phillips, Lee, Jackson and Ouachita counties, in which the prohibitionists centered their fight to a large extent, remain wet.

districts composed of more than one county the delegates from the license advocates should confer and agree upon the committee in advance of the assembly convention, so that they may be notified in ample time to attend the committee meeting.

Liquor Cases to Be Advanced.

The supreme court this morning changed its rule to provide for the advancement of liquor cases where it was shown that by taking its turn on the calendar the liquor license would run out before the case could be decided. The new rule was adopted upon motion of J. C. Martin, an attorney of Central City. Mr. Martin represents the remonstrators in a case where a liquor license has been issued to a man named Powell. A remonstrance was filed and a rule nisi was set for the district court where the saloonkeeper was again successful. Mr. Martin, on behalf of the remonstrators appealed the case. He figures, however, that it would be at least a year before the court would get around to the case, and he would like to have the license renewed before the court would have the benefit of the license. Hence he made the motion for the adoption of the new rule and the court approved it. The point at issue in the case is whether eighty freeholders in the village of Chapman signed the petition for the license.

Sentiment for Taft.

A. L. Taylor of Tekamah, was a caller at the republican state headquarters last night after traveling extensively over the state: "I find sentiment for Mr. Taft very strong," said Mr. Taylor, wherever I go. I have seen a man with a minister, and we began to discuss Mr. Bryan. He said: "Mr. Bryan is a splendid man. I read his lecture on the 'Principle of Peace' and I believe it to be the greatest article I ever read in that line. It is magnificent. Try to surely get a sure man, a good man and a Christian man."

"You will vote for Mr. Bryan," Taylor asked. "No, I shall not vote for him. I shall vote for Mr. Taft, because I believe the country is in safer hands with the election of Mr. Taft."

"This is the sentiment among a lot of ministers. They told me Mr. Bryan is a good man, but they believe the safety of the country demands the election of Mr. Taft."

J. H. Culver of Milford has just returned from a visit through Wisconsin and at republican state headquarters last night, he said that state was for Taft and the followers of La Follette would not vote for Bryan. "I met many men on the train who were great admirers of Senator La Follette," he said, "and they told me they intended to vote for Taft. Right after the election several of them talked of bolting the ticket, but now the republican party was united and would be for Taft."

Express Company Gains Point.

Ralph Breckenridge, as attorney for the express companies in the injunction suit brought by the attorney general to enforce the Sibley act, gained a point this afternoon before Referee Sullivan by obtaining an admission from E. W. Wetling, witness for the state, that his deductions were partly erroneous and would have to be revised. Mr. Wetling's tabulation of revenues and expenses of the business of the Wells-Fargo Express company was based on testimony taken in New York City in a similar suit in the federal court.

The attorney general and Mr. Wetling presumed that it had been stipulated that this testimony should be used in both the state and federal cases. If there is no such stipulation Referee Sullivan holds it cannot be used in the state case.

This tabulation filed by Mr. Wetling was of the business of the company for the year 1907. If Mr. Wetling has to revise his figures he admitted that his deductions would be different from the tabulation filed.

Unidentified Man Kills Himself.

KEARNEY, Neb., Sept. 15.—(Special Telegram.)—An unidentified man about 35 years old committed suicide by stabbing himself with a knife last night at Union Pacific Hotel No. 3, leaving the Kearney yards and threw the knife from the train. The body was removed from the train and sent to Grand Island. He was not identified and was enroute from New York to Los Angeles.

HUGHES WINS BATTLE

nomination may be fairly described as tremendous. But Mr. Root was obdurate. He told the conference that he could not, for a moment, consider such a proposition. "If I should do such a thing," said he in substance, "it should be accused, and rightly, as a senior member of the cabinet, of disloyalty to President Roosevelt, and it would be accused, and with much justification, of insincerity in his declaration, made long ago and reiterated today, of emphatic desire for the re-nomination of Governor Hughes."

Those present in the meeting, over which ex-Lieutenant Governor Timothy L. Woodruff, as chairman of the state committee, presided, included Secretary of State Root, who is acting chairman of the state convention, ex-Governor Odell, National Committeeman William Aldrich, Representative James W. Wadsworth, Jr., and Senator Horace White of Syracuse, (both of these last being leading candidates as opposed to Governor Hughes); Senate Leader John Raines of Ontario; former State Superintendent of Insurance Hendricks, former Railroad Commissioner Aldrich, Representative Fassett, Representative Parsons, Representative Malby, ex-Representative Littauer, William Barnes, Jr., of Albany; Postmaster Greiner of Buffalo and William Berry of Brooklyn.

In this conference there came to a head the best and most urgent constructive effort of the opposition to prevent the nomination of Governor Hughes. At no time has there been any question of the ability of the opposition to prevent the nomination of the governor if it could unite upon any single candidate, actual or prospective, who could be induced to accept the nomination.

CORNHUSKERS AT PRACTICE

Much Promising Material Among the New Candidates.

OLD MEN ARE COMING BACK

Several of Last Year's Scrubs Show Indications of Being Good Material—Borg in School and Eligible.

LINCOLN, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Cornhusker football practice was inaugurated at Antelope park this afternoon with Coach "King" Cole directing the initial work of a squad of fifteen candidates. The practice was light and consisted of passing and booting the ball. For a greater share of the two hours that the men were on the field they were engaged in learning to hold the ball when it was passed to them and in making sure that they would be able to handle it without dangerous fumbles on the forward pass.

