LINCOLN, Oct. 14.-(Special.)-The Ne-

It is probable, however, The play of the team this and yesterthat Chicago would have run up a larger day afternoon has caused Cornhusker stock score had it not been for the brilliant work to go up and local rooters are now offering of the Detroit infield. O'Leary's spectacumoney that Nebraska will win against the lar catch of Tinker's "Texas leaguer" far Gophers. The entire team has shown a back of second base was a feature of the reversal of form since the game with Grinnell and is playing fast ball. In the scrim Evers secured Chicago's first run. He mage work this afternoon the men made singled to center, took second on Schulte's the best showing of the season. Against hit to left and raced home on Chance's the strong scrubs, who have been able to safe drive to center. A base on balls was hold the varsity on the defense and tear pesterday, was again a star, getting away Maxine, ch. m., by Elyria, dam by for several long runs and twice for touch-Following is the story in detail:

First Inning—Chicago: Sheckard flied to Schaefer. Evers singled to center and went to second on Schulte's drive to left. Chance singled to center, scoring Evers, but Schulte was held at second. Steinfeldt flied out to Crawford. Hofman grounded to Coughlin, who tagged Schulte on the base line. One run.

Detroit: McIntyre walked: O'Leary struck out. Crawford singled to center, putting McIntyre on second. Cobb tried to bunt the first two balls pitched and then struck out. Rossman struck out, but went to first as the third strike was a wild pitch, which went past Kling. Schaefer struck out. No runs.

Second Inning—Chicago: Tinker grounded out. Coglin to Rossman, and Schmidt took Kling's foul. Rossman took Overail's grounder, throwing the runner out to Donovan, who covered first. No runs.

Detroit: Schmidt struck out on the first three balls pitched. Tinker threw out. Coughlin at first. Donovan walked and stole second. McIntyre lined to Hofman. No runs.

Third Inning—Chicago: Sheckard flied out to Rossman. Evers' high fly was taken by O'Leary. Schulte's fly was captured by McIntyre. No runs.

Detroit: O'Leary and Crawford were out at first on throws by Steinfeldt and Evers. Sheckard took Cobb's fly. No runs.

Fourth Inning—Chicago: Chance lined downs. One of his runs was for sixty-five yards. Cooke this season has improved in dodging tacklers, and now instead of attempting to circle the players on the opposing team he strikes out through their line wherever he sees an opening. In this he is wherever he sees an opening. In this he is fellowing the style of Johnny Bender and Dan Patch, blk. h., by Joe Patchen (Hergy)

He was so fast that they coul dnot catch him, and so skillful in dodging that they were bewildered. The rooters are looking for him to get away with a sensational dash or two at Minneapolis.

Others Do Fine Work. Kroger, Chaloupka, Frum, and Collins also did some good individual work. Frum and Chaloupka were impregnable to the attacks of the sevrubs, and no gains were made through them. Chamupka-was given the ball to carry several times and on each occasion tugged it forward for several yards. Kroger's play was of the dashing sort, and in hitting the line when he was runa.
Fourth Inning—Chicago: Chance lined to Cobb. Steinfeldt walked, but was out trying to steal second, Schmidt to Schaefer. Hofman struck out. No runs. Detroit; Rossman struck out. Schaefer walked. Schmidt struck out and Schaefer was retired trying to steal second, Kling to Tinker. No runs. carrying the ball he tore through the scrub defense so fiercely that four or five men had to pile upon him to stop his advance. There was still some fumbling in the play of the varsity but not nearly so much as in the previous scrimmages. The men threw the ball accurately on the forward passes, and the ends got under it well and Fifth Inning—Chicago: O'Leary made a great catch of Tinker's fly. He was running backwards as he caught it and turned a back somersault, but hung onto the ball. Kling walked and went to second on Overall's sacrifice, Schmidt to Rossman. Sheekard walked, Evers doubled to center, second on the control of th missed it only once or twice during practice.

The showing of the last two days has pleased the coaches very much, and they are not so discouraged as they were at the Sheekard walked, Evers doubled to center, scoring Kling and putting Sheekard on third. Schulte grounded out, O'Leary to seen in the better play of the Cornhuskers 5 Rossman. One run.
