REPUBLICAN SPEAKING DATES Some Outside Man of Note to Deliver a Speech in Each of the Larger Cities—Democrats Meet Today. Crown a Staff Correspondent. DES MOINES IA. Sept. 21.—(Special.)— Fifteen hundred school children of Des Moines will see Judge Taft when he reaches this city Friday. The officials of the schools refuse to make any effort to get the children to see Taft enmasse, because has is only a candidate and partissa politics might be charged, but the school teachers are arranging to take the children of their departments to the Union depot to see the candidate. The Taft club being organized in this city will be one of the largest in the history of the city. Arrengements have been made for the club to meet at the Commercial club hall tomorrow night to arrange the details of the plans for the reception to Judge Taft. It is expected that the club will number 2,000, and it is the intention to have most of these turn out and greet Taft at the depot upon his arrival hers. The democratic state judicial convention to nominate a candidate for the Bishop vacancy will be held tomorrow evening when Committeemen Atwood of Kansas of the national committee will deliver an address. Every effort is being made by the democrats to make this a big state campaign at that time. Speculation is rife as to what the legisfature will do next January as to Judge Frank R. Gaynor of the Fourth Judicial district. Judge Gaynor made some notoriety for himself soon after the adjournment of the regular session of the Thirty-second general assembly by refusing to recognize the indeterminate sentence law. He sentenced a criminal to a definite term on the grounds that the law was unconstitutional. Since then each criminal who has come before him has been sentenced to a definite term of years.
