POINTERS FOR HOUSEKEEPERS

Suggestions that May Make the Task of Cleaning House a Little Easier.

Get your cupboards done early and one at a time. Engage in the attic, not the drawing room. Have a fixed time for cleaning, spring and fall. Engage your cleaners from season to season. Do not attempt too much in one day. On a large room or two smaller ones are enough for a day's work. If you do not help yourself, at least oversee the cleaning. Remove all but the heaviest furniture to a yard or porch. Clean the floors thoroughly beaten and cleaned before returning. Let it be the duty of one person to wash, bric-a-brac. This might be a young daughter's share of the house cleaning. Hang covers and curtains washed early. The room can thus be entirely finished when cleaned. Wipe off baseboards with a damp cloth. Remove finger marks after sweeping, not before. If carpets are not lifted have them swept this week. Use table oil and vinegar mixed to rub up furniture. The proportions are one part of vinegar to four of oil. Remove pictures from wall to wash glass as they are cleaned. Wipe down paper with a brush covered with clean cloth. Dirty spots on paper can be cleaned with stale bread. Windows can be quickly washed with ammonia water. Do not use soap on windows; kerosene gives a good polish. There is less confusion if book shelves are cleaned singly.

FALL NUTS BEGIN TO COME IN

New English Walnuts Will Arrive in Omaha from California Soon.

The new crop of California English walnuts will be in market in another week or two to the relief of merchants and cooks. The English walnut has come to be almost as staple an article as sugar and the demand is continuous. At this season the supply is limited and the quality poor and the result, trouble for both dealer and consumer. The new nuts will sell for 15 cents wholesale. New chestnuts have come in this week and sell for 15 cents a pound wholesale. Green tomatoes and green peppers for pickling purposes are to be had now but the prices have a wide range. Almost every dealer has his own price. This is due largely to the fact that market gardeners furnish much of the supply and their price is not uniform. Vegetables from the south are beginning to come in and cucumbers, cauliflower and water cress are among the dainties sent from Florida this week. The Thanksgiving tomatoes will all come from the south. Potatoes are plentiful and comparatively cheap just at present and people who buy more than a bushel or two at a time will do well to consider laying in a supply as the dealers predict that prices will be higher when the weather gets cooler. They are selling now from 60 to 70 cents a bushel, wholesale.

The first carload shipment of Malaga grapes came in the first of this week and the fruit is especially fine. It is selling from 35 and 40 to 50 cents a pound. These are the ideal grapes for the fruit salad, but the toky grapes are a good substitute. These will last two or three weeks longer and are selling for 10 cents a pound. Florida oranges and grape fruit have come in, but the oranges are a little green. The grape fruit sells for 15 and 20 cents each.

Tomato Cream Soup.

One quart of tomatoes, one pint of water, one pint of milk, one-half teaspoonful of chopped onion, one dessert spoon of sugar, one tablespoonful of flour, season highly with salt and pepper. Brew tomatoes, water, sugar and onion together, then put through a sieve; mix flour and milk together with

CONSISTENCY IN DRESSING

Business Women Have Put Aside the Tawdry Things for Tailored Suits.

The day has long since past when the business woman was a dejected bit of femininity, making her appearance in silk and satins, the more of more conspicuous times, when she was in the habit of pouring tea for afternoon callers, or in her attitude any longer one that calls forth sympathy on the part of everyone with whom she comes in contact.

Today she has her business suit and is quite as anxious that it be of the correct cut as could any bride be of her wedding gown. It is a mistake, however, to believe that she lacks any of the womanly weaknesses for pretty trifles in dress, for if it can be considered a weakness, she is just as fond of the dainty bits of finery, dear to a woman's heart, as ever was her great aunt, shielded in every way from coming in contact with the business world.

She has her evening gowns, her pretty negligees, dainty lingerie and even the lavender and lace which might be considered, according to story books, as belonging to a past generation. Her strong point is that she knows when and where to use these things. Business women recognize the necessity of a tailored suit and will make almost any sacrifice to possess one that is truly elegant. By no means does the word elegant signify expensive trimming and perishable shades, even though they may be considered new and a novelty of the present season. Quite on the contrary it must be simple and practically without trimming; for style it depends upon the material and the cut of the garment. It is a mistake to suppose that satisfactory costumes of this character can be had for a song, for they are really expensive, but they are of the best being the cheapest in the end.

Every sensible woman will try to arrange her expenditure so that she may be able to afford such a suit. If a good style is chosen she can wear it for several years, therefore, it is important that she know the little things that are marked features of advanced models.

