DAVE SHANAHAN STRAIGHT

Republican Committeeman Denies World-Herald's Latest Fake.

NOT AT "SQUARE DEAL" MEETING

Published statement that he took part in proceedings branded a falsehood and faith in party asserted.

"My attention has been called to an article in the world-herald this morning which says I attended a meeting at Labor Temple last night of the so-called square deal Republican club, supposed to be composed of unaffiliated republicans. I was not at the meeting, never heard of it or had any knowledge of its being held until I saw this article in the World-Herald. I have asked Mr. Hitchcock's paper if it won't be fair enough to deny its own statement and have received a promise that it would. I wish The Bee would also deny the World-Herald statement, for it is positively false in every particular.

This statement was made to The Bee Saturday morning by Dave Shanahan, member of the republican county committee and one of the defeated candidates for the legislature. "I never had a sore spot on me," added Mr. Shanahan. "I ran for the legislative nomination because I hoped to be able to work against the anti-trust bill sentiment, and when I lost out I blamed no one, for I had no one to blame. The only reason for my defeat was that I didn't get enough votes to nominate me. I did not then and do not now think any republican leader snubbed me; in fact, I know everybody who was my friend was true to me and I have nothing but the most cordial feeling for the members of the party.

"My course since the primary election is proof of what I have said. Last night when this meeting was being held which the World-Herald said I attended I was sitting and trying to get men to serve on the election board. I was not at the meeting, working hard, too. I have no time to go around knocking my party and no disposition either. "If anybody placed me on any committee he did so without my knowledge and I resent it as an insult to my honor. I have no patience with a knocker or a traitor. I am a real republican and a real republican can not be a traitor."

"Does Mr. Hitchcock favor the election of Ed Howell for state senator?" This is a pertinent question these days, pertinent because of Howell's former record in the state senate and because of Mr. Hitchcock's ownership of an Omaha newspaper. Ed Howell was the man who introduced and fought to passage the bill that prevented Omaha for long years from taxing railroad terminals for local purposes, thus allowing the heaviest property owners to enjoy the benefits of local government without paying their share to maintain it. It required years of the most persistent effort on the part of Omaha citizens interested in Omaha's welfare to undo what Howell had done and now Omaha is asked to reward this man by sending him back where he may do mischief again.

"And Hitchcock is doing his utmost to help elect Howell," observes one of the Real Estate exchange leaders who stood with The Bee for terminal taxation. "Hitchcock asks the voters of this city and district to elect him to congress and then turns around and repays them by doing his utmost to fasten on them the Howell incubus. That requires a peculiar sort of nerve. What need is there to warn Omaha people against Ed Howell? His record in the state senate, they are also talking of it as a city councilman and the fact that he was thrice defeated for mayor or the nomination is not escaping public attention entirely. This is one of the men Hitchcock is supporting.

"If I was only as sure of the eastern states as I am of the west, I would be willing to prophesy that Mr. Taft will be elected by a majority greater than that accorded to President Roosevelt," said J. R. Cosgriff of Rawlins, Wyo., owner of a string of twenty banks and a member of the special committee of the National Wool Growers' association, which visited Omaha Thursday. "The democratic candidate has not got a hook in the mountain states, the states that gave him their votes in the free silver campaign of twelve years ago. Judge Taft will get the solid vote in my state and the neighboring commonwealths in the mountainous region."

Henry W. Yates, president of the Nebraska National bank, and Congressman G. M. Hitchcock will hold a joint debate on the bank guaranty question at Lyric theater next Thursday evening. Mr. Yates will oppose the guaranty scheme and Mr. Hitchcock will support it. Dr. George L. Miller is to preside. The disputants have drawn up the following form of question and articles of agreement, under which the discussion will be held: Resolved, That it is desirable to establish a system for guaranty of bank deposits under the government control.

W. T. Vernon, register of the United States treasury, one of the most prominent colored men of the country, will not be in Omaha to speak Monday night as was expected. He has been delayed in some of his western engagements and cannot reach Omaha at that time. His services having been arranged for elsewhere beforehand, it will not, the committee states, be possible to have him in Omaha this fall.

