JONES MAKES A HIT IN ST. PAUL

Congressman from Washington Has a Large Audience. ST. PAUL, Neb., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—Saturday night the people of St. Paul had the pleasure to listen to the greatest and by far the most instructive and best political speech of the season. About 7:30 o'clock the military band and a torchlight procession assembled in front of the First State bank and marched to the opera house, where after more music Chairman H. H. Vandenberg of the republican county committee, who is also republican candidate for county attorney, introduced to the audience Hon. Wesley T. Jones, congressman from the state of Washington, who for the next hour and a half except for the frequent applause held the attention of the large audience by one of the best political speeches ever delivered in St. Paul. He is a fluent and pleasant speaker and explained good, true republican doctrine and plainly showed why the voters for the last interest of illiterate and the country should vote for "Taft and Sherman and not be deceived or led astray by the empty democratic promises." He, contrary to former speakers here of the fusion force, used no abusive language towards the democratic and populist friends, but carried the audience by his strong persuasive demonstration of republican truths. The opera house was packed to its fullest capacity and a large number of women honored the occasion by their presence. Much good was accomplished by this splendid address.

KNIFE A LINK IN MURDER CASE

Italian Now in Jail Admits Its. FREMONT, Neb., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—Sheriff Bauman today found a bloody dagger near the scene of the stabbing among the Italians last Wednesday, which Rocco Pietro, the man now held in jail charged with the murder of Tony Giesea, admitted was his. A number of Italians identified the knife as one they saw Pietro have a few minutes before the fight. Pietro turned pale when the sheriff showed him the dagger. He did not deny owning it, but said he lost it at Yutan. A complaint was filed against Pietro and Pasqual, who is now in the hospital, charging them with murder.

Homes for Waifs.

TECUMSEH, Neb., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—Ten of twelve New York orphans provided with good homes in this county, near the town of Sterling, in one day recently. J. W. Swan of University Place and Miss Elmira Hill of New York, with the children in charge, came to Sterling, where the prospective foster parents had the opportunity to come and "take their pick" as it were. The parties to adopt the children are without exception good, substantial citizens of the town of Sterling and the northern part of the county. Some of them are the parents of children which have grown up and left home. The waifs have been fortunate in falling into good hands.

A supersedeas bond to keep the injunction in force was fixed at $1000 and plaintiffs were given twenty days in which to furnish bond.

SHELDON AIDS OPTOMETRY

Governor's Support of This Profession Makes Him Friends.

APPEAL GOES OUT IN HIS BEHALF

J. C. Hutson, Secretary of State Board, Calls on All Fellow Optometrists to Pledge for Sheldon.

J. C. Hutson, secretary of the Nebraska Board of Optometry, has sent letters to every optician and optometrist in the state holding a certificate from the board calling attention to the support which Governor Sheldon gave bills and the encouragement which he gave measures that have placed the profession on a safe basis and relieved them from the onslaughts of "fakirs" and "spectacle peddlers." The requirements of the Nebraska law are such that every village doctor cannot "fit glasses" and tamper with the eyesight of unsuspecting hundreds and the secretary of the board, who is intimate with the workings of the law, gives the governor due credit for his work, urging the optometrists to give Governor Sheldon their support and uphold his hands in securing measures which were opposed by a democrat in the last session of the legislature. Mr. Hutson calls attention to the fact that some other governors had vetoed the optometry bills, but Governor Sheldon signed the Nebraska bill in the face of considerable opposition.

Owe Debt to the Governor.

A part of the letter follows: "We should all feel proud of the standard to which Governor Sheldon has raised optometry. "Every optometrist in the state should stand loyally by him and not only vote for him at the coming election, but use every influence possible in having your friends vote for him. "Our law will need some amendments at the next session of the legislature and in Governor Sheldon we have a man who has proved himself friendly to optometry. "Remember, too, that the legislature that passed the optometry bill was a republican house and a republican senate. The only voice raised against our bill was a lone democrat. "No matter what your political faith is you should do all in your power for the reelection of Governor Sheldon and a republican house and senate. Optometry will need both this winter. Get busy for Sheldon."

