FORAKER TO BUY UP PAPER

Money from Standard Oil Company to Assist in Enterprise.

DEAL FAILS, DRAFT RETURNED

Ohio Senator Says He Acted as Advisory Counsel for the Company—Makes a Detailed Statement.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 19.—As part of the purchase money in an unsuccessful deal for the ownership of the Ohio State Journal at Columbus, the draft for $50,000 mentioned in the John D. Archbold letter to public last night in St. Louis by William H. Hearst, to buy that paper was returned and the incident forgotten, according to a statement given to the Associated Press by the senator here today.

Senator Foraker declared in his statement that no one at any time overpaid him a cent or even suggested any such payment in consideration of anything he might do as a public man.

The statement is as follows:

"The production by Mr. Hearst of the letter of Mr. Archbold to me dated January 23, 1902, referring to a certificate of deposit enclosed for $50,000 and expressing the hope that the transaction may be safely concluded, illustrates how unreliable is the memory or how easily appearances may deceive.

"When I first had this office I could not recall that I had ever received any such letter or any such certificate. I at once called on my house in Washington, where my letters of that date are on file and had a search made, with the result that a proposed transaction was recalled that had gone entirely out of my mind.

Plan to Buy Newspaper.

"A friend of mine—a newspaper man—informing me that he held an option on the Ohio State Journal, to purchase it, according to my present recollection for $150,000. He was able himself to advance but a small amount of this purchase price. He applied to me to help him. I did not have enough money to be of very material assistance, but for the sake of having the paper in friendly hands, I was willing to advance a part of it. I applied to a number of friends to see if they would not make up the balance of the amount. Among others, I applied to the Standard Oil company. They first agreed to loan to the newspaper company when purchased and reorganized $50,000, according to my present recollection, the same to be secured by stock of the newspaper company.

"Somebody who was expected to go into the enterprise dropped out and that made it necessary for all the others to increase the amount they were proposing to advance. At request of my friend I asked the different parties to increase their advances, and thereupon the Standard Oil company did accordingly increase its amount from $50,000 to $50,000, and sent me the letter with certificate enclosed as stated.

"It was thought at that time that the transaction would be immediately closed, but there was a delay of a few days, and at the end of that delay the whole transaction fell to the ground because other people had stepped in and purchased the property.

"Thereupon I returned the draft to the Standard Oil company. I had no employment in the matter and never derived a cent of profit from it and never made any charge on account of it to anybody. I am at the disadvantage of not being able to produce this correspondence, because it is on my files in Washington and I cannot get at it for the present, but I am confident that when I am able to produce it it will be found to be in exact accord with my statement.

Acted as Advisory Counsel.

"I do not remember of having received the letter relating to the bill introduced by Senator Jones of Arkansas, but whether I received such a letter or not it had no reference to any employment of any kind from the Standard Oil company or anybody else; nor did the letters about Smith Bennett and Judge Burkett read by Mr. Hearst at Columbus have any reference to any employment. I favored the nomination of Mr. Bennett notwithstanding Mr. Archbold's objection to him and would have favored Judge Burkett's nomination if I had not heard from Mr. Archbold. Judge Burkett was a personal as well as political friend of many years standing and I favored him the first time he was nominated, which was long before I knew Mr. Archbold.

"I can only repeat that the only employment I ever had by the Standard Oil company was as set forth in my statement published yesterday, as advisory counsel with respect to its affairs in Ohio.

"It will be remembered that the Standard Oil company has first sued and a decree of dissolution was entered in the supreme court which made it necessary for the company to reorganize. Difficulties arose in carrying out that decree, which delayed their reorganization and proceedings were instituted against them by Attorney General Monnett in the supreme court to enforce the former decrees for other relief. It was then that I was employed, not to participate in the litigation, which was in the hands of competent counsel, but to investigate the whole situation, the records in the case, the statutes in Ohio applicable to the company and the case against it, the decree of the court and all the records in the case with a view to advising the company how, in my opinion, it could most safely proceed to comply with the order of the court and to conform to our statute and to reorganize as not to violate any law or judgments. This work involved frequent consultation with the attorneys of the company, the examination of the voluminous records, the judgments and decrees of the court and a general study of what was best to be done, not to evade law and the decrees of the courts, but to comply with the same.

No Conflict with Duties.

"Nothing connected with this work had relation to anything whatever pending in congress or to any matter in which the federal government was interested in the slightest degree, nor did anything connected with the employment relate to or conflict with any duty of mine as senator.

"The company finally concluded, as a result of all the investigations and consultations and advice, to reorganize by incorporating under the laws of the state of New Jersey, and then my services ended. I have never had any relations whatever to the company since.

"Any letters Mr. Archbold may have written me on any subject since that time have been written as any citizen might write to any legislator with whom he was acquainted concerning pending legislation that affected him or his interests, and from the time my services ended, I have never been under any obligations to the company nor the company under any obligations to me.

"Neither the Standard Oil company nor any other company or individual has ever paid me a cent on account of any public service, nor has that company or anybody else even suggested to me any compensation or reward of any kind in consideration of support for any bill or opposition to any bill or for any action of any nature whatever.

A short time after giving out the above statement Senator Foraker was in long distance telephone communication with Washington city, after which he gave out the following:

"Since dictating the foregoing, my clerk has found and read to me over the telephone the following letter, which is complimentary to what I said above about returning the draft:

"WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 4, 1902.—Dear Mr. Archbold: I very greatly regret to have to inform you that the proposed transaction at Columbus has failed, at least for the present.

