NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Speculators Attempt to Follow Movement of Standard Oil Crowd.

CAUSES IRREGULAR MARKET

Brisk Early Advance Followed by Heavy Offerings of Harriman and Reading, and Prices Break.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Professional operators in the stock market have come to practical agreement on the Standard Oil and Oil market.

The attention of the day on effort was wholly centered to speculate through the Standard Oil.

Oil brokers were doing this. This was because of the conviction that the market is under the control of a combination of capital.

having affiliations with the Standard Oil. The followers of the speculation had to be kept in line.

trading evidence, of what these million-dollar operators might be doing. The most simple method was to follow the movement of Union Pacific.

Until that stock purchases were made of either that or other stocks.

Observation of the operations of members of the firms supposed to be employed in the interest of the combination.

The difficulties of following this rough method of deduction is obvious.

As a matter of fact the market was in a state of hesitation and unsettlement throughout the session.

Open selling of Union Pacific and Standard Oil by the houses which were largest buyers yesterday broke prices from the brisk early advance.

There was a general feeling of uneasiness then came under suspicion and the market fluctuated under this doubt.

There were diversions of capital into other stocks, but without conclusive effect on the market.

The Hill stocks made an aggressive advance.

Reports unconfirmed said that Rock Island had secured needed supplies of copper.

The metal market and mining stocks in concert. The marking up of the price of copper was effected last night.

On this movement. Indeed, the whole market was affected by this incident, owing to the close connection between the speculative movement of stocks and the price of copper for some time past.

Westinghouse Electric and the benefit of the report that reorganization would be effected without resort to the bankruptcy court.

Little impression was made by the settlement of the decline in the market for the week.

When the stock market was disturbed early in the week, New York City a combination of capital was supposed to be caused by the withdrawal of funds from the market.