SCHOOL MEN MAKE ADDRESSES

Superintendent Davidson and Principal Clark Speak Sunday at Y. M. C. A.

"The crying need in the business world is the qualities that make men. Honesty, energy, tact, application, punctuality and many other qualities are what employers say their men lack in too many cases, and if a man has these the world is waiting for him with open arms." This was the idea Principal Ellis U. Graff of the Omaha high school expressed in an address to men at the Young Men's Christian association Sunday afternoon. His subject was "Character and Characteristic."

Modern Institutions of Learning are Top Heavy and One-Sided.

"In the present striving after high mental culture character is inclined to be slighted. It is left for the individual to cultivate and develop, so a personal obligation is placed upon each one of us. "It is as easy to develop yourself along lines of good character as it is to go through life in a slipshod manner. The law of processes is the secret of character culture. Like learning to play a piano, to cultivate the right kind of characteristics until they are cultivated. The mere desire is all right, but it is not sufficient. Go to work on the characteristic you want. If a man wants to be benevolent he must be till it sticks to him and is a part of him."

Taking Humility as a Characteristic Held up by Christ, Franklin and Shakespeare as one to be praised.

Principal Graff asked the question, "Does this quality suit the twentieth century?" and then in a strong argument showed that although meekness is apparently left out of the present day category of graces it is essential to the highest realization of character. Taking the enumeration of the king-becomes qualified found in the third part of Macbeth, the speaker stated that after a careful study of famous historic characters by one of its classes in English literature it was found that only one man aside from Christ measured up to the standards of Shakespeare, and that man was Abraham Lincoln.

"What is it that makes men great? Is it the call of the times, or some other equally accidental fortune that raises men to the height of fame and greatness?"

In reply to these queries by himself Prof. Graff declared the greatness was the result of inherent qualities and characteristics that fitted a man for more than ordinary affairs of life. "Abraham Lincoln" was the subject of a stereotyped address at the Young Men's Christian association meeting for boys Sunday afternoon by W. M. Davidson, superintendent of public instruction. Lincoln's power of self-control and his steady, unswerving from the right were strongly illustrated by anecdotes and stories of his life. About 100 boys attended the meeting. Judge Howard Kennedy is to be the speaker next Sunday, when the stereotyped will be used again.

HALF-MINUTE STORE TALK

Lots of people comment on the arrangement of mirrors in this great store and how perfectly they reflect every single angle of light. Mirrors that would tell the truth about the appearance of our clothes were what we had in mind when we were "store-planning." "It didn't look that way in the store," is an expression never uttered by the men we clothe.

LIGHT SENTENCE FOR EVANS

Losers Numbers in His Rank and to Be Publicly Reprimanded.

YOKOHAMA, Oct. 19.—Lieutenant Frank Evans of the battleship Louisiana, who recently was court-martialed on a charge of absenting himself from his post while officer of the deck, dismissed to his superior officer and intimation, has been found guilty of the two former charges. Rear Admiral Sperry reviewed the papers while the battleships were at Manila and has just announced his verdict. The sentence provides that Lieutenant Evans shall lose 150 numbers and shall be publicly reprimanded. The commander-in-chief adds that in his opinion the sentence is inadequate, but he has approved it in order that Evans shall not entirely escape punishment.

RECIPE TO CURE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND RHEUMATISM IS EASY TO MIX

Many people unnecessarily leaving the city to get relief.

The following prescription for the cure of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles has no doubt been filled millions of times, viz.: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. These simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at little cost and are mixed by shaking well in a bottle. The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime, drinking a full tumblerful of water after each dose. It is stated that this prescription is a positive remedy for kidney trouble and lame back, weak bladder and urinary difficulties, especially of the elderly people, and one of the best things to be used in rheumatic affections, relieving the aches and pains and reducing swellings. A well-known authority states that this mixture acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys; cleanses these spongy organs and gives them power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood which is the cause of rheumatism. If your back or sides ache and you suspect kidney trouble it would be wise to try this for a few days.

