a good address. FAIRBURY, Neb., Sept. 30.-(Special.) Two hundred and fifty strong the Jefferson County Taft Club went to Lincoln today to participate in the big Taft meeting held there. The local band accompanied the delegation and the boys went prepared to make themselves seen and heard. Large Taft badges, and red, white and blue um brellas were part of the regalla carried by the local delegates. The local Taft club numbers more than 300 members and it is one of the most enthusiastic organisations of the kind in the state.

WAYNE, Neb., Sept. 30 .- (Special.) The republican rally here today was a great success. The weather was beautiful and at 6:30 a. m. the Wayne and Bloomfield trains brought in several hundred people and by 8 o'clock farmers from all over the country thronged the streets of this city. The Commercial club band started the program promptly at 8 o'clock and proceeded to the depot. where a short address was made by State Senator Charles Randall, after which United States Senator Burkett delivered an eloquent address to a large audience that frequently applauded the speaker. The Wayne Taft club to the number of nearly 250 were present on the arrival of the Taft special. The next president was tendered such, an ovation as was never witnessed here before. It is estimated that between four and five thousand people were present.

Telegram) .- The hearing of Howard Provo. charged with breaking into the postoffice at Walthill on the night of September 2, 1908, was held before United States Commissioner Singhaus today. Eight or nine witnesses were examined. after which Singhaus bound him over to appear before the next federal grand jury. Homer Morris, who is but 18 years old, pleaded guilty last night to the same offense and made an affidavit implicating Provo. Provo denies having seen Morris for a week previous to the robbery, but witnesses testified that they had seen the two together several times and once on the evening of the robbery as late as 11 o'clock. United States Marshal Proctor took Morris to Omaha tonight. as he could not secure the $1.500 hall. Provo gave a bond in the sum of $800 to appear before the gran1 jury. The case was in charge of Postoffice Inspector L. A. Thompson.
