Judge McHugh Back from St. Louis—Judge W. D. McHugh has returned from St. Louis, where, on behalf of the railroads interested, he filed a petition in the United States circuit court asking that a decision of the Interstate Commerce commission be set aside, alleging that the reduction in live stock rates ordered would mean a loss of $1,000,000 annually and the reduction in terminal charges at Chicago a loss of $250,000. The ruling of the commission was secured on a petition filed by the Cattle Raisers' association of Texas, and secured lower rates from Texas and other southern grazing districts to St. Louis, Chicago, Omaha, Kansas City and other points in the north.

Monthly Summary furnished by the Union Stock Yards company makes one of the most creditable showings ever produced. The month of September broke all records for receipts, being fully $1,000,000 head. This is the most cheering fact which the season has brought out. Much of this increase is due to the prominence Omaha has received as a wool center during the last six months. That move is bearing fruit in the opinion of the commission men. One of the prominent commission men said of the sheep market: "I believe that the sheep are selling about right this year. Last year I advised all my patrons to stay out. All of them thank me for it. This year I have constantly advised them to get in and stock up on feeders at present prices. Last year's prices were too high on the feeder grade. I remember days when 4 cents was paid for feeders."

September shows the receipt of 132,782 cattle, 116,178 hogs and 465,675 sheep. This is fair in hogs and cattle, but a record breaker in sheep. It is the biggest month in the yards. October, 1906, was the former record, 432,349 head.

Municipal Delegates as Visitors. The Union Stock Yards company is making great preparations to receive guests as of honor today, the League of American Municipalities. Four McKean motors will take the party at 1:30 p. m. to Lane on the cut-off and will then return to Summit and switch into the South Omaha yards. The party will divide on arriving in the South Omaha yards and will run in on the packing house tracks to all four of the big plants. One car will be sent to each plant. It is planned that the women of the party shall visit the Omaha plant. The packers are making preparation to receive the delegation. For the instruction of the number of visitors among the guests of Ak-Sar-Ben, Armour & Co. have prepared a special exhibit. Wilson and Company, the Omaha Packing company and Cudahy Packing company have given the liberty of the plant to all guests. Numbers of extra guides have been put in service for the occasion.

After visiting the packing houses the delegation will assemble at the Exchange building and make the rounds of the stock yards. After this a buffet lunch will be served in the Exchange dining hall.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

South Omaha Republicans Plan a Big Reception for Judge Taft.

CITY IN TRIM FOR VISITORS

Delegates to League of American Municipalities to Pay a Visit to the Yards and Packing Houses During Day.

Plans for the reception of Judge W. H. Taft, who is to speak at the library hall at 8 p. m. today, are proceeding of every other affair of the city. The Taft club met last night at Eagle hall and perfected the final details. A band is to be provided which will play an opening concert beginning at 7:30. There will be no delays in the arrangements, so that the speakers may have every moment of time. The leaders of the Taft club will occupy the platform. Appropriate badges and emblems will be secured by the members of the club and friends of the candidate.

It was suggested by P. J. Trainor, the chairman of the Taft club, that the people of South Omaha should be loyal and hear Mr. Taft here. "It probably will be better to meet him here for the reason that an enormous crowd will be out to hear him in Omaha. Those who are not out early will not be able to get within hearing distance. Arrangements for extra cars have been practically concluded to take the people to Omaha immediately after the speaking is over. The only hitch in this respect is the number to be required. Six at least will be on hand.

Brennan Quits Democracy. M. J. Brennan, one of the former candidates for mayor on the democratic ticket, has openly announced his departure from the party. He in past years based his democracy on Bryan's arguments for free trade, free silver, anti-imperialism and government ownership. Now he says: "If there is any point in the United States, or at any time in our public affairs, a new argument which looks catchy and like a winner or a fad, Bryan is there to seize it; but his record shows that he is just as quick to drop it when it fails to pan out. I thought I believed in some things once, but I have to change too often if I follow Bryan. I am done."

