

DEBATE ON BANK GUARANTY

G. M. Hitchcock and Henry W. Yates Contest the Point.

ONE ON PANIC, THE OTHER ON LAW

Lyric Theater Filled by Audience that Pays Close Attention to the Remarks of the Speakers.

Whether there should be established a system providing for the guaranty of bank deposits under government control was the subject of a joint debate Thursday night at the Lyric with G. M. Hitchcock speaking in the affirmative and Henry W. Yates, president of the Nebraska National bank, in the negative.

Mr. Hitchcock opened by telling of the hardships through which this country had passed because of the financial flurry of a year ago, but did not talk much on the subject of deposit guaranty.

Mr. Yates opened by telling of the hardships through which this country had passed because of the financial flurry of a year ago, but did not talk much on the subject of deposit guaranty.

"This city has never been blighted by bank disasters, but when such a blight comes the city might be set back for twenty years. This insurance will not only make good the damage, but will also act as a preventive."

"Every conservative banker in the country would like to add the country of those banks which fall and lose the money of their depositors."

Malaria and Heart Trouble

Read the interesting story told by Mr. J. H. Riley, pensioned fireman of South Boston, Mass. He prints Mr. Riley's recent letter verbatim. Mr. Riley's comrades in the Fire Department consider his restoration to health almost miraculous.

"I joined the Fire Department of South Boston in 1890 and was lately pensioned off because of a bad fall while in service, which telescoped my spine."

"A little over a year ago I was taken sick while in the engine house, and it developed into heart trouble and malaria. I went to a number of doctors and two different hospitals and went through a course of treatment from each, but I did not receive much benefit from any of them."

"Mr. Riley's experience is similar to that of thousands of others who have suffered untold agonies from different diseases and were cured by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey after they were given up to die."

"It cures neurosis, typhoid, malaria, every form of stomach trouble, diseases of the throat and lungs, and all run down and weakened conditions of the body, brain and nerves."

"CAUTION—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine."

"The relation between a banker and a depositor is that of debtor and creditor. The majority of the depositors decide wisely, considering the capital of the bank and the men who run it."

"The present five national banks of Omaha, the upholders of our financial life, are all offshoots of the three institutions started in Omaha forty-five years ago."

"Every conservative banker in the country would like to add the country of those banks which fall and lose the money of their depositors."

"Experience in Other States. Bank guaranty laws were held a long time ago in New York for two years, but the law was repealed as soon as the legislature met. It cost the state $1,000,000."

"The effort is not only to guarantee the deposits but to regulate the banks," said Mr. Hitchcock.

"In Canada there prevails a system of bank guaranties on all four sides with the proposed law, except that it applies to notes as well as deposits. In England they are guaranteed practically because there they have but few banks with many branches, so they practically guarantee each other's deposits; and the same is true in France."

"The invitation to defend that colored soldier in his hour of deadly peril was an experience which made me believe I possess the confidence of the colored race, and that confidence I have tried to keep alive to justify."

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

Is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain. It is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

"It cures neurosis, typhoid, malaria, every form of stomach trouble, diseases of the throat and lungs, and all run down and weakened conditions of the body, brain and nerves."

"CAUTION—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine."

Fall Toppers

A fall top coat gives a snappy style to a man's appearance—and it gives that "properly dressed" effect which is lacking in the chilly looking man who wears no coat when his winter one is too heavy—the new coats we're showing win admiring approval from men who are the most critical in dress.

SHIRTS Our display of the season's choicest shirts are well worth coming to see and the man who enjoys good shirts will be greatly interested. The best ONE DOLLAR shirts on the market can be found here. We have never seen their equal and we think that you haven't.