LADIES EXERCISE GOOD TASTE

They Will Not Wear Extreme Millinery Because it is Fashionable.

If there are reactionaries among men, why raise eyebrows in a sneer at women who are still so much in love with the huge hat that they refuse to recognize the patent fact that its reign of terror is a fashion dictator. "A woman just home from Paris with ten trunks showed me a steel gray satin on a light frame, high of crown and sweeping in front. Around the crown were five big chrysanthemums of yellow satin, and between the crown and the brim were two made an anomaly of seasons, but the effect was good. The berries shone as with dew and gave the richness necessary to set off the yellow flowers and the somber stone-color of the frame. The awful snob among women proclaims that 'only the hopelessly vulgar will appear in medium-sized hats this winter.' As a fact, ladies will appear in just the hats that their own taste decrees; which is a habit, by the way, among women who may be called ladies with all regard for the true meaning of that word.

KNOWN EFFECTS OF FOODS

Some Interesting Facts that Have Been Proven by Recent Investigation.

Investigations have tended to prove: That sufferers from rheumatism should eat very sparingly of meat and that it should be boiled if eaten at all. That all starchy foods when not thoroughly cooked tend to cause indigestion. That carrots and apples have a beneficial effect on gouty persons. That cereals and a fruit diet in a general way tend to a healthier alimentary tract, with less engorgement of the portal circulation. That eating between meals and excessive eating in general are the chief causes of indigestion. That coffee has a tendency to cause dyspepsia and other forms of indigestion. That fats and rich foods are harmful in all cases of skin disease. That red pepper has been known to act as an antidote to malaria. That lemon juice is a preventive and helpful as a cure for typhoid fever. That onions are helpful in the treatment of grip and pneumonia. That bakers' bread made of white flour is the cause of no end of stomach troubles. That fresh meats and rich nutritious foods, such as fish, are not to be despised. The fruit preserved in sugar and grapes are good for consumptives, who also may eat bountifully of fat bacon, fish, such as eels and salmon, and in acute stages finely minced raw meats are beneficial.

SPOLIING EGGS FOR BAKERY

Employed in Making Pastry Puff, Sweet Cookies and Crackers.

Seizure of seven and a half tons of spoiled cold storage eggs at Detroit by government inspectors has brought to light a new kind of food adulteration which it is said is being practiced to an enormous extent in various sections of the country. The eggs had been broken into tubs and frozen en masse, all the shells having been removed. According to report they were to be employed in the making of fancy cookies and crackers, and especially a sweet pastry puff which is a favorite food of totting children, to whom they are sold from bakeries and lunch wagons.

KEEP WATER COLD

Put a layer of cotton batting between two sheets of wrapping paper three inches higher than your pitcher. Fasten ends of paper and batting together to form a circle. Paste a cover of cloth or paper over one end of the circle and slip it over the pitcher. It must come close down to stand where the pitcher is placed, and it will be found the ice will keep a long time. It will be of great service in a sick-room for milk or water.

APPLE PRESERVES.

Select a fall apple of uniform size; peel and core; cut each in four round slices, scallop edge with a cookie cutter. To retain a perfect shape, cover with sugar over night, alternating, using half as much sugar as fruit; drain off juice extracted into a vessel; after reaching a boiling heat, add apple and cook rapidly until a pink transparent tinge is obtained.

EGG DRESSING.

The beaten whites of eggs will be found an excellent substitute for cream in salad dressing. The following I find a fine recipe for a dressing: One tablespoonful cornstarch, one tablespoonful sugar, one-half teaspoonful salt. Mix thoroughly and add one whole egg and the yolk of another.

MRS. FISH MUCH DEPRESSED

Still Affected by Shock of Automobile Accident in Italy Recently.

It is said that Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who is now on her way home after her long automobile tour with Mrs. Fish through France and Italy, is returning in a very depressed and melancholy state of mind. The accident by which the Fish motor car ran over and killed a little boy in Italy gave both Mr. and Mrs. Fish a shock from which the latter has by no means recovered. The English woman has come to be almost as much as a patient in a hospital. The Fishes from all blame. It was shown that they were not driving at an excessive speed and that the unfortunate lad was wholly at fault, but the affair left a profound and lasting impression upon Mrs. Fish.

DR. MATILDA EVANS OPENS A HOSPITAL TO MEET THE NEEDS OF HER PEOPLE.

