ODD FELLOWS PROSPEROUS

Reports Show Gain of Over Fourteen Hundred During Year.

VINSONHALER CASE IS ARGUED

Douglas County Seeks to Hold Former County Judge for Fees Earned, but Not Collected, and for Marriage Fees.

From a Staff Correspondent.

LINCOLN, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—The grand jury independent order of O. M. Fellows and the Rebekahs listened to a welcome address from Governor Sheldon and at noon gave a parade. The day was devoted to a business session.

The annual report of the grand secretary shows a most substantial increase. During the year twelve new lodges have been chartered and a gain in membership of over 1,000. Three hundred and six lodges now hold charters. Financial benefits to the sum of $2,750.00 have been paid out and the relief fund reached over $20,000; $2,568.35 went for special relief; for the relief of widows and orphans $402.25 was expended. The finances were declared to be in excellent condition.

The report of the grand master indicates a healthy growth and great activity in all branches of the order. It is stated that the lodges instituted during the last year are strong and optimistic.

Vinsonhaler Case Argued.

One case submitted today to the full bench of the supreme court and Commissioners Duffie, Calkins and Epperson is of a character to make county judges and former county judges sit up and take notice. It is one argued by Douglas county against ex-county judge Douglas of Vinsonhaler where it is sought to charge Mr. Vinsonhaler with financial responsibility for about $16,000 worth of uncollected fees. Included in this claim is an item for all marriages performed by the county judge on the theory that it is his duty to perform such ceremony and not to be concerned with the statute by which Mr. Vinsonhaler with financial responsibility for about $16,000 worth of uncollected fees. DOGS USED IN GRAND ISLAND

Hounds Employed to Locate Money Taken from Resort.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—In an effort to capture the burglars who robbed the house of Venus Weller of $500 in cash the dogs from Lexington were secured. A remarkable test of the trail following functions of the animals followed. Although a copious rain had fallen after the burglary and before the second dogs were secured, and sixteen hours had elapsed, the dogs took the scent at the broken window screen, followed it from the house to the Union Pacific track and up to the track to a particular seat in the Union Pacific depot, announcing with a yelp the spot of their scent. They were taken to the place of beginning and followed the same line to the same seat in the depot. Along the line a part of the box in which the money was kept was found. The animals were then put on the scent of the night of the burglary and followed the same line to room 31 at the Koshler hotel, in which the two suspected men had slept. This operation, too, was repeated, with the same definite result. The police officers now have a definite clue upon which to work.

As a result of the work of the hounds R. R. Barnard and E. H. Young of Callaway were taken into custody. Many of their friends will not believe that they had anything to do with the matter and are of the opinion that they were taken there they say, though admitting that they were at the place on the night of the robbery, that they had absolutely nothing to do with the robbery.

In a discussion between the city and county attorneys and the officers Barnard and Young agreed to pay the woman $100 more to the amount missing rather than get the case into the courts. This was done and no action will be brought in court.

Pollard Speaks at Union.

UNION, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Congressman Pollard spoke here last night. The hall was completely filled and the audience gave excellent attention. He began with a discussion of the railroad and questions. He pointed out that the original intention of the act was to assist the republicans in 1855 and said that the Hepburn act was simply an amendment which extended its powers and restored to the commission the authority to fix rates, which it was supposed it had prior to the decision of the supreme court in 1897. He discussed the Sherman anti-trust act, which was passed during the republican administration in 1890, and said that the republicans were first in this field as in the regulation of the railroads.

In reply to a question from the audience by a gentleman who seemed to know him well and called him "Carnest," Mr. Pollard said that he would not pledge himself to vote for or against any man for speaker of the house of representatives a year in advance of the time for taking action. He said he would vote on the matter to carry out the views of the people of this district, as on all other matters that come before congress.

Burkett Speaks at Milford.

MILFORD, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—One of the largest assemblies of voters that has come together in Milford during this campaign listened to Senator Burkett Friday afternoon. The senator's argument was along the line of good citizenship, freetrade and the tariff and declaring that congress and the republican legislature are not competent and willing to enact such laws as would protect the depositor in banks against loss through honest or incompetent bankers. On this subject the senator was greeted with great applause. Milford will give the full republican majority on November 3, without the loss of one vote to Bryan.

MRS. RUSER TO STAND TRIAL

Pleas Guilty to Conspiracy to Kill Husband, Then Reverses.

LATTER ASKS ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

Seeks for Custody of Child Also and Wife Will Resist This—Woman in Jail Denies Her Paramour.

Emil Ruser, through his attorney Edward L. Bradley of Omaha, filed action for an absolute divorce against his wife, Mathilda Ruser, a few hours later, pleaded guilty to the charge of conspiring with John Slager, her paramour, to kill Ruser and later changed her plea to not guilty, intending to stand trial.

The divorce papers were drawn up by Mr. Bradley in Omaha and filed at Papillion and Mrs. Ruser was arraigned in the county seat of Sarpy county and then sent to Douglas county jail in Omaha, to be confined in a cell pending her trial. Her ill-fated lover, Slager, still occupies a cell in the same institution.

