Annual Convention Promises to Be Full of Interest to the Financiers of This State.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Dun's weekly review of trade will say tomorrow: Improvement in commercial situation is encouraging, although the volume of trade has not expanded in proportion to the growth of consumer's demand. The number of unemployed steadily, though slowly, diminishing. Steel mills have more business than they can handle. It is believed that many large undertakings will not be closed until after the election. The domestic market for wheat is regular, with country hides notably quiet.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Business in General Experiences a Further Moderate Improvement.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: Business in general has experienced a further moderate improvement in volume as well as in wholesale lines. Fall trade has reached the maximum at some cities, and much of the summer's surplus has been absorbed. The volume of trade on the whole, purchases have been confined chiefly to the increased demand by the railways for the large centers for home, though state fairs and fall carnivals are attracting attention in sections thus steadily increasing the volume of trade. from little pain. He is beginning to feel the soreness," said Mr. Chanute. "I told him about family matters and gave him a message from Mr. Platt, saying that anything in the way of financial assistance or anything he might desire was at his disposal. Mr. Wright will be told of Lieutenant Selfridge's death as soon as the operation on his leg is performed this afternoon. He was feeling in fairly good spirits." Wilbur Wright today called here a request for an accurate description of the accident he sent him by cable.

WILBUR WRIGHT HEARS NEWS

LEMANS, France, Sept. 18.—Wilbur Wright, brother of Orville Wright, who has been confined a series of experiments here for several weeks past, with a Wright aeroplane, was very much perturbed when he heard this morning the news from Washington, that his brother had suffered an accident in which Lieutenant Thomas Selfridge had been killed. He is said to have countermanded the orders given for the preparations for his flight of today in which he proposed to try for the Michelin and Aero club prizes.

Three Generations of Republicans

In the headquarters of Congressman Poland this morning were three generations of Clapps. The grandfather is Kansas, his son, the treasurer of Mr. Poland's committee, and Willard Clapp, the grand-son, the secretary of the congressman. The grandfather is 94 years old and has voted in every presidential election since 1824. He is a great admirer of Mr. Taft, and came to Lincoln to see how his son and grandson were getting along politically as well as otherwise. The farmer, he said, are for Taft and they cannot be fooled by any talk being made by the democrats.

Creditors File Proceedings at Chicago for Fresh Fish Concern.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Creditors of A. Booth & Co., the fish firm which recently was placed in the hands of a receiver, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States court here today. The petition was filed at the instance of a number of holders of the firm's smaller notes, who professed to believe that the banks under the present arrangement would be made preferred creditors. They demanded that the court wind up the affairs of the firm and distribute the proceeds pro rata amongst all creditors.

A KENTUCKY EXPERIENCE.

Coffee and Tea Still at Work.

A Ky. lady had a very agreeable experience in her breakfast on Monday which she found barfoul, and taking on Postum. She never loses an opportunity to tell others of her good fortune. She says: "For over 20 years I suffered from nervous prostration and heart trouble. After several months of misery, my doctor, one of the best in the country, told me I must quit coffee and tea. 'What was I to do? I must have some warm beverage for breakfast as I had never done without one in my life. 'I decided to try Postum, little thinking it would amount to anything. At first I did not like it, but when I boiled it 15 minutes, until it was dark and rich, it was delicious, and I soon began to feel better. 'After using Postum constantly three years I feel like a different person. I always had been a poor sleeper, but now sleep well and am in perfect health. And I give the credit to Postum. 'My entire family now use it in preference to any other beverage at meals. I am an enthusiastic friend of Postum and I know what it has done for me it will do for others, so I never let a chance go by to recommend it to those who suffer from coffee drinking.' Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read 'The Road to Wellville' in 'Pkg. 'There's a Reason.' Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They give genuine, true, and full of human interest.

ment for a speech on October 7, opening the waterways convention in the forenoon. When I found that we could get him back from Galesburg by special train, I changed my mind about it." As the program now stands Judge Taft will speak at the waterways convention at 11 a. m., catch a regular train to Galesburg, speaking at the Lincoln-Douglas semi-centennial exercises at 5 p. m., and then return to Chicago for the banquet. It was announced that several minor changes are to be made in Judge Taft's itinerary through Wisconsin and Iowa, although details of the changes have not been worked out.