Swedish-Norwegian Republican Club met at 333 Q street last evening and endorsed the republican nominees, and as many as possible of the club members were urged to meet Taft when he arrives in South Omaha. The club passed the following resolution: "Whereas, Ak-Sar-Ben is fast becoming a republican stronghold; and whereas, the republicans of South Omaha at this time have been so fortunate as to nominate three of their best citizens for office; be it Resolved, That the Swedish-Norwegian Republican club, in meeting assembled, recommend their republican candidates of South Omaha to the voters as safe and conservative men, who will work for the best interests of South Omaha, for its independence and home rule."

South Omaha never appeared so good as it does this year. Everything about the whole packing district is in ship shape. The commission men were never more cheerful and thriving. They have the happy prediction to make to the hosts of patrons who daily throng the corridors of the Live Stock exchange and the offices of the packing houses.

The monthly summary furnished by the Union Stock Yards company makes one of the most creditable showings ever produced. ASHLAND WOMAN IN HARD LUCK In Spite of Precautions Her Gold Watch and Chain is Lost in the Crash. Among the tales of woe that were told to the police and detectives during and after the parade Wednesday evening was one of how an Ashland woman wrapped her watch chain around her wrist and held her gold watch in her hand with her handkerchief to prevent their loss, and then, after all her precautions, lost the watch in the crowd. Other cases of lost purses and articles of jewelry were not lacking, and reports of the work of pickpockets also came to the police station. But as compared with other years, it is thought that the present carnival and parades have occasioned a smaller number of larceny complaints and reports of a similar character than previous years. According to Chief of Detectives Savage, this is due to the fact that the authorities started earlier this time in combating petty crimes, making a large number of arrests a week or more before the carnival began, thereby removing would-be offenders from the streets and putting them in jail where they have been kept since.

Minneapolis, and Miss Montague of Louisiana. The regular meeting of the Royal Achates Success lodge No. 2 will be postponed on account of the Ak-Sar-Ben and the visit of Judge Taft. C. H. Tully of Lakeside, Neb., and Logan Musser of Rushville, are visiting friends in South Omaha for a few days enroute home from Chicago. The session of the South Omaha School Institute has been postponed for one week on account of the carnival festivities and the visit of Judge Taft. Harry Tagg, who has been indisposed for two or three months, is able to be out again and attend to his business at the yards, having fully recovered. George Means was fined $5 and costs for striking William McGrath a well-to-do jailer, Tuesday night. Mrs. Means had caused her husband's arrest. He resisted the search at the jail. Recently recorded births are: Mike Pastevick, Thirtieth and H. a boy; Anton Govees, Fortieth and L. a girl; Mike Tarkowski, 59 North Thirty-fourth, a girl; Hugh Ashburn, 282 Washington, a boy. Two fires of small consequence caused the departments long runs yesterday. The first was in a lot of boxes back of the Koutsky Paint and Glass company. C. A. Melcher's clerk was firing some rubbish in the boxes when the fresh wind blew burning paper into the boxes filled with hay and excelsior. The loss was slight. The second was a stubble fire at Thirtieth and Madison. It was easily controlled.

WAS CONNOR WILL FOUND? Attorney Notifies Judge Leslie He Will Offer Document for Probate. That the appointment of administrators for the estate of Joseph A. Connor will be resisted and a will offered for probate is indicated by developments Wednesday. Smith & Smyth, attorneys in the case, notified County Judge Leslie that a will would be offered for probate within a few days. This turn in the case was unexpected, as at the hearing a few days ago it was announced that no will could be found, and after this announcement County Judge Leslie appointed the three heirs of Mr. Connor to administer the estate. It was known, however, that a will had been made by Mr. Connor last spring, but it was supposed he had destroyed it before his death. C. J. Smyth, one of the attorneys in the case, said he could not discuss the matter at present. He even declined to say whom he represented. Relatives at the late home of Mr. Connor also declined to discuss the case. Whether the will which will be presented in the one made last spring, which named Alfred Millard as executor, or one made previously or since is not known outside those immediately interested.

Y. M. C. A. WORKERS CONFERENCE Officers of Nebraska Association Holding Sessions at the Local Building. Fully forty employed officers of Nebraska Young Men's Christian associations are holding a conference at the Omaha association building today. In his talk Mr. Mansel told of his experiences during the twenty-three years he was an employee of the Young Men's Christian association. Almost every member of the conference sat down to the annual dinner last night in one of the banquet rooms of the association cafe. General Secretary C. M.
