The issue really is whether the republicans of Ohio, therefore, as the constituents of either a senator or a presidential candidate, support the main policies maintained by the administration or the opposition to those policies. Representing the policies of the administration, or the opposition to those policies. Representing the policies of the administration, or the policies of the administration at the republicans of Ohio regard this fundamental difference of opinion as of no importance and one that can be waived in the interest of party hermony, or the settlement of factional differences. There is not the slightest doubt that the meximal convention of the republican party will austain in full the vital and main principies maintained by President Roosevelf and will express no sympathy with the opposition represented by Senator Fornker. Because I believe in these principies maintained by President the republicans of the state and nation are overwhelmingly in favor of them, i cannot favor any action by members of the committee, who do me the honor to support me and wish to aid me, which will have the appearance of sequiencends in the proposed compromise.