Funeral of William Carter—The funeral of William Carter, the well known police character, who died in a cell at the city jail Wednesday night, was held from the Davis undertaking parlors Saturday afternoon. Interment was at Forest Lawn cemetery.

Suit on Note—The Commercial National bank of Council Bluffs has brought suit against the United States circuit court against D. J. Cronin and others, the Dowling-Purcell company and M. Dowling on a promissory note for $3,500, costs and interest from October 1, 1908.

Prohibition Debate at Y. M. C. A.—State-wide prohibition as a means of solving the liquor problem will be the subject of a free forum debate at the Young Men's Christian association debating society. The meeting will be open to the general public.

Voluntary Bankruptcy—Charles H. Smith, a drayman of Schuyler, has filed his voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States district court. His liabilities are scheduled at $2,735 and his assets at $208.48. The greater part of the liabilities include suretyship for friends and business associates.

Gas Man Overcome in Ditch—John Palmquist, an employe of the Omaha Gas company, employed in the relaying of pipes on Douglas street, was overcome by gas while working in a ditch at Fifteenth and Douglas streets. He was taken from the hole by fellow workers and Dr. Updegraff was called, who pronounced Palmquist out of danger after a short time.

Goodell Pleads Not Guilty—Van W. Goodell, who shot and killed Edna Kenneth at Fifteenth and California streets about a month ago because of her refusal to marry him, pleaded not guilty when arraigned in district court Saturday morning under a first degree murder information. Goodell asserted he was out of funds and Judge Sears appointed Judge W. W. Sliabough to defend him.

Costly Price of Smokestack—Seeing a new sheet iron smoke stack, lying loose in the rear of a building, Albert Watkins converted to his own use without the owner's consent to find the owner. The smoke stack proved to be the property of Ed. Carey who had Watkins arrested on the charge of petty larceny. Watkins was fined $10 and costs by Judge Crawford. The smoke stack was valued at $2.35.

Corn Show Tickets 50 Cents—Directors of the National Corn exposition directed a meeting held Friday evening at the general admission to the show will be 50 cents. The board also announced that commutation books will be sold which will be good for three daily admissions, morning, afternoon and evening, a total of thirty-two admissions, for $5.

Jury Range After All Night—After being out all night, the jury in the $20,000 personal injury suit by Antonia Noctia against the street railway company was unable Saturday morning to report a verdict and Judge Day sent it back to the jury room to continue its deliberations. The juryman announced there was little prospect of an agreement, the jury standing seven to five. He did not state which side had the majority of the jurors.

Maekman Caught Overcharging—For overcharging Arthur Morrell, a youthful stranger in the city, in violation of the ordinance governing hack fares, Adolph Vomacka, a hack driver, was fined $1 and costs. Vomacka charged Morrell $1.50 for hauling the latter from the Union to the Webster street depot, when the fare should be but 50 cents. Morrell complained to the police and Vomacka returned the money and was then arrested for overcharging.

Wiggins' Body Sent to Pender—The body of T. D. Wiggins, who committed suicide by asphyxiation in the Union hotel Wednesday afternoon, was sent to Pender county, N. C., where Wiggins lived in Pender and was on his way to bring to that place the body of a brother who had died in the south. As there was no money found on the body it is believed that Wiggins lost his funds, which is believed to have been an incentive for taking his life during a fit of despondency.

Value of Being Hit by Train—Asserting that it is worth $200 to be hit by the train, the Illinois Central passenger train traveling thirty miles an hour, Thomas Dixon has filed suit in district court against the railroad for that amount. He was crossing the tracks on Davenport street when he says a passenger train came along and struck him. His arm and leg were broken and he was otherwise injured. His claim for damages is marked down in order to keep the railroad from taking the suit to federal court.

Lawyer Claims the Money—A complicated legal fight over the $14 found on Frank Pisa by the police when he and Joe Labianco were arrested on a charge of fleeing Leo Parra out of $40 in a confidence game, has developed in county court. Parra, the alleged victim, filed a suit sometime ago attaching the money to reimburse him for his loss. Saturday John W. Parish came in with a claim the money really belonged to him. He presented an affidavit showing Pisa had assigned it to him as attorney fees. He asks to have the attachment dissolved.

