When We Were Boys

When we were boys Pa took us to the dry goods store for the cloth and buttons and trimmings for our new clothes-then to the tailor and then we carried the package to the seamstress and in due time we had some very good clothes. Today things are so different. We're selling much better boys' clothes for half the cost; values that would be impossible except for perfect facilities for buying and selling on very large scale,

"Sampeck" suits for boys are a special feature of this busy clothing department, and there are some extra special values in school suits at $6.50,

English Gets More Rice Talk. County Attorney English talked with the Rice woman, who gave the sensational tes-telling of the "suicide club." The Rice woman has given the county attorney some new and important facts and some details which fill out her horrible story of murder-suicide plot. The county attorney would say nothing as to the facts which the Rice woman has given him and to which she will testify at the preliminary hearing next Thursday,

"if this woman is 30 years of age, as she says she is, it is remarkable the knowledge of the world in general which she possesses," remarked Mr. English, "Other girls 20 years of age seem like children when compared to her with her worldly knowledge.