Dr. Matilda Evans of Columbia, S. C., is the first negro woman to practice medicine in South Carolina. When 15 she entered the school for negro children, conducted by Miss Martha Schofield at Alken, S. C. From there she went to Oberlin college and later to the Woman's Medical college in Philadelphia, where she graduated. On returning to her native city she began practice among the negroes and soon realizing the needs of her people for a hospital rented the old home of a white family for that purpose. This was the first hospital opened in the capital of South Carolina. At one time during the last winter Dr. Evans had in this hospital twenty-seven patients, although there were only suitable accommodations for twelve. It is said that every dollar Dr. Evans earns in her private practice goes to improve her hospital, which has been in operation about ten years.

PATTY SHEETS.

Add as much salt as can be held between the thumb and two fingers, one-half pint of shortening, one-half pint butter, and one-half pint; chop into the flour with a knife until it is quite fine. Then mix with one-half cup cold water, using the knife for mixing as the pastry will be more flaky; then roll out on a floured board to one-quarter inch in thickness and cut in large rounds about five inches across and press down around on the under side of the patty pan after it is turned up. Prick with a fork and bake in a moderate oven until a light brown tint. When ready to serve re-heat, trim edges evenly with kitchen shears, and brush with white of

SULPHUR PRESERVES FRUIT

Successful Process for Keeping Fresh Fruits for Almost Indefinite Period.

Peel peaches, cut in halves and remove seeds; arrange in wooden tub leaving a hole in center for vessel that is to contain the sulphur. If four gallons of fruit is desired pare enough fruit for six gallons, as this allows for shrinkage. When fruit is in tub place sulphur, at the rate of one teaspoonful to each gallon of fruit used, in vessel in center of tub, ignite it and cover whole tub closely for four hours. Remove fruit and place in stone jars; cover with a cloth. Fruit preserved in this way keeps fine all winter and tastes like fresh fruit. Apples, pears, or tomatoes are delicious prepared this way.

CRABAPPLE JELLY.

Wash the fruit clean, put into a kettle, cover with water and boil until thoroughly cooked, then pour into sieve and let drain; do not press through. For each pint of this liquor allow one pound of sugar, then boil from twenty minutes to half an hour. Jelly can be made from quinces, peaches and cherry apple in the same way.

TO COPY FANCY WORK.

An excellent and quick way of tracing fancy work that has been worked out is by taking a silver teaspoon or table-spoon and rub well on your hair, then lay your material over the piece worked and rub the spoon over same and you will be surprised to see the result.

TO MAKE BEESWAX.

Place comb in a coarse muslin bag and put a small stone to weight the contents; put in kettle, cover with water and boil. The wax comes to the top of the water and the sediment remains in the bottom of kettle. Remove wax when cold.

SPOTS ON WALL PAPER.

To remove grease spots from wall paper, sprinkle baking soda over blotting paper, place over the spot, and press a moderately warm iron against it for a few minutes. The blotting paper will absorb the grease, and the paper on the wall will be free from spots.

ORDERS IF TAFT IS ELECTED

Traveling Man Says He Has Taken Many Such in the Last Few Weeks.

"Talk to the effect that the traveling man, or any considerable proportion of them, will vote this year for Bryan is tommyrot," declared T. R. Travis of Kansas City in the lobby of the Loyal hotel. "If Bryan gets 20 per cent of the commercial travelers' vote he will do a good deal better than I expect. Practically all the men in our line are republicans in the first place and believe in republican principles. In the second place, all of them know full well that they will get precious few orders if Bryan should win. This is not so much because Mr. Bryan could do any great harm himself, for he could carry most of his wild schemes into effect, but because business men are so afraid of him."

"If he, by any miracle, should get in things would shut down absolutely for a year. Everyone would be afraid of his neighbor; would think, and think rightly, that Brown and Smith and Jones would be afraid. It is exactly the same principle that causes runs on a bank. Many intelligent depositors are not afraid of the bank which has ample resources, but they are afraid that their fellow depositors will be afraid and so they hurry down to get in line."

"I have had many orders lately subject to Taft's election. This was a pure business contract and not designed to influence me. People simply won't be able to swing the goods if Bryan is the victor. This is not politics. It is business."

OSTER COCKTAIL SAUCE.

Into one tablespoonful of tomato catsup stir the following: One-half tablespoonful each horse radish, Worcestershire sauce, mustard, vinegar; one tablespoonful of lemon juice, quarter teaspoonful tobacco sauce or red pepper, and salt. Serve cold.

SOFT CREAM COOKIES.

One cup sour cream, one cup butter, one and one-half cup sugar, one-half teaspoon soda, two eggs, a little nutmeg and vanilla, flour enough to roll. Handle as soft as possible.

NEW BUTTON ON DISHCLOTH.

A flat brass button sewed on the corner of a dishcloth will be a great help in washing dishes. It can be used as a "scratcher" and will not injure the finest china.