TAFT BUSY AT HIS DESK

Preparation of His Speeches Occupies Time at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 18.—Preparations for his western trip continues to engross Judge Taft to the practical exclusion of other matters. His office hours at the Sinton were curtailed to little more than two hours today. He devoted the early morning to work on his speeches and contemplates giving the entire afternoon and evening to the same task. After reading the Hearst speech relative to Senator Parker, and Senator Foraker's explanation this morning, Mr. Taft said: "I have nothing whatever to say regarding the matter." Bishop Derriek of the African Methodist Episcopal church was Mr. Taft's first call today.

CANNON STOPS AT LEAVENWORTH

Speaker Visits Soldiers' Home and National Prison.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Sept. 18.—Speaker Joseph G. Cannon arrived here this forenoon from Topeka, where he spoke last night. He was the guest here today of Representative D. R. Anthony, editor of the Leavenworth Times. Mr. Cannon visited the National Soldiers' home, just outside of Leavenworth and the United States penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth. He evinced particular interest in the penitentiary. He has at different times worked for appropriations for the federal prisons and he said was anxious to learn more intimately of their needs and about their management. Mr. Cannon was the guest at luncheon at the home of Congressman Anthony. He planned to leave late in the afternoon for Kansas City, arriving there in time to take the evening train for his home at Danville, Ill. No arrangements for a set speech for today had been made.

Among the guests at the luncheon was Associate Justice David J. Brewer of the United States supreme court, whose home is in Leavenworth. Justice Brewer accompanied Speaker Cannon on his round of visits to the different institutions named. The trip to Fort Leavenworth was made first, Speaker Cannon, with Justice Brewer, being driven to that point from the city by a motor car. The trip to the Soldiers' home was made later in the afternoon and Mr. Cannon agreed to make a brief speech to the old soldiers while there.

Constellation in Fare Case.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Sept. 18.—(Special.)—Judge Carlund of the United States court in this city has appointed L. W. Crofoot of Aberdeen special master to take testimony in the case now pending in the federal court and involving the reduction of passenger fares on all standard gauge railroads in South Dakota from 3 to 2 1/2 cents per mile. The appointment of Mr. Crofoot was made at the request of both sides to the controversy. The special master, from the tes-imony presented, is to find the facts proven by the testimony and report the facts to Judge Carlund with all convenient speed. The order of appointment provides that the special master shall be sworn for his services the sum of $50 per day for the time actually engaged in the work, together with the actual expense of taking the testimony and transcribing same for the use of the special master and the court. The special master is given authority to take the testimony at any point chosen by himself, whether within or without the district of South Dakota. Each party to the suit is to pay the expense of taking and transcribing the testimony offered by it upon direct and cross-examination.

is the republican nominee for the house in Clay county again this year and so far as reported he will get all of the republican and most of the democratic votes. The speaker is looking strong and healthy, more so than when he presided over the house, and he is making a vigorous campaign. Boyd County Has a Mixup. The secretary of state has received a letter from S. A. Richardson, county clerk of Boyd county, in which an interesting question is raised over the nomination of officers. The letter stated that a candidate for the nomination for county attorney regularly filed, had his name withdrawn a few days before election and it was not printed on the ballots. The day of election this candidate again got in the running and received seventeen votes, his name being written in on the ballots. Another name was also written in and this second man received eighteen votes. The county clerk desires to know which name should go on the ballot in November. Previous to the election the legal department of state held nominations could not be made by writing in the names of candidates, as the law prescribed how candidates could get their names on the ballot. Under the ruling neither candidate could get his name on the November ballots.
