Later Bullish Sentiment Was Strong on the Poor Seeding Reports, Owing to Lack of Rainfall.

OMAHA. Oct. 12, 1808.
Whrat values became very erratic and causes fluery in other cereals.
The opening market was weak and prices were lower on weak cables. Later builish sentiment was strong on the poor seeding reports owing to the continued lack of rainfail over the entire winter wheat belt.
Wheat started firm, with trade light and no teature. Very unexpectedly, shorts obvered on reports of continued dry weather, sid some additional buying by longs sent values rapidly higher, only to case off later on lower export bids and lack of buying support. December wheat opened at 95%c and closed at 54%c.

Corn was slow, with trading very light, and only firmed slightly with wheat. Offerings were more free, with prospects of a very early movement of the new crop. December oorn opened at 55%c and closed at 54%c. OMAHA, Oct. 12, 1908.

Peramber corn opened at 59%c and closed of 5%c.

Primary wheat receipts were 1.872,000 soushels and shipments were 462,000 bushels against receipts last year of 1.350,000 bushels and shipments of 1.053,000.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—A liberal increase in the visible supply of wheat in the United States and Canada caused weakness in the wheat market here today, closing quantations showing net declines of $250. Corn. cats

Wheat prices were advanced early in the session, despite lower Liverpool cables and the more optimistic news regarding the Balkan affairs. Leading bulls were active buyers and had things their own way for a time, as offerings in the pit, after the first faw minutes, were so light as to interpose little resistance to the advancing tendency. Minneapolistoday reported receipts of $90 cars, Duitt $50 cars and Winnipes $57 cars, a total at the three points of $2.457 cars, against $1.457 cars the corresponding day last year. Rumors of rain in the southwest also laused some selling. Advices from Minneapolis stated that the milling demand for wheat continued good, with flour sales large, but that export demand was inference of wheat continued good, with flour sales large. Outs were sized, the early part of the day, but cased off late in the session, owing to the weakness of other grain. Trade was quiet all day. There was a good demand for oach outs and prices at the sample tables were steady. At the close prices were unchanged to 4604c lower. Local receipts were an early. October pork, which had a sensational rise at the close on Saturday, was offered down to 514.70, or a decline of 50c per barrel. The extreme fluctuations in this delivery caused talk to the cffect that the board of directors would be asked to make an investigation. A loc to 150 decline in the price of live hogs was largely responsible for the weakness of the market in general. At the close prices were inchanged to 51.25 lower.

Thus yearlings with a few lambs on them soid up to $4.490. A little bunch of good ewes sold up to $4.50. The market on fat lambs was very dull and weak, but still the few offered changed hands in pretty fair season, though prices were a flat 25c lower than last week. The cause for the decline is not difficult to find when reports from other market points showing large receipts and lower prices are noted. Reports circulated early in the morning to the effect that Buffalo had 100 cars, with good lambs selling at $5.75 created a very weak feeling among buyers. Feeders did not show very much change. There were only a few good feeder lambs, which sold principally at $4.5094.55.
