Saturday Bargains

Thompson, Belden & Co's.

The public has learned from years of buying that when Thompson, Belden & Co. advertise an article at a reduced price it means that the article mentioned is exactly the value we say it is and also that the advertised reduction represents just the amount off we promise to give. We never buy up job lots or seconds for our saving sales, as they are always of inferior quality, but every item is taken from our own regular clean stock, which is always as good and reliable as can be bought. For economy's sake on Saturday and investigate these specials. You'll find them excellent bargains. Plenty of salespeople to wait upon you.

Long Kid Glove Sale, Saturday, Commencing at 9 A. M.
Two interesting numbers of long glove kid gloves, specially priced for Saturday.

Great Dress Goods Special—$1.00 Pretty Oxford Gray Dress Goods, Saturday 39c a Yard.

We have sold hundreds of yards at $1.00. Stylish Oxford gray in the chic checked effect. Handsome texture, medium weight. Probably there is no dress goods or color that looks so well to the end of its days as the Oxford gray. Good every day in the year. See it Saturday.

Special—Handsome Black Dress Goods Underpriced Saturday

$1.00 Serge Check 49c; $1.25 quality 79c; $1.35 quality 89c a yard. From out of the great black dress goods stock we select these three special numbers—just clearing out broken lines. Not a large quantity of any one lot, but they are fine style and best values of the season.

Kabo Corsets

Why shouldn't a woman who worries over a flower to improve its bloom and beauty, be just as particular with herself; be as symmetrical and graceful as trying will make her?

One of the strong helps is the "Kabo Corset." It is straight front, but not very high, makes one long from the chin to the bust line and going straight at a new angle from there downward, apparently rounds out the bust. The corset naturally gives one a rather military carriage and that helps the hips. Kabo corsets have no brass eyelets.
Prices, $1.00 to $3.00 each.

Coming

Of great interest to every woman in Omaha. Our special sale of 36-inch handsome Black Swiss Taffeta. Watch Sunday's paper for particulars.

ROCHESTER GETS MEETING

Dark Horse Secures Rural Carriers' Convention for 1909.

ONE BALLOT DECIDES CONTEST

President Lindsay Is Elected for the Fourth Time—National Association Adjourns Sixth Convention.

President—Paul L. Lindsay, Tucker, Ga. Vice President—Elias Frey, Pendleton, Ind.

Secretary—P. E. Cull, Concord, Mass. Treasurer—J. D. Williams, Renfrew, Pa.

Executive Committee—J. H. Johnson, New Hampshire; L. T. Senger, Missouri; T. E. Wicker, South Carolina.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 9.—The 1908 convention of the National Rural Letter Carriers' association on the first ballot yesterday afternoon with 50 votes, Little Rock, Ark., was second with 45 and Milwaukee third with 26. Portland had 17 votes, but all but 2 were changed to Little Rock before the tellers counted the ballots.

Rochester entered the race at a late hour. A good deal of its strength came from the fact that the east has not had the convention in a long time, while the south central west have been frequently honored. Portland in spite of earnest effort was never in the running because of the great distance thither. The selection of a convention site was the last business before the convention which then adjourned.

Lindsay is Re-elected.

Paul L. Lindsay was elected president of the National Rural Letter Carriers' association for the fourth successive time. He defeated H. E. Crum of Hillsdale, Mich., 55 to 54.

Elias Frey of Indiana, the administration candidate, was also a victor, beating W. C. Stevens of Quebec Anne, Md., 74 to 55 on the second ballot. The first was 41, 55 to 65.

P. E. Cull, the present secretary, was re-elected, 75 to 56, over J. W. Steinbrecker of Mount Healthy, O. The administration was thus victorious on all the principal offices.

J. D. Williams of Renfrew, Pa., was paid the compliment of a unanimous reelection as treasurer.

For the executive committee these were nominated: Maxey, Illinois; Wicker, South Carolina; Senger, Missouri; Johnson, New Hampshire; Mixer, Oklahoma; Steadham, Ohio; Bryant, Iowa. Johnson received the highest vote on the first ballot and was then declared the unanimous choice of the convention as a member of the committee.

T. E. Wicker of South Carolina and L. T. Senger of Missouri were chosen on succeeding ballots to fill out the executive committee.

By a vote of 65 to 54 the convention went on record in favor of striking from the constitution the clause providing that the national association shall pay expenses of delegates to national conventions. A two-thirds majority is necessary, however, so that the fight ended in defeat for Steinbrecker of Ohio and his central state allies. They have the satisfaction, however, of carrying a majority of the convention with them.

"I shall keep on until I drop," shouted the Ohioan in the debate before the vote. "I shall never give up fighting to keep this association from being led onto this ice to commit suicide."

Other Side Just as Firm.

"And we shall never quit either," yelled back O. J. Welsh of New York, who led the opposition.

Steinbrecker made his plea for striking out the amendment in a voice which quivered and grew husky with emotion. He has something of the born orator in him, and his gestures were most emphatic.

All political lines were broken in the vote on the constitutional amendment. Those allied in the so-called anti-administration fight split up and the adherents of Lindsay and Cull divided. In general it was the central states against the east, south and west.

