The board also completed tion was issued today. The convention this arrangements for the state conference of health boards which commences in the city tomorrow. This will be a general meeting to consider measures for the health of the state and to lay plans for additional legislation next winter. It is planned in a general way to strengthen the laws of Iowa in regard to sanitary matters and authorising health boards to adopt more stringent regulations for preserving the public health. Nearly every city in the state will be represented. Preparing for Prohibition Fight.

A meting of the heads of various temper ance organizations of lowa was held at which it was decided that they would become more aggressive in the direction of securing a resubmission of the prohibitory amendment. Petitions will be placed in circulation soon asking the legislature to direct the resubmission of an amendment to the constitution forbidding the sale of liquors in Iowa.

Accusation Against Parents.

Troubles of the Pritchard family, one of the best known in Des Moines, came into the limelight this morning when Mrs. M. B. Seeberger filed sensational charges in the probate division of the district court against her nephew, Hugh Pritchard, and his wife, alleging them to be unfit to care for their own child, Elizabeth Pritchard, aged 8. The charges against the two are general. Mrs. Seeberger had cared for the child for several years, but recently the custody was given to Mrs. Pritchard, who is a second wife of the defendant.

Miller is Chief of Police. Unanimous action by the Des Moines City commission in the selection of a new chief of police today indicates a greater degree of harmony than was expected city affairs. Superintendent Hamery of the police department selected Captain A. G. Miller to be the new chief and he was unanimously elected, those who had been making opposition withdrawing it and agreeing to the selection. The new man has been with the police department for fifteen years and is popular.

Perry Having a Carnival. The city of Perry is having a carnival and horse show and a large number of Des Moines people have gone on interurban trains to attend the same. ## Valuable Items for Men

Health and strength hitherto unknown will be felt surging in rich red blood through the arteries and veins and life's greatest ambitions may be realized as never before, if the following special treatment is followed by those men and women, too, who are stricken with that most dreaded of all afflictions, nervous exhaust-Ion, accompanied with such symptoms as extreme nervousness, insomnia, cold extremities, melancholia, headaches, constipation and dyspepsia, kidney trouble, dreadful dreams of direful disasters, timidity in venturing and a general inability to act naturally at all times as other people do. Lack of polse and equilibrium in men is a constant source of embarrassment even when the public least suspects it. For the benefit of those who want a restoration to full bounding health and all the happiness accompanying it, the following home treatment is given. It contains no opiates or habitforming drugs whatever. Mix it at home and no one will be the wiser as to your affliction.

The treatment is simple, thor ough and correct. Leading druggists supply the main tinctures. extracts and essences in one-ound bottles, ready to mix. Get three ounces syrup saraaparilla compound, mix with one ounce compound fluid balmwort, and stand two hours. Add one ounce compound essence cardiol, and one ounce tincture cadomene compound. Shake well and take a teaspoonful after each meal and one at bedtime.

In attendance at the conference were: Carl F. Franke, Parkersburg, state chairman; Ernest E. Hart, Council Bluffs, national committeeman; George S. Wright, Council Bluffs, state committeeman; L. F. Mullins, Atlantic, chairman Cass county; W. C. Williams, Atlantic; State Senator Shirley Gillilland, Glenwood; State Senator C. G. Saunders, Council Bluffs; Representative Willoughby Dye, Macedonia; Representative Henry Brandes, Hancock; Supervisor Felix Setz, Oakland; Sheriff Ed Canning. Council Bluffs; Representative C. G. J. M. Irvin Tells Council Bluffs reople of Its Benefits.

"The educational features of the fruit show to be given here by the National Horticultural congress are absolutely unlimited. You business men of Council Bluffs cannot afford to let it ing for lack of funds. The National Horticultural congress means more to Council Bluffs than anything ever undertaken before by you people." declared J. M. Irvin, editor of the St. Joseph Fruit Grower at the monthly meeting and luncheon of the Commercial club at the Grand hotel last night.

Mr. Irvin, whose address was thoroughly interesting, spoke of the great benefits to be derived by the fruit growers of this section of the country from the exhibits which will be made at the big fruit show here in December. The speaker said he would personally represent the congress at the Spokane apple show to be held during the first week in December and said he had and weak sore lungs with Dr. King's New been assured that soveral carloads of exhibits would be brought from there to the show here. "These exhibits," said Mr. Irvin," will be a revelation to the fruit growers of this section of the country." He told of the superior methods of packing apples that prevailed in Washington and Idaho and compared them with the old method still in use here of "just putting the apples in a barrel." The fruit show, he said, would give the fruit growers of this section some idea of what they had to compete with and would in his opinion induce them to "get up to date." Mr. Irvin

as toastmaster and in front of his place at the table was a handsome silver loving cup standing in the center of ound of ruddy-hued apples, banked with American Beauty roses. Mr. Kimball announced that the handsome cup, which was valued at $100, had been presented to the National Horticultural congress and was to be known as the fruit growers' The cup will be offered as one of the leading prizes at the fruit show. The conditions on which it is offered will be arranged later. The first address of the evening was by Prof. J. Wilkes Jones, general manager of the National Corn exposition to be held in Omaha at the same time as the National Horticultural congress in this city. Mr. Jones spoke in the interest of the Omaha exposition, but at the same time gave the fruit show here a generous

Omaha Salesman Indicted.

ATLANTIC, Ia., Oct. 15.-(Special)-W. H. Bilderback, representing the Hiller Liquor company of Omaha, was arrested in this city yesterday and is now under bonds for $600 for his appearance at the coming term of court. Bilderback is charged with violating the liquor laws of Iowa, by unlawfully soliciting the sale of liquor. The case will be an interesting one inasmuch as it involves several points of the law, as it has been considered legal to take orders for liquor if it is not delivered by the person taking the order. The indictment was returned some time ago, but owing to Bilderbach not being in the city is was not made public.
