W. B. "Reduso" Corsets

The stout woman who prefers to have a bad figure rather than have had health through wearing a clumsy harness that straps and buckles and squeezes her into torture, will find the W. B. "Reduso" the brightest ray of hope that ever came to her despairing ambition for style, with comfort. It's as simple as any other W. B. Corset. It's the last word in scientific stay building; simple, light in weight, durable and by no means expensive. It readjusts the figure by supporting it properly and posess the body correctly; the back is strengthened, the hips are pulled down and the figure below the spine tapered off, giving a perfection of grace hitherto deemed unattainable by women of more than ordinary development.

KERN AND SHERMAN SHAKE

Two Vice Presidential Candidates Meet at Chicago

KERN'S RAILROAD PASS FOUND

Pastor Held as Attorney for Big Four States at Connersville Located Where Planted by Thief.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Accidentally, but as a fitting preface to the scheduled meeting of Mr. Bryan and Mr. Taft at a banquet here October 7, John W. Kern, democratic candidate for vice president, and James S. Sherman, republican candidate for vice president, met today.

Mr. Kern in a dark business suit and the latest thing in the green Fedora, was standing in the lobby of the Auditorium Annex when a bystander rushed up and asked to shake hands with "the next vice president."

"Certainly, with pleasure," said Mr. Kern. "But make sure you would better shake hands with that man over there—that one with the side whiskers. That's Mr. Sherman."

The stranger did as suggested, and then Mr. Sherman and Mr. Kern began moving toward each other and presently the long sinewy hand of the second man on the democratic ticket was grasped in the plump one of his republican opponent.

They smiled genially, exchanged felicitations on the drop in the temperature and other commonplaces, and then departed to catch trains.

Kern's Big Four Pass.

With reference to the Big Four pass belonging to Mr. Kern, and which was reported found yesterday, it leaked out that Mr. Kern had lost it along with the other contents of his pocketbook at Connersville, Ind., upon his recent visit there. Mr. Kern believes that in the pocket of the house he was entitled to transportation under the law, he said, but had no use for it. Mr. Kern left today for Kalamazoo, Mich., over the Michigan Central. He was accompanied by Democratic National Committeeman Woods of Michigan.

DAVIS IS HELD FOR MURDER

The substitute for Abbie Rice," said Mr. English. "The woman had agreed to shoot the physician on his order, but four times she failed and the physician saw it was no use to depend on her. Just at that time Davis appeared—another wife, who was cast into his hands almost by fortune. He was and is a man who has no use for life and places no value on it. Dr. Rustin saw his opportunity. Davis entered—and there is nothing to show that he ever withdrew."

"Out on the hill of west Farnam Davis went that night. He took a Dundee car—a car which went through that suburb, but—strange—he got off at Fortieth and Farnam streets, where Dr. Rustin was due in just the time necessary for him to walk there with the Rice woman. Davis said he went there to take over life. But did he go about seeking to destroy himself? No; he says he walked around awhile. He walked around just long enough to wait for Dr. Rustin, and he must have met him out there."

"Walking around in the neighborhood of the physician who wanted to have himself killed, walking around out there loaded with 100 grains of morphine and a bottle of acetic looking for death, he stood on the corner of Fortieth and Farnam streets smoking a cigar."

Tell-Tale Cigar Stubs.

"And that cigar," said Mr. English with a start. "That tell-tale cigar." The stub of it was found on Dr. Rustin's porch the next morning, together with the stub of another cigar which the physician had evidently smoked—and more—more—two of the morphine tablets which Dr. Rustin bought for Davis at the time Mrs. McConnell drug store and gave to Davis."

"The defendant says he never saw Dr. Rustin after he took the street car to go west on Farnam street and that though Dr. Rustin had put him on the car, he did not believe the physician knew why he took a walk around in Omaha."

"The county attorney told the court that the hearing was not a trial at which the judge was supposed to decide whether the defendant was guilty or not beyond a reasonable doubt, but simply whether enough evidence had been secured to show that the defendant should stand on a jury and stand trial. Mr. English defended the Rice woman and her testimony, saying that Mr. Gurley had sought to discredit her story, so frank and so many details corroborated, simply because she was a fallen woman."

"Why, he even brings her sister into it and would have the court discredit her testimony because she was a fallen woman to Omaha and placed her in a resort. Certainly that misfortune for this nineteen year old girl, is no reason why her testimony should be thrown out in this case."

"The county attorney made some sarcastic remarks about the alibi presented by the defense and the physician brought in Davis disarranging the toilet room at the Chatham hotel, but said the alibi offered by Davis was too absurd to seriously consider and dismissed it with a word."

Gurley Accuses Mrs. Rice.

That Abbie Rice had the motive and is a person without moral sense, who shot Dr. Frederick T. Rustin on the morning of September 2, and not Charles E. Davis, was the argument of W. F. Gurley, one of the attorneys for Davis, who went over the testimony of the state for two hours Tuesday morning when court opened.