Suits were issued this afternoon by Manager Eager to the following men who appeared for practice at Antelope park: Captain Harvey, Right Guard Frum, Wolcott, Rathbone, Hawke, Temple, Berger, Sturzenegger, Chauner, Norbourg, Ben Bowers, McKee, Ford and Dye. The last three named men are freshmen and will not be eligible for the varsity this fall. McKee and Ford are from the Lexington High school and are expected to clinch places on the first year eleven.

Sturzenegger, Bowers, Rathbone, Temple, Wolcott and Chauner were not eligible last season, but are regarded as strong men this fall, and have begun work in an attempt to make a place on the regular Cornhusker eleven. Sturzenegger played half on the second team last year, and attracted much attention with his fast running and his ability in getting down on the ball on punts. Bowers was in school two years ago and played on the second team, doing remarkable work. His appearance on the field this afternoon immediately attracted the attention of "King" Cole, who was well pleased with his preliminary work. Bowers is looked upon as one of the strongest new candidates in prospect for this fall.

Temple was captain and a star on the freshman team last year. He is expected to make a strong bid for a place on the varsity this season. Chauner, Norbourg and Berger are unknown quantities, but are reputed to have a wide knowledge of the new game.

Chaloupka is Coming. "Bill" Chaloupka, the big tackle of the 1907 eleven, will reach Lincoln tomorrow and be out for practice in the afternoon. Kroger, Beltzer, Ewing, Harie and Johnson are also expected to come tomorrow.

Thomas A. Mussen, a New York state football man, will be added to the squad within a few days. He wrote Manager Eager a few days ago, saying that he had heard of the fame of the Cornhuskers and wanted to register for work this fall, so as to be eligible for the gridiron games next season. He has been in Nevada this summer working in a mining camp. In his letter he said that he weighed 195 pounds, striped, and that he was an all round athlete. He claims that besides being a good foot ball player, he is also a track and base ball man. His record in the 100 yards he places at close to ten seconds.

Miss Royston Tells of Her Good Fortune

Miss Eva Royston, a prominent young lady of Dayton, Tenn., Who Was so Run Down from Indigestion and Stomach Trouble That She Could Not Eat Anything, Feels So Overjoyed to Think That She is Now in Robust Health That She Wants to Tell Everybody About It.

Miss Royston Tells of Her Good Fortune

Miss Royston says that she was all run down, had indigestion and stomach trouble so badly that she could not eat or retain anything on her stomach, but now she is happy to state that these troubles are things of the past. Today she can eat anything and it agrees with her, she is robust and strong and is anxious to tell anybody who is sick and needs a tonic about her wonderful recovery. She says nothing seemed to help her until she took Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as prescribed by her doctor and it worked like magic.

Miss Royston requests to have the story of her good fortune published so that it may be the means of showing the thousands who suffer as she did the quick, sure way to complete recovery and health.

Those who read this are at liberty to write this young lady, who says she will take great pleasure in answering any questions and telling how she was restored to health.

MISS EVA ROYSTON will take great pleasure in answering any questions and telling how she was restored to health.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to medicine; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances renders it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions. It tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is recognized as the world's leading medicine everywhere.

CAUTION—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It is the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey sold in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price, $1.00. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Blend" on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Write Consulting Physician, Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y., for names of illustrative medical books and free advice.

DEATH RECORD

Joseph A. Connor, 78 Georgia avenue died Tuesday shortly after 1 o'clock at his home. He was 67 years of age and leaves a sister, Mrs. O. Connor, and a daughter, Miss Grace Connor, who have lived with the Lincoln High school eleven and later directed the foot ball work of several of the colleges in this state. He is popular with the Nebraska foot ball men and is expected to be a good assistant to "King" Cole.

Dance Ends in Fight. YANKTON, S. D., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Chicago papers caused considerable excitement at a dance at John Chop's, near Utica. A man named Hair was accused of stealing the papers and this led to a general row. Slaughter Davis was drawn into it and in defense against heavy odds pulled a gun and shot three times into the crowd. The fusillade gave several some narrow escapes and one bullet passed through John Lane's left hand, while Pete Petronek has a slight flesh wound. Davis then fled and has not been found, although quite a man hunt was in progress for hours after. No complaint has been filed against him, as those at the dance seem to think Davis was justified under the circumstances in defending himself.

District Court in Uinta County. EVANSTON, Wyo., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—An interesting session of the Uinta county district court is being held here. William Brodie of Big Piney, charged with killing five stock, was found not guilty. The case of a man named Fleming, charged with the murder of W. F. Glenn, who was shot by Fleming at Pineade on July 2, was continued until the next term, and Fleming released on $500 bonds. George Anderson was convicted of sodomy, his victim being Challe Farley of North Platte, and will be sent to the penitentiary. Walter J. Yone, the cattle rustler, who was captured in Kansas after a hard chase, pleaded guilty and will be sent to the penitentiary.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold. A. J. Nuabum, Batesville, Ind., writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." All druggists.

Outing Yachting. Roy Elliott, who played on the Cornhusker eleven in 1908 under Coach Yost, has been elected assistant coach and has taken up his duties. The assistant coach after he left the university had charge of the Lincoln High school eleven and later directed the foot ball work of several of the colleges in this state. He is popular with the Nebraska foot ball men and is expected to be a good assistant to "King" Cole.
