ACQUITTED OF FORGERY CHARGE

Kumber of Decisions Handed Down Covering Points in Liquor License Law-Can Limit Number of Saloons,

(From a Biaff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Oct. 8 .- (Special.) - Allen G. Faher of Chadron was today disbarred from the courts of Nebraska for the period of one year, beginning January 1, 1909. The order of disburment was issued by the supreme court as a result of proceedings instituted by the attorney general in response to a resolution of the house of representatives of the legislature of

Each party is to pay its own costs. The court in entering its judgment adopts the findings of a committee of attorneys, appointed as referees, comprising Charles H. Sloan of Geneva, Walter J. Anderson of Lincoln and H. P. Leavitt of Omaha. The court finds the evidence sufficient to sustain the findings against Mr. Fisher, the respondent. The avilabus is as fol-

Where an attorney in presenting a claim against the state, to the legislature, knowingly supports the same by false, forged and fraudulent appraisement as evidence or its validity and of the amount he is entitled to recover thereon he is guilty of gross unprofessional conduct and a breach of sound professional ethics and should receive suitable punishment therefor.

History of Case.

According to the report of the referees by some one unknown, but the forged docu ment was used by Mr. Flaher in support of a claim for $11,500 presented to the legislature. This claim was for lands in Dawes county belonging to the estate of Herman Goedde, who died without heirs in this country some time prior to the year 1901. Goedde was a subject of the kingdom of look after their interests and to obtain from the state of Nebraska the value of a secescheat to the state. Fisher obtained a evangelism. the value of the land was not fixed by the decree. An appraisement of the property was ordered and its value fixed at $1,500. Fisher filed with the additor and presented to the legislature of 1901 a claim for payment for the land in which he alloged that its value was $8,000, and as proof referred to the degree and a copy of the appraisement, which he said was attached to and made a part of his claim. No copy of the appraisement was in fact attached and for that reason the claim was not allowed.

After the appraisement was made it was fraudulently changed from $1,500 to $11,500. Captain Fisher again presented the claim to the legislature of 1903 and attached to it a copy of the altered appraisement and the claim was again rejected. He again presented it to the legislature of 1905, together with the altered appraisement and pressed it for allowance and for the third time it was disallowed.

When the legislature of 1907 met other persons claiming to act for the Goedde heirs presented a claim for the land on the supposition that it was escheated to the state. - Captuin Fisher was called be fore the claims committee of the house and disclosed the fact that he had recently purchased the land from his clients for $1,000, tess a commission of $50. The house then passed a resolution requesting the attorney general to institute disbarment proceedings against Captain Fisher.

Acculttal of Forgery.

The court in its opinion says: The respondent was acquitted of chang-The respondent was acquitted of changing or altering the appraisement and it is quite probable that he did not know of its alteration until after he presented his claim to the legislature of 1902, but it appears that during that year his attention was directed to the matter and he must have known that fact when he again presented the claim in 1902. There is no escape from this conclusion and so when he used the fraudulent appraisement to support his claim, after inving knowledge of its condition, he was guilty of gross unprofessional conduct and a breach of sound professional ethies. His conduct having been brought to our attention by this proceeding we are hot at liberty to overlook or condone it. Such conduct in an officer of this court not only merits, but actually requires discipline therefor. The committee has by its report recommended leniency in this case and in view of all the creating account to the recommended to alopt the record we are disposed to alopt the recommendation.

Saloon Closed by Appeal. An appeal to the district court by remo strant in a liquor license case is sufficient to close the saloon pending a decision in the district court, according to the decision of the supreme court in the suits filed by five where a hearing has been had upon an application for a license to sell intoxicating liquors and a remonstrance thereto, and such remonstrance has been overruled and a license issued, and an appeal has been taken to the district court within a reasonable time, the license so issued should be recalled and revoked pending the appeal in the district court, and mandamus will issue to compel the recall and revocation of the license. This same question is involved in the suits filed against the proprietor of Krug park in Omana for selling liquor after the village authorities of Benson had granted license over a remonstrance which was ater appealed to the district court of Doug.

On rehearing in the case of Fred Yeoman of Gosper county, charged with filegally selling and keeping for sale liquor, the supreme court has modified its former opinion, but requires Yeoman to pay a tine of $500. The syllabus, which contains the meat of the law in the case, follows:

the meat of the law in the case, follows:

A defendant, when on trial charged with the crime of selling intoxicating liquor without a license, is presumed to be innocent until such time as the evidence establishes his guilt beyond a reasonable loubt, and he is entitled to have the jury so instructed.

A person charged with the keeping of intoxicating liquors for the purpose of unhawfulty selling and disposing of the same, where such liquor is found in his possession, is not entitled to the presumption of innocence which usually surround he defendant in a criminal prosecution because the statute makes such possession presumptive evidence of a violation of inapter 32 of the annotated statutes of

Because Jacob Klamm of Lincoln failed o prove that his petitioners for a saloon icense were freeholders and that he himself was a citizen of good character and standing, the supreme court has reversed the judgment of the district court and American Women Play Prominent confirmed the order of the excise board which refused him a license. Dr. Samuel Zane Batten and others filed a remonstrance before the excise board and after being overruled appealed to the supreme court.

In reversing the decision of the district court of Lancaster county, the supreme court today held that the Lincoln Excise board had authority to limit the number of saloons to twenty-five. Jacob Klamm, who was refused a license, apepaled to the district court.