It has been a struggle to get before the people the dangerous facts, the hidden underground facts, relating to the plans for control of the liberties and affairs of the common citizens by the adroit managers of the huge "Labor Trust" known as the American Federation of Labor.

These managers are seeking power even superior to that of the President of the United States. "Nonsense," someone says. Well, let's have a look.

When I first started publishing these articles discussing labor matters, nearly the entire list of papers published them, but these were a few afraid to print them either offered full pay.

Afraid the labor leaders would boycott them, afraid the unions in their own printing department would strike and afraid on general principles.

Here was a sample of the "muzzled press," the subtle enemy of the common people.

Fair Union Men To the credit of the typographical union let it be said the majority of its members are too intelligent to refuse to set type on either side in discussion of a principle, realizing that the columns of a newspaper must be unpartisan.

However, in some offices, less wisdom was shown and the papers refused to print the discussion.

In one article I invited readers to scan the pages of various papers of that date and if the announcement failed to appear, write and ask the publisher "why." The only excuse would be "in contract with Post." But when he got angry and began to offer various and sundry other reasons, it became plain to the engineer that it was left out through pitiable fear.

The discovery by readers that a favorite newspaper feared to print matter written for and in the interest of the thirty-nine citizens out of every forty, (only one union man in every forty citizens) produced a disgust and distrust hard to overcome.

When the rights of the common people cannot be defended by the newspapers, because of fear of some organization, either of capital or labor, the enslavement of citizens has reached a dangerous point, and the papers which refuse to stand for the rights and freedom of the great reading and thinking public, should be known and rebuked by the public they ought to serve.

Those readers who would like to have printed the names of a few papers and public servants who have been lax in support of the rights of the people when assailed by class organizations are invited to make known their wishes by mail addressed to the undersigned.

Have You Noticed

Reader, how adroitly the Leaders of the Labor Trust work to gain more and more control over the liberties of the people?

Do you realize they are aiming at absolute domination of the daily affairs of citizens?

Do you think it would be safe to allow yourself to be gradually tied hand and foot until your inherited freedom and liberty was taken from you? Have a look at their methods and draw your own conclusions.

Threats are made to city, county, state and national officers and public men, and of defeat or violence for judges and jurors and the number of citizens assaulted or murdered and property destroyed in an active Labor Trust year exceeds by far the amount of violence which ever occurred in any one year during previous days. The black man was not his own master. The present day union man is not. He must quit when the Labor Trust leader "orders." Involuntary idleness is no less deplorable than involuntary servitude.

The disobedient black man was at times driven with whips, back to his work. The disobedient "union" man is in thousands of cases, been driven away from his work, with clubs, missiles, revolvers and knives; assaulted, strangled, unconscious, maimed for life, or murdered. Or perhaps his steps dogged for weeks, and his family subjected to insults, immovable, homes destroyed and property blown up. This most damnable cruelty and brutality that hate could devise and ruffian outlaws execute has been put upon American workmen, who have dared to disobey the "orders" of the Labor Trust leaders.

There were about 5,000 citizens assaulted in one city (Chicago) during one strike (the team) and many men crippled for life. Some 12 or 14 were willfully murdered outright, and yet there have been but few convictions and trifling if any punishment.

Uncle Sam's Way

If only ten Americans had been strangled and many more killed in a foreign port, ample apology would have been made and ample funds exacted for the support of the injured families, at the muzzle of Uncle Sam's 12-inch guns, or some people and some things would have been blown off the face of the earth. But 5,000 citizens injured, with a schedule of rewards for broken tools, and arms and so much for eyes gouged out, paid by members of the Labor Trust is passed with but slight comment and absolutely not one cent of contribution or support for the destitute families of the victims.

