NAMES OF LADIES AT THE COURT

Crowning Function of Ak-Sar-Ben Promises to Match Any of Its Predecessors in Pomp and Ceremony.

Satisfied.

Of many graces she's possessed;
She's pretty, graceful, neat and smart;
Yet though these charms are manifest,
I must admit she has no heart.

For that, I'm not denouncing her,
Nor does it cause me to repine,
I simply want you to infer
That I won it and it's mine.

Directoire gowns will be seen at the coronation ball this year. When King Ak-Sar-Ben XIV ascends his throne Friday night his subjects will be gaily attired and it is said that a number of these creations from Paris will greet the eye of the merry monarch.

The Ak-Sar-Ben ball is the great center where the people of the state meet their cousins of the metropolis. The board of governors makes it a point to invite some of the leading citizens from nearly every town in the state. When these come to Omaha the reception committee makes an especial effort to see that they are made to feel at home and meet subjects of the king from other parts of the state. The ball this year will be no exception.

The coronation ball is being crowded for stellar honors by the great Cinderella ball, which will be held at the Den Saturday afternoon. It will be children's day, when the children of Omaha will not only be the principal actors in the great Cinderella drama which will be enacted, but will have the entire floor to themselves for the grand ball which will follow. All children of Omaha are invited to take part in this grand ball, which is not limited to the children of the knights of Ak-Sar-Ben. There is a great demand for spectators' tickets for the Cinderella ball.

King Ak-Sar-Ben XIV will have a brilliant court this year and when the monarch marches down the long isle to meet his consort and lead her to the throne he will be surrounded by as splendid a galaxy of youth and beauty as ever a monarch beheld. His is a prosperous people, dwelling in the best section of this wide country, and when the king and queen of Quivera take their places on the throne the subjects present will represent the best in his kingdom. Those in attendance at the coronation ceremonies Friday night will be:
