Cupid and the Ak-Sar-Ben carnival are vidently working hand in hand, judging from the fourteen marriage licenses issued yesterday in Council Bluffs by the clerk of the district court. Only two couples were from this city, while Nebraska furnished five. Six couples were from various towns in this section of Iowa. Adolph Kroger, aged 17 and Ethel Bush, aged 22, both from Hordville, Neb., applied for a licase, but on account of the youth of the would-be bridegroom were refused. Young Kroger said he was alone in the world, was his own guardian and made his own living, consequently thought he was entitled to receive a marriage license, if he saw fit to take a wife unto himself. He and the young woman, who was five years his senior, appeared to be greatly disappointed when informed they could not get a license. Rev. Henry DeLong, as usual, was to

The action of the Board of Supervisors in making the contract complained of in plaintiff's petition and paying the money under said contract to Otto Vollstedt was ultra vires and void; that said amount so paid to said Vollstedt has been refunded to the treasury of Pottawattamic county; that said contract has been canceled by the said defendant board.

Through the efforts of Mr. Vollstedt nearly $10,000 was covered into the county treasury, and much of the money collected by him was from persons who had left Pottawattamie county and settled in other parts of the country. The board, in entering into the contract with Mr. Vollstedt, had merely been following a custom which had prevailed in this and other counties in the state for years.
