WANTED TELEGRAPH OPERATORS!

Would you accept a position as operator if ready for it? Railroad operators get from $52.50 to $150 per month.

Boyles College is besieged by the railroads asking for more operators from our Telegraph department.

Is there any reason why you should not get ready to take such a position?

Boyles College graduates in Telegraphy are guaranteed a good position as soon as they qualify. This guarantee is backed by the Union Pacific rail-

We now have a large number of students and more applications are being received, but we can accommodate about double the present number. Do not delay, as we are being urged to send operators to various sta-

Boyles College Department of Telegraphy is in charge of a man of wide arren or more consecutive insertions, experience. He has been a train dispatcher.

> Our equipment is first-class and the Union Pacific railway at its own expense has connected our department with the main line train dispatcher's wire of that road. This gives every student an opportunity to familiarize himself with direct train orders. It is invaluable.

> We have the equipment and the teaching force. The demand is constant and urgent. The expense is light, is there any reason why you should not learn to be an operator? Railway managers and superintendents and presidents were nearly all operators at one time. Someone must take the places of the men who pass on. Will you be one of them?

> Enroll at once. If you cannot take the Day Course, try the Night

Catalogues of all departments are free.