It has been noticed that when union criminals are on trial for murdering independent workmen, they sometimes bring in their wives and mothers, and have their children clamor about their knees to impress the jury with sympathy. So much for the brutal murderers, but who brings into court the destitute, fatherless children of the poor workman murdered in cold blood because he obeyed the instincts of an Almighty Father, who impelled him to seek work to feed his little ones? What play is ever made by them to sway a jury? The murderer is supported by the funds of the Labor Trust. The orphans of the victim have no money to help them obtain justice.

Impudent Pretense The Labor Trust leaders proclaim peaceful intent and publicly decry violence. Such barefaced assertions as that of the president of the American Federation of Labor that "organized labor is one of the most potent factors for the preservation of peace," is only interesting as an illustration of the extreme impudence of these leaders with a most terrible record of criminal procedure behind them. It lately became public that this trust expended up to $150,000 to defend its members in the Haywood-Moyer trial, securing acquittal by a frightened jury, notwithstanding the fact that the judge who presided at the trial announced afterward that the testimony implicating the members of the Labor Trust in the deeds of violence was in his opinion true.

The Labor Trust shouts for the public ear, and winks in another direction while it finds it necessary to rush to the support of its criminal members, in order to "keep up the war."

Without certainty of protection the worker would quickly become discouraged. The victim of the Labor Trust dare not publicly protest even if he lives through the entertainment by the "entertainment committee," and the wives, widows and children have no way to bring their wrongs to the public ear. The poorhouse may take care of some and the streets of some, but the suffering, terror and agony put upon the children, wives and widows of independent workmen is known only to themselves and their God and no one seems to have the humanity or bravery to speak in their defense.

Thousands of individual members of organized labor have hearts as tender as the Labor Trust in all human nature, but they seem powerless in the iron grasp of impudent and desperate tyrants who hold them bound and who extort from them not only money, but "obedience" and bring reproach on the very name of Labor.

Honest Union Men Helpless Let an honest union man raise his voice to protest at a union meeting and the "men of violent tendencies" cry him down with shouts to "throw that guy out the window" and if he don't shut up he may expect to be violently and effectively shut up. Some day let us hope that organized labor will get the same kind of present leaders and conduct the sale of its product (labor) in the peaceful, legal manner of business men who sell the ordinary products of humanity, and when they cannot sell their labor at a satisfactory price to one man, do as the farmer does, offer his wheat to another buyer and either sells it at the highest price the market will warrant or keeps it for a higher market, but does not picket the man who cannot buy or effectively punished by the courts and the bullies put where they cannot tyrannize over independent Americans.

In other words the man who has a little money in investment, don't propose to have trust, even the Labor Trust tell him how or where to pay it out. This widespread attack of the Labor Trust on citizens who would have money to invest in labor if allowed to invest peacefully, has been one of the strongest elements which brought on the panic.

Men who have money to build, don't like to be harassed to death by continued demands by labor union tangles, therefore hundreds of them don't build. So with new factories and other enterprises.

Between the loud mouthed political demagogues and the Labor Trust leaders, the steady attacks on industries dried them up and the panic came bringing idleness and misery to thousands.

The demand by the Labor Trust leaders for an anti-injunction law, is quite in keeping with the purposes of the tyrannous leaders. A careful investigation of the records of a few Federal courts for the past 5 years discloses the fact that only 29 injunctions have issued in labor disputes and in not one of these cases has the superior court reversed or failed to approve. No other subject handled by our courts

What Are Injunctions?

"Now, what is an injunction?" someone asks. When it becomes known that the trust leaders plan to have their slugs, waylay other workmen and assault them, or picket and spit on and insult or attack American citizens going to or coming from work, or plan to destroy some machinery, blow up a factory, mine or workman's home or do any other act of violence or crime the courts are asked to issue an injunction for their protection on issue "restraining order" or "injunction" ordering these men not to do the acts they intend, until the court can have time to inquire into the