Boy Sues for Broken Collar Bone—Because his collar bone was broken when he was knocked off his horse by a thirty-foot iron bar which dropped down on him from the old Q street viaduct in South Omaha, Malcolm Bruce, a minor, has begun suit in district court for $3,000 damages. The defendants are the Union Stock Yards company, the Union Pacific Railroad company, S. W. Bowles company, E. S. McNaught and the city of Omaha. The accident happened while the old viaduct was being demolished. He was riding along the viaduct on his horse when the accident happened. Besides fracturing his collar bone the fall also injured his arm permanently, he asserts.

Governor Sheldon to Speak Monday at Business Men's Exposition.

CITY REGISTRATION FIGURES

Final Tabulation of Results of Two Days Makes a Good Showing for Republicans as Compared with Previous Years.

Governor George L. Sheldon is to be in South Omaha Monday evening in connection with the South Omaha Business Men's exhibition, which is to occupy the entire week beginning Sunday. Monday is to be republican day. Governor Sheldon is billed for a speech at about 8 p. m. A. W. Jeffrey, the congressional candidate, will be present as well as the county candidates. The presence of these men will mean a large attendance of the voting population. The object of the carnival is for the purpose of establishing the Bohemian school at Twenty-first and S streets. Preparations for the exhibition have been in progress for several weeks and the committee on arrangements has been carrying out the details until everything is ready for the opening tomorrow. The hour of opening is Sunday at 2 p. m. The Bohemian Catholic orders and many of the fraternal orders of the city in addition will join in a big parade from the carnival grounds at Twentieth and S streets and march through the principal streets headed by a band and by the members of the fire and police departments. After the parade Mayor Frank Koutsky will open the carnival with a short address. The Sunday observance will be semi-religious in character. Many booths have been prepared and will be occupied by the leading business firms of the city. Frank's hall will be devoted to amusements, such as dancing and the presentation of programs. An extensive program has been arranged for each day. This will be ready for publication Sunday morning. Friday will be democratic day and A. C.

TALKS ON TEETH

BY DR. E. R. L. MURPHY

Comfortable Alveolar Teeth

If Dr. Murphy's Alveolar teeth were not first of all comfortable they would be a failure. Looks would not commend them alone, although they are beautiful looking.

The man who wears them will have relief from the misery of using "false" teeth, and rolling his food around in his mouth between plates instead of cutting it up as he can do with Alveolar teeth.

Again, the false teeth which are stuck on partial plates are always falling out to the great embarrassment of the wearer. If this is the first time you have heard of Dr. Murphy's Alveolar Method of supplying missing teeth without plates or ordinary bridge work, we shall briefly outline the plan—

We require two or more teeth in each jaw and with these to work upon we build our structure, supplying every missing tooth, each in its own socket, so that each takes its own strain—following nature's plan, you see, and when the work is completed the patient has a new set of teeth as perfect and serviceable as nature's—in nearly every respect. We don't bore into the gums, nor perform any surgical operation, and do this work, nor is there anything about it to be dreaded from start to finish.

One can leave our offices and begin to chew beefsteak, or anything else, the same day the work is completed. Imitators have attempted to do the work, but because of our broad patents, granted by this government and by many of the governments of Europe, they dare not infringe on the basic principle which makes the whole work a success.

We have notified these fakirs to desist from their illegal practices and shall prosecute infringers vigorously. The teeth are too valuable to be ruined by these counterfeiters. All we ask you to remember is the name Dr. E. R. L. Murphy. We have magnificent offices in the New York Life building, the only office of this kind west of Chicago. We have no representatives, traveling or in the small towns. Beware of those claiming to do this work. If you cannot call at once, write for our free booklet on the care of the teeth, sent free upon request. DR. E. R. L. MURPHY 500-510-511 New York Life Building.

RAIN COATS FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN—You Make No Mistake in Buying at The Omaha Rubber Co. ... 1608... Harney St.

