SEWARD WELCOMES ITS TEAM

Base Ball Club Returns Champions

Base Ball Club Returns Champions
from Trip.

SEWARD, Neb., Sept. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—On the return of the ball team today the citizens turned out by hundreds to welcome it home. They brought with them the state championship and about everything else in the ball line that was not nailed down. On the arrival of the North.

Western train charges of dynamite were exploded, making enough noise for an ordinary Fourth of July celebration. The Seward band headed the procession. Next came a two-seated carriage drawn by a beautiful coal black pair of horses, with Mayor Meriam and Mr. Zimmerer, president of the Commercial ciub, therein. The team, with its manager, Frank Woods, occupied a carryall. This had a banner with the words. "The State Champions." fastened to it. Bringing up the rear was Henry Hayes' ice wagon. On it was a banner with the words. "All Henry Hayes Has Left." It is to be inferred that Hayes was betting on the wrong side and had lost all but his ice wagon. Mr. Hayes, in an arrow tipped helmet, drove the team to the wagon.

Old Leaguer Kills Self When He is Called Crooked.

WORCESTER, Mass, Sept. 17.—The motive for the suicide of like Van Zant, the form of the New York State league, it is believed, was because of the publication of Van Zandt and five offer players by Manager John Fisherty of the North Adams (Mass) team.

The story teld how Van Zendt and the other players made up a pool and but against North Adams, which lost to Bonnington, 3 to 0. Van Zandt played under the alias of Cooper, but the story gave his light name. Fisherty investigated, was satisfied the charges of throwing the game were true, and released all stx players.

Van Zant became despondent, believing the publication of the aliasy of cooper, but the story gave his light name. Fisherty investigated, was satisfied the charges of throwing the game were true, and released all stx players.

SIGEX WIN OUT AT MITCHELL liet a Big Lead in the Opening Inning

Get a Big Lead in the Opening Inning and Clinch it in Ninth.

MITCHELL, S. D., Sept. II.—(Special Telegram.)—The barastorming base ball as played by Sioux City and Omaha is not a particularly exciting game and it was fully demonstrated here today between the two teams, Shoux City winning by a score of to 4. There was no gluger in efficient team, which might be accounted for by the strong wind from the south, affecting the pitching, McKay and Vance were in the points for the Sioux and Bagah and LeBrand were up for Omaha. The Sioux mixed it up in the first inning and had three runs to the good on clear hitting. Omaha got two in the third inning, but there was nothing doing until the ninth, when Omaha worked the squeeze play and forced in the tying score. Sloux City broke the tie in the last half of the ninth when Granville laid a two bagger over second and came home when Welch repeated the performance. Scallin umpired the game. There were over was colines.

2,000 people present, but little enthusiasm was exhibited.

Travis had to play a pretty stiff game yesterday to qualify, but his cool steadiness stood him in good stead and enabled him to win out after five extra holes had been played. At the end, however, the veteran declared that the strain of the match had completely worn him out. "I'm all in," said Travis, as he toiled back to the clubhouse after the conclusion of the men.

IOWA CITY, Ia., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—To harden their muscles and avoid all possible violations of the conference rules, Coach Mark Catlin has inaugurated the game of tennis among the foot ball men. Every afternoon the husky linemen may be seen working out back of the gym on the tennis courts. Captain Kirk, all-western half, is an adopt at the game. Coach Mark Catlin, Assistant Coach Griffith and Trainer O'Brien all played the game yesterday. Official practice starts Monday. Ninety-four complete outfits are in readiness for the men.