It was declared early Friday morning that Vice President Crum of Michigan would make the race against Lindsay, with McMahon of Texas as the probable candidate for vice president. Steinbrecker was slated to run for secretary. Frey of Indiana is the administration candidate for vice president, some saying that he was brought out only after Crum joined the opposition. Crum, his friends declare, has got tired of waiting for Lindsay to step down. Lindsay's friends say that he would have retired two years ago but for the "under-handed" fight made against him. Charges and countercharges have been rife the last few days.

It was announced by the attending surgeon that Delegate Brazell of Missouri, operated on Thursday for appendicitis, is resting easy and has a good chance to recover. The association voted the doctor an expression of thanks and sent Brazell a bouquet of roses.

FACTORY TO MAKE PIPES

New Plant Will Be Established in Omaha Employing Forty Persons.

A factory for the manufacture of tobacco pipes, employing forty persons, will be started in Omaha within the next three months. The company has already placed its pipes on the market, but until the new factory can be located the pipes will be made in an eastern factory. A location is now being sought by the men behind the company, and as soon as it is found and a building can be secured the machinery will be installed and the factory start out with a pay roll numbering about forty.

The company, which has just been incorporated, is composed of William Neve, William Neve, Jr., Alfred Brodegaard, Fred Brodegaard and George H. Birckebak. Fred Brodegaard will be treasurer and general manager.

The pipes to be made by the company will contain a device to "detonate" them. The device is said to prevent the pipes from becoming strong. All kinds and styles will be placed on the market.

The Bailment Improvement company, formed to develop real estate possibilities at Holston, has been incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000. Isaac Kahn, Myron Kahn, George J. Morris, Gottlob Brunenkant, Cassius C. Shimer, Arthur Chase and C. M. Skinner are the incorporators.

JUDGE ADVOCATES MARRIAGE

Sears Endorses Matrimony as an Antidote for Crime—John Holmes to Pen.

Marriage as an antidote for crime was endorsed by Judge Sears of the criminal court Friday when he sentenced John Holmes, a bachelor of 35 years of age, to the penitentiary for two years.

"If you had been married fifteen years ago and had a family of children you would now be a decent citizen instead of standing here to be sentenced to the penitentiary. Every man ought to settle down and be the head of a family when he is young. If he did we would not have so much crime."

"When you go to the penitentiary be a gentleman. There are gentlemen in the penitentiary as well as outside of it."

Judge Sears told Holmes that he would give him five years, but if he would promise to reform after he left the prison he would knock off three years. Holmes readily promised and the term was cut down to two years.

Holmes took $215 out of the pocket of Carl Shultze, a 15-year-old boy. He was pursued by a crowd and captured.

Four months after he came to the United States, Ralph Neville, 18 years of age, stood before the court charged with a felony. He left his home in Canada four months ago and has been traveling through the country since. He is charged with breaking into the home of Frank Gould.

CROP OF PROMOTERS' VICTIMS

"The Clergy and Maiden Ladies" Said to Be Favored Class Easiest to Reach.

The World's Work constantly receives letters telling how some poor man or woman has been induced to buy doubtful stocks, and face the loss of the entire investment. Many of these letters come from country doctors and clergymen, and tell of cases that have come under their personal observation.

Very often the stories are pitiful enough. They all end with the question: "What can be done about it?" In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred nothing can be done. In the hundredth case there has been fraud on the part of some responsible agent, and a suit at law may recover the loss. But this chance is slight, for practically this form of piracy is safe, and nothing can be done to stop it.

The two "favored classes" of people in the line of possible investors are the clergy and maiden ladies. There is hardly a "fake" industrial concern promoted in this country that does not send out to a list of the clergy a set letter, bought by the thousands for concerns that by long practice are experts in preparing such literature, setting forth the claims of that particular company to the consideration of investors "of the most conservative and necessarily careful class, which you represent."

I had never been able to figure out just what profit there could be in the appeal by circular to the clergy, a class that usually has education, some knowledge of human nature, and very little money. But, since the Standard Service of this magazine was established, I have come to understand, in some part, the reason why they are selected. Not only are the clergy themselves extremely likely to buy in small quantities, but the pitiful fact appears that, through the honest but misguided enthusiasm of preachers, the promoters reach hundreds of investors whom they could not otherwise reach. In small country towns and rural communities the clergyman is frequently temporal as well as a spiritual guide, particularly to widows, orphans, and the helpless of both sexes.

And it is to such as these that the promoter looks for profits. If a man comes into the office of a lawyer, a banker, a merchant, or even an editor, and tries to sell stock that is "almost certain" to pay 100 per cent, per annum, he may find a listener but hardly a buyer. The promoter of a new invention, or of a mine, or of some wonderful process for making something out of nothing, knows perfectly well that he must reach the "little people," the men or the women with little in the world to lose, but with the hunger for money in their hearts. He must spread his net abroad, not set it in the sight of the wary and the wise. The ways of the spreading may be of interest to some gentleman. There are gentlemen in the penitentiary as well as outside of it."

Judge Sears told Holmes that he would give him five years, but if he would promise to reform after he left the prison he would knock off three years. Holmes readily promised and the term was cut down to two years.