Shallenberger, G. M. Hitchcock and other democrats will be present. The city clerk issued his monthly statement yesterday, which, with a careful comparison with the last statement, shows that the city has expended $12,898.90 in September, as compared to $28,721.82 in August. This shows a cutting down of expenditures in the second month of exactly $15,822.92. This figure ($15,822.92) is the legacy of unpaid bills which the old democratic administration left unpaid on the hands of the incoming republicans. South Omaha people who are at all familiar with the affairs of the last municipal election remember the great accumulation of bills under the old mismanagement and extravagance. The new administration is living well within the limits of the levy and if the average expense continues as the second month of the year indicates a large balance will be left. The following is the full report: Amount of levy (90 per cent) 1908-9 to August 1, 1908. $128,458.92 Balance of former levy 4,435.98 Collections to August 1, 1908. 18,750.10 August 1, 1908. 157,645.00

Reckless automobile drivers were scored by Judge Crawford Saturday morning when John Fulton, driver for F. K. Kirkendall, was fined $25 and costs in police court for intentionally running into Carl Hoagland, a messenger employed by the Williams Messenger company, October 3. Through his attorney, Fulton appealed and his bond was fixed at $100. From the testimony it was learned that the messenger boy had grabbed hold of the rear end of the automobile while on his bicycle, which made Fulton mad. The latter commented Fulton to let go, which the boy did, spurring Fulton to turn the machine into him, throwing Hoagland to the ground. The affair occurred in front of the Hartman furniture store on Douglas street and was witnessed by several persons, many of whom testified against Fulton.

Figures from Registration. The city clerk yesterday secured possession of all the books of the last registration. He skimmed all yesterday afternoon to locate the books of the Second precinct of the Third ward. George S. Collins finally sent them in with the explanation that the books had a misunderstanding as to who should bring in the books. The full returns show that the democratic registration gained only twenty votes over the republicans. The total for the day was 1,821, showing a fair registration after all. Of this figure, 777 registered republicans and 1,044 democrats, forty-seven votes were independent, scattering and socialist. The first day's registration gave a total of 1,123, of which 966 were republicans, 1,110 democrats and twenty-seven scattering. This gives the democrats a lead of 124. The totals for the two days is 3,641. This figure is said to be more nearly correct for the reason that fewer democrats are registering republican this year. In former years this has been the habit. The following table shows the full registration: First Ward—First precinct 87 71 5 Second precinct 83 44 5 Second Ward—First precinct 48 42 12 Second precinct 62 62 2 Third Ward—First precinct 91 70 6 Second precinct 78 37 1 Fourth Ward—First precinct 46 19 2 Second precinct 21 51 3 Fifth Ward—First precinct 28 23 1 Second precinct 42 38 1 Sixth Ward—First precinct 73 48 10 Second precinct 83 78 10 Totals 777 1,044 47 Democratic gain 267 Grand total 3,641 Democratic lead 147

Stomach Gases and Torpid Livers Give Way Before the Peculiar Purifying Power of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. A Trial Package Sent Free. The foul gases of the stomach and the torpid action of the liver are easy victims for charcoal to overcome. This great natural cleanser and absorbent will most certainly be relieved by a system afflicted with gaseous or sluggish tendencies. Charcoal has long been known as a great absorbent of gas. A painful of charcoal will positively purify a room filled with foul odors and decay. Its absorbing ratio is one hundred times greater than its own volume. The ancients gave charcoal for many human ills successfully. The North American Indians used it for snake bites, poison from eating wild herbs and cured what they called "stomach had medicine" with it. Willow charcoal seems to be the best product for human use, and no doubt the peculiar curative property of the willow is represented in a chemical quality in its charcoal. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are pure willow and sweet honey blended by tremendous power and compression into a very palatable lozenge. Two or three lozenges eaten after meals will prevent the process of digestion from producing noxious gases. They will vivify a lax liver and aid every organ which is most likely to be overcome through its contact with impurities. They cleanse the stomach and intestines, bring purity and sweetness out of fermentation and decay and aid digestion by allaying gas. They will aid you and your stomach. The beneficial effects are made evident after each meal when you use charcoal as Stuart prepares it. To slay gas at night they are excellent and one arises in the morning without that terrible gasping and bad breath which destroys appetite and renders one miserable. All druggists sell Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges, price twenty-five cents, or send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 299 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.