"This woman, who four times promised to shoot the physician, who came so near to taking his life that all she had to do was to pull the trigger; this woman who robbed a trusting wife and children of a husband's and father's love; this woman who had a check for $500 in her possession 'kool' said Mr. Rustin was dead," is the reason to whom the strongest emphasis was placed by Mr. Gurley. "And when asked if she was willing to kill Dr. Rustin, not showing that her moral sense was offended, replied, 'It was all right with me.'"

"All right with her; all right with her to take a man's life and give as a reason that she was always sick as the doctor told her to do. Four times she came near killing him, but each time she came a little nearer, until the fourth time she had the gun in her hands, the physician had stepped back from her, the darkness of the barn and said, 'Shoot me, shoot me now!' but her nerve failed her."

"What of the Next Time?"

"But she does not dare tell now near she came to killing him the next time—she does not dare say there was another time. She says each of the four times Dr. Rustin told her he would not be shot in the abdomen so he would not die immediately."

"And where was he shot?" shouted the attorney, bringing a powerful fist down on a court room table. "Where was Dr. Rustin shot? In the abdomen, just where

TAFT TRAVELS IN SOUTH DAKOTA

Campaign in State Will End at Vermillion.

ABERDEEN, S. D., Sept. 29.—The South Dakota campaign of Candidate Taft began at this place shortly after 8 o'clock this morning with a big meeting. Judge Taft spoke from a platform erected close by the station. His voice was husky and hardly equal to the heavy day's work ahead of him. His itinerary includes meetings at Mellette, Redfield, Wolsley, with an hour and a half at Mitchell and short stops at

MONSTER PARADE FOR TAFT

The next bulletin, in December, will contain figures on crop yields, shown in the following table:

Total cultivated area.....	2,178,773
Acres winter wheat.....	62,741
Acres spring wheat.....	43,479
Acres corn.....	24,825
Acres oats.....	14,107
Acres barley.....	365
Acres rye.....	1,284
Acres potatoes.....	12,377
K.I. 2500 strain shru du bin bin lumbb	4,986
Acres tame hay.....	85,123
Acres wild hay.....	99,349

In estimating loss of acreage earlier in the season the head of the bureau placed it at not less than 5 per cent of the total planted on and said the loss would probably be 10 per cent. We now think the latter figure is approximately correct, which would almost account for the decreased acreage reported in crop by the deputy assessors.

he told Abbie Rice she must shoot him.

"Then when the physician was lying on the floor his hands at the foot of the stairs, losing consciousness, as his wife bent over him, whose name did he call? It was not his wife's name; it was not the name of any man. It was 'Polly, Polly, oh, Polly' and Polly was Mrs. Rice, his generous, his companion, who four times had agreed to shoot him. Whose face was it he last saw before the shot was fired which caused his death? Was it not 'Polly, Polly, Polly'?"

In arguing that the state had made a mistake in even placing Davis on preliminary hearing Mr. Gurley said there was ten times as much evidence against Abbie Rice as against Davis.

Makes Fan of Evidence.

"Some testimony has been introduced here to show the Rice woman was back at the house of Clara Gleason at ten minutes till 12 o'clock the night Dr. Rustin was killed. I suppose the county attorney wanted to establish an alibi for his star witness and look at that alibi. The form of the street car barn says Abbie Rice said he went to the place at 11:20 and returned to Omaha; the conductor says the face is familiar, but he does not know for certain. Outside of that the state has nothing but the statement of a courtesan and a colored wench, who say the Rice woman was in the place at 10 minutes to 12. But no one believes their testimony is good and there is nothing to show that if Abbie Rice returned to the city at 11 o'clock she did not return later and that Dr. Rustin some place in the neighborhood of his home."

The explanation offered by Mrs. Rice that the $500 was given to her for her funeral expenses so her folks would not know if she committed suicide, was ridiculed by the attorney for the defense.

"It would have been better if sister's heart had she known—that sister who in her mother's home in Des Moines planned to bring Abbie Rice to Omaha and place her in a resort—that sister who remained with her in the house two months and got her onto the ropes and the way, through which she had already been here in Omaha."

Mr. Gurley read to the court the testimony which Judge Crawford had ruled out and contended that the court had stricken out every bit of evidence which tended to implicate Charles E. Davis.

What is Ruled Out.

"Let us see what is ruled out by the order of this court," he said.

"The fact that Dr. Rustin gave Davis or was going to give him poison is out."

"That Davis came to the office to meet Dr. Rustin is out."

"What kind of poison Dr. Rustin told the Rice woman he was to give Davis, is out by order of this court."

"That Charles E. Davis was to kill the physician near his own home was stricken from the evidence by order of this court."

"The story the woman tells about looking up the effects of acetic has been ruled out."

"That Dr. Rustin said he was going to give acetic to Davis to kill himself is out by the ruling of this court."

"And, finally, by ruling of this court, the evidence that Dr. Rustin said he had finished his plan for Davis to take his life and then kill himself, is all out of this case."

"Now, without that evidence the court cannot bind this defendant over and the court has ruled all the evidence out, and justly so."

Tried on Evidence Alone.

The attorney for the defense said the case was to be tried on evidence alone and not on yellow journalism nor anarchistic statements made on the street. He took
