BRILLIANT SCENE FOR OPENING Japanese Poppy Field for

Brandels Store Rotunda Bepresents Its Decorations.

One of the most claborate interior dec orations ever conceived in the west is now nearing completion in Brandeis' store. It is being designed to great the thousands or out-of-town visitors who will come to Omaha for the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities and will be in readiness tomorrow in time for Brandels' annual fall opening. The immense task of installing this lavish laboring night and day for two weeks. This latest achievement is typical of a Brandels undertaking in that it is worked n a brilliant and massive scale. Forty thousand popples are used in trimming and 1,000 electric lanterns light the scene. Loads of sea moss, ferns and beech leaves are used for backgrounds and the entire store is generously included in the elaborate decorative scheme The central field for the designer lies in the great rotunds and court in the center of the store. The scene represents a Japanese poppy field. From the floor to the top of the rotunda the court is aflame with red poppies. The frieze on each floor is comprised of beech leaves banked with sea moss and ferns. Monogram banners hang at either extremity of the rotunds. Groups of statuary representing the seasons bear aloft urns of blossoms. Thousands of silk Japanese lanters with incandescents give light to the scene. Tall antique braziers burning oriental incense fiank the court. Baskets of poppies encircle each of the massive pillars in the store, while a circle of lanterns hang above

The second floor varies somewhat i reatment from the first, showing beech sprays, asters and ferns in profusion The entire effect is one of magnificence and if will certainly be classed as one of the most prominent features of carnival time in Omaha.

An Innovation in Handling of Heavy Freight.

The Wabash has just constructed and put in service at its St. Louis Fourth Street freight station a new and novel arrangeent for loading and unloading heavy freight on wheels, such as automobiles threshers, traction engines and the like. Instead of an elevated platform, which in voives going up and down a steep incline. he plan includes a depressed track which brings the floor of the car level with the surface of the street, thus making it easy to roll heavy shipments on or off or into a car readily and with very little effort or
