Beauty and Bad Breath

Cannot Go Together No Matter How a Woman May Try to Make Them.

It does not matter how beautiful a woman may be, if she is afflicted with bad breath she will be shunned and pitied by men and even women will studiously avoid her.

If any woman doubts this statement let her make a point of asking a friend in whom she may confide, a man friend or relative. If he is honest he will tell her that foul breath from the mouth of a woman will drive men from her more rapidly than any other personal affliction.

Foul breath arises in man disgust and where this quality is brought into play no amount of self-denial or reasoning can overcome the natural repugnance which comes to man when he is in company with such a woman.

What is true of bad breath in woman is not true in so great a degree in men. Women are looked upon as the incarnation of sweetness, breeding, virtue and refinement. Foul breath will sicken a man so that he cannot feel for such a woman a companionship necessary to make him desire to be in her company.

There is absolutely no occasion for bad breath in either man or woman. Charcoal, the strongest absorbent known, when taken into the stomach, will prevent this repugnant tendency or affliction.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are sold in tremendous quantities all over America and Canada. They cure and have cured all cases of bad breath. A single box will convince you of this fact. One should eat some of these lozenges after each meal and upon retiring. You might as well try them without harm. They are not medicine, but pure willow charcoal, mixed with sweet honey to make them palatable and compressed into a lozenge to preserve their peculiar and lasting strength.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

George W. Berge Delivers Address Before Local Y. M. C. A.

ACTS MUST SQUARE WITH CREED

Money from Bond Issue Received and Contractors Can Now Proceed with Work on Sewer System.

"It don't make any difference what you believe, if you don't believe it," said George W. Berge, quoting a favorite saying of Dr. Fletcher Wharton, at the Young Men's Christian association banquet last night.

"Our religion nowadays has too much to do with its outward appearances, while the inner soul is lacking. Alexander H. Stephens, coming north to see Abraham Lincoln, wore four overcoats of a rusty brown color. Lincoln, with a knowledge of the corn belt, said to him, 'Say, that's the biggest pile of shucks I ever saw for such a little nubbun.' So with our beliefs too often. We pile on the outer garments, the husk and the glitter, but starve the inner spirit."

Secretary J. P. Bailey talked a short time on the physical department. He said that this side was one of the best sides by which to measure the young men. It brought them within the sphere of the association's influence. Secretary Young told briefly of the financial standing of the association. He said it was better now than ever before. It is hoped that the vigorous campaign to follow this banquet will make the membership what it should be. Six hundred is the goal hoped for before next spring.

Anderson to Commercial Congress. Governor George L. Sheldon has appointed David Anderson of South Omaha to represent the state of Nebraska at the Transmississippi Commercial congress, this congress will be in session at San Francisco, Cal., October 6 to 19. Mr. Anderson, who was member of the first congress held in Omaha in 1896, has received his commission and will leave for the coast about October 1.

Progress on Public Improvements. Public improvements are proceeding reasonably well in South Omaha at the present time. The contractors have finished the paving of Twenty-fifth street and begun the paving on West Q street from Thirty-third to the city limits on the west Thursday morning. This work will be completed in two weeks.

The contractor for the foot bridge for Garfield school at Sixteenth and A streets was begun Friday morning. The wagon bridge being built by the Western Contractors' Supply company of Omaha at Twenty-fifth and Polk streets will be completed Saturday night.

The contractors erecting the Q street viaduct are removing the last of the concrete piers which supported the old structure. The piling having been partly driven to reinforce the foundation of the west abutment and the excavation is in progress for the east abutment. As soon as this is done the concrete abutment can be raised.

The only street under contract which is not being improved is Q street from Twentieth to Twenty-fourth. This paving was let to the National Construction company, and the city was enjoying from proceeding or allowing the contractor to proceed. It is contended that this contract was not let to the lowest and best bidder, Dan Hannon is the plaintiff in the suit, which has not yet come to a hearing.

Money on Bond Issue. The city treasurer has received $60,000 from the Emery Anderson company from the sale of $20,000 worth of sewer bonds and $40,000 interest bonds. In addition to the par value the city received $50 in accrued interest. This provides money enough to complete the entire Omaha sewer system, according to the estimates of the city engineer. The state legislature gave the city the right to issue bonds up to $50,000 only.

The contracts for the other branches of the sewer work will at once receive notice that they may begin work at the earliest moment. Two sections of the system have been under construction for eight months or more. In these cases money enough was in the treasury to complete them.

The Jetter creek sewer, Highland Park sewer and the north branch of the N street gulch sewer will be affected by the receipt of this money.

Sunday Services. Rev. H. H. Millard will occupy his pulpit at the First Methodist church for the last time Sunday. He has resigned his church to become financial secretary of Wesleyan university.

"The Hope of Glory" is Rev. George Van-winkle's Sunday morning sermon. "The Builder's Blunder," is the topic in the evening.

Rev. D. A. Johnson of Waida, Kan., will preach Sunday morning and evening at the United Presbyterian church at 12:15. Dr. R. L. Wheeler will conduct two services at the First Presbyterian church.

"Healing the Lepers," is Rev. E. W. Liver's theme at the English Lutheran church Sunday morning. The young people will hold their twenty-fifth and anniversary at 7:30 p. m. and Luther church, Rev. F. T. Ray will conduct the services at the Christian church.

Magic City Gospiel. George McBride, Jr., has gone to Kearney to attend the military academy.

Mrs. G. P. Matthews has returned from Futest City, Ia.

M. D. Miller was arrested on complaint of his wife for disturbing the peace.

Public Health Officer, R. D. D., is the guest of her son, Joseph Walker.