"It may be revived later, but I doubt if I shall care to bother about it any more. However that may be, I herewith send you, with many thanks for your kindness in the matter, the draft for $50,000, payable to your order, as repayment of the money advanced by you on the above mentioned account.

"Kindly acknowledge receipt of the same and oblige. Very truly yours, etc., J. D. ARCHBOLD."

CHANGE IN CINCINNATI PROGRAM

Taft and Foraker May Not Speak from Same Platform.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—It was reported here this afternoon upon what seemed sufficient authority, though national headquarters was dumb on the subject, that Senator Foraker would be asked to withdraw as one of the speakers at the meeting of the League of Republican Clubs at Cincinnati next Tuesday.

Senator Foraker was scheduled to speak upon that occasion on the same platform with Mr. Taft.

It was learned late this afternoon that no definite decision had been reached as to extending any such request to Senator Foraker. John Hays Hammond, who has charge of the republican club matters for the national committee, is on his way to Cincinnati, and it is thought likely he will have a talk with Senator Foraker on the subject.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 19.—Senator Foraker this afternoon said that he knew nothing of any suggested change in the arrangements for the republican club meeting on next Tuesday in this city.

Socialist Candidate Speaks to Small Crowd at Lead.

LEAD, S. D., Sept. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—Seven hours late, the "Red Special," bearing Debs, the socialist candidate for president, and his party and the socialist band, arrived in Lead. Although the men in the mines had been granted the privilege of laying-off to hear Debs talk, but few availed themselves of the opportunity to do so, as the crowd which greeted him was a small one and lacked in enthusiasm.

Probably not over 30 people listened to his talk, which was a hurried one, he having

WRONG FOOD

If we only realized it, we are the principal cause of our own misfortunes, and eating improper food is a large factor in the make-up.

By giving a little thought to the question of what we ought and ought not to eat, we can make things much more pleasant for ourselves and others.

"Some time ago I was in the habit of eating buckwheat cakes, sausage, fried potatoes and coffee for breakfast," writes a N. Y. lady.

"I was troubled with headache and indigestion, but thought medicine would relieve me. Finally I saw my mistake and made up my mind that the cause of my trouble was in the food I was eating.

"About this time I saw Grape-Nuts mentioned in our paper, and I began to eat it with cream for breakfast and to drink Postum instead of coffee.

"I not only found them delicious but they corrected the headache and indigestion, and I feel like a new person. My mind is clear, nerves steady, my step has spring in it and I feel like singing all the time." "There's a Reason."

ing to fill engagements at Rapid City this afternoon and at Pierre this evening.

The proceedings were opened by the band playing the "Marseillaise," and when that tune had been completed the presidential candidate was introduced and at once launched a denunciation of all parties in the field save the socialists.

New Breed of Rats.

A find of another kind has been made at Limavady, county Derry. It is no less than a new and unknown breed of rats. Mr. Henry Morrow was mowing a field of corn on his farm at Scroghy when some strange animals were noticed scurrying away. The dogs gave chase and succeeded in killing one of the animals which turned out to be an unmistakable rat. It was nearly twice the size of the ordinary field or house rat, however, and it was jet black, with white spots along the back. The head was also somewhat unusual in shape. The new rat is much fiercer and fiercer than the former kind, and the farmers of county Derry are looking forward to good sport if the breed increases.

DEMOCRATS HAVE TROUBLES

longs. We are behind every civilized nation on earth except England on the question of government ownership of railroads. Every country of continental Europe now owns more or less of its railroads. Japan has absorbed all its railroads. New Zealand furnishes an example of government ownership of railroads and Germany also. All the great countries of Europe own more or less of their railroads.

"The question has been asked, 'Where will we get the money to buy the railroads?' If you will establish postal savings banks what will you do with the money? England has a national debt which is supposed to be the chief bulwark of the nation, because the government owes the people so much that they have to support it. And I say to you if you have postal savings banks your savings will be invested in the government-owned railroads and then you will earn interest on that money and the people would have their money invested in their own railroads, with the government standing between them as their agent.

"But it is not necessary to buy these railroads. The government can commence and build a railroad just the same as we are building the Panama canal, and you can make the railroads meet the rates of the government-owned railroad or go out of business, and when you make it so they can't afford to do anything else; then you will control the situation. Over there in Germany the great source of revenue is the profit derived from the government-owned railroads, and they don't own a little more than half of them."

An amusing line in that same speech, considered along with the action of the last legislature and the recent court decision, is this:

"The republican anti-pass plank is absolutely without meaning—without any definite policy whatever."

Discrepancy in Returns.

Out in the Forty-ninth representative district there is trouble over the nomination of a republican candidate for the legislature. On the face of the returns, A. H. Clough received the nomination by four votes. G. W. Fitzsimmons, his opponent, was in Lincoln today and said by the returns certified to him from Garfield county he received the nomination by six votes. He left for Garfield county to look into the matter, as the returns certified to the secretary of state are different from the figures he received from that county.

Farmers Are Satisfied.

A. A. Hyers, congressional committee-man and Willard Clapp, secretary to Congressman Pollock, returned this afternoon from a tour of the southern part of Lancaster county, feeling in good spirits over the outlook for republican success.

"I have never seen farmers so well satisfied with conditions, politically and otherwise," said Mr. Hyers. "Farmers that I thought were Democrats told me they saw no reason for a change. All farm products, they told me, were high and conditions were such that they desired them to remain that way. I found no opposition to Congressional action. His good work on behalf of the agriculturalists has been appreciated by the farmers and they told me they are for him. They told me he had made a good representative of the farming class and they intended to vote for him. I believe the republican vote in Lancaster county, basing this on what I have seen in this country, will be larger than ever before."