"I don't think John Slager was much of a man to tell the truth about me the way he did. No, I wouldn't marry him now if I had a chance. I don't see how anybody could after the way he has acted. It would have been all right for him to have told about himself, but he ought not to have told all about me."

This statement was made by Mrs. Mathilda Ruser, who is held in the county jail on a charge of aiding John Slager in his attempt to murder Emil Ruser of Sarpy county, Mrs. Ruser's husband. Mrs. Ruser showed considerable resentment against Slager for his attempt to lay the burden of the crime on her.

Not Much Disturbed

Mrs. Ruser apparently does not take the crime very seriously. While discussing it she hung her head bashfully and smiled in a timid sort of a way, but at no time did she show remorse. She is a rather pretty woman of 30, with light hair and pink cheeks. She did not give much evidence of possessing a strong character.

Only once during the interview was she serious and that was when she talked of the year-old baby.

"Of course I will fight my husband's divorce suit," she said. "But only to get the baby. It is only a year old and I think I ought to have it. It is not a bottle baby and it needs me. It is not with a neighbor family, but I don't see how they can take care of it. They wouldn't let me bring it here."

Mrs. Ruser says John Slager broke an agreement he had with her on the night of the attempted murder.

"I wanted him to come to the door and wake me before he did the shooting, but he wouldn't do that. He said he would come to the window and wake me and I could get out of the way before he shot. He didn't do that. I laid awake for a long time, expecting him to come, but when he did not I went to sleep, thinking he had given it up. Then when he did come later in the night he began shooting without letting me know. I and the baby were in almost as much danger as my husband. We came very near being hit by the bullets. I didn't like his doing that.

"I don't want any more to do with Slager. I don't care much whether I like him or not. I don't suppose they would let us talk anyway. But I don't want to marry him now. If he had had any sympathy for me or my baby he would have shielded me at such a time as this if at no other."

Wants to Change Plea.

Mrs. Ruser said she now wanted to take back her plea of guilty made at the preliminary hearing and now she says she will stand trial.

"I didn't understand what all that was the county attorney was reading to me at the hearing," she said. "When it was explained to me that it charged me with trying to shoot my husband I took back my plea because I didn't shoot. I still stand by my first statement, though, and don't deny we had an agreement to shoot him. I didn't do it."

"I don't think it's right for Slager to try to blame it all on me. I don't know who mentioned it first, but I think he did. One day he asked me to marry him and I said, 'All right, but I have a husband now, so can't.' Then he said, 'We will get rid of him all right,' and that was the way it started."

Mrs. Ruser has employed Attorney Langdon of Papillion to defend her. He is now trying to get her relatives and neighbors to go on her bond.

Ruser Files Divorce Paper

Emil Ruser, through his attorney, Edward L. Bradley of Omaha, Wednesday filed a suit for absolute divorce from his wife, Mathilda Ruser, who has confessed to plotting the murder of her husband with John Slager. A copy of the petition was mailed to the district court at Sarpy county, where the action will lie. Ruser asks for the sole custody of his daughter, Ella.

The divorce is first prayed for on statutory grounds and then the petition recites: "That on or about the 10th of October, 1908, the defendant entered into an agreement with the plaintiff to be bound by the terms of which agreement the said John Slager was to kill and murder this plaintiff at the residence of the said John Slager in Omaha, Nebraska, by entering the bedroom there occupied by said defendant and to gain access to the bedroom and to shoot the plaintiff in the left arm and another taking effect in plaintiff's right arm."

That by reason of the acts and conduct of the defendant, the plaintiff is unable to defend herself and is in need of the care, custody and education of said child be given to the plaintiff and for such other and further relief as equity may require.

Building and Practically All the Stock is Lost

CALLAWAY, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—Callaway, Neb., visited by fire this morning, when the large department store of Mathews & Mathews was burned, together with most of its contents. The fire was discovered by Eugene McKinney, engine wailer for the Union Pacific at this place, and not many minutes later the burning building had been abandoned. A crowd was soon on hand, together with both fire companies, but the fire had gained such great headway the entire building was burned. In addition to the stock of goods, the Masonic and Odd Fellow lodges, occupying halls on the second floor, were also burned. The paraffin, and Dr. A. L. Mathews, candidate for representative on the republican ticket, who occupied a front office, lost all his books, instruments, etc. It is estimated that the stock would have valued at $15,000, while the insurance carried on the building was for $10,000. But few of the goods were removed and all taken out are greatly damaged. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Heavy Wind at Shelby.

SHELBY, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—A small tornado hit Postmaster W. T. Mawhor's farm, northeast of town, yesterday afternoon. Jim Lockhard drove in back of the barn for protection. A barn moved about twelve feet from its place over back of him. In getting out of the mixup, another

Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken down by over-work, excessive social duties, the too frequent nursing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting a abundant nourishment for the child. It is a safe and reliable system for baby's coming and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can do no harm in any case, or condition of the female system.

Weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down distress low irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, pelvic catarrhal conditions, or other displacement of womanly organs from weakness of parts will, by the use of this medicine, find many or only a few of the above symptoms, relief and a permanent cure by using this faithfully and persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This world-famous specific for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the medicinal roots, medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients are printed in plain English, in a wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of his formula, knowing that it will be found to contain only the best ingredients known to the most advanced medical science of all the different schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

If you want to know more about this medicine, or to get a free booklet, send postal card request to Dr. R. W. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet, "Treatment of Women's Diseases," which can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of known composition. Don't do it.

Italians Beginning to Tell.

PREMONT, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—Pasquel, one of the Italians charged with being implicated in the murder of Tony Ganova last week, was formally placed under arrest this afternoon and taken to the county jail. He is a little more disposed to talk than at first and now claims that Rocco Piero, who is in jail, and Tony Ganova, the man killed, were the only parties who used knives. Four members of the gang were brought back here from Oakland and are being held as witnesses. One of them says that during the inquest Rocco, who was a witness, asked him in Italian to go and get his knife, telling him where it was, before the sheriff found it. County Attorney Graham and the police were well satisfied with the developments in the case and expect to get to the bottom of it.

Young Waite in Trouble Again.

PREMONT, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Clarence Waite was arrested today by Sheriff Bauman on the charge of breaking into Don's fishing camp on the Platte and stealing about everything loose in the building. For a mild looking youth of less than 20 Waite has a bad record. A year ago last spring he was arrested for breaking into Marshall Bros' jewelry store. While waiting trial he broke jail and was arrested in Illinois. Just as the train was pulling out, though handcuffed, he made a flying leap from the train, but was found hiding in a lumber yard and brought back. On account of his age he got off with a light sentence, but is not likely to fare as well this time.

Aldrich at Shelton.

SHELTON, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—State Senator C. H. Aldrich of David City addressed the people of Shelton last evening at Meisner's Opera house. Every seat was occupied and many in the gallery when the senator commenced his address, and the best of attention was paid to him and frequent hearty applause was given him many telling blows to democratic positions. The way he handled national as well as local issues greatly pleased the members of the Taft club, under whose auspices he was engaged to speak. Many women were present, as was also a large number of democratic voters. The motor car from Kearney came down, bringing an enthusiastic crowd of republicans. All the county candidates were also present. This meeting will be a booster for the republican cause in this vicinity.

Charcoal Purifies Any Breath

And in Its Purest Form Has Long Been Known As the Greatest Gas Absorber.

Pure willow charcoal will oxidize almost any odor and render it sweet and pure. A painful in a foul cellar or about a deadly fumes, for charcoal absorbs one hundred times its volume in gas.

The ancients knew the value of charcoal and administered it in cases of illness, especially pertaining to the stomach. In England today charcoal purifiers are used for ulcers, belts, etc., while some physicians in Europe claim to cure many skin diseases by covering the afflicted skin with charcoal powder.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges go into the mouth and transfer foul odors at once into oxygen, absorb noxious gases and acids and when swallowed mix with the digestive juices and stop gas making, fermentation and decay.

By their gentle qualities they control beneficially bowel action and stop diarrhoea and constipation.

Bad breath simply cannot exist when charcoal is used. There are no ifs or ands about this statement. Don't make out word for it, but look into the matter yourself. Ask your druggist or physician, or better still, look up charcoal in your encyclopedia. The beauty of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges is that the highest pharmaceutical expert knowledge obtainable has been used to prepare a lozenge that will give to man the best form of charcoal for use.

Pure willow and honey is the result. Two or three after meals and at bedtime sweeten the breath, stop decay of teeth, aid digestive apparatus and promote perfect bowel action. They enrich the supply of oxygen to the system and thereby revivify the blood and nerves.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are sold everywhere in vast quantities, thus they must have merit. Every druggist carries them, price, twenty-five cents per box, or send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail, free. Address P. A. Stuart, Co., 200 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

ENLARGING WESTERN LEAGUE

President O'Neill to Attend Meeting of the Western Association.

OFFERS TO TOPEKA AND WICHITA

Refused to Sanction the Transfer.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—That the Western league has not given up the idea of expanding was made evident when Norris L. (Tip) O'Neill arrived in Kansas City and opened negotiations with President Shively of the Western association for the acquisition of the Topeka and Wichita franchises of the Shively league. O'Neill has with him a sum of money said to be $5,000, which he claims he is authorized to spend for the purpose of making his league, an eight-city circuit. O'Neill has pledged the money in the hands of an attorney who will produce it as an evidence of good faith at next Saturday's annual meeting of the club owners of the Western association, to take place at the Baltimore hotel, here.

At a conference held today, George T. Beaton, owner of the Denver Western league team, D. M. Shively, president of the Western association and Frank Isbell, owner of the Wichita club, talked the matter over with President O'Neill.

President Shively said tonight that he had no authority to dispose of the Topeka and Wichita franchises. He said the matter would probably be thrown out at Saturday's meeting. If a majority of the club owners of the Western association agree to accept the price O'Neill is willing to pay, the two cities will be transferred.

Both Topeka and Wichita wished to break into the Western league last year, but the owners of the six other clubs of the Western association refused to sanction the transfer.

No Surprises at York.

YORK, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—A large number of York republicans expressed no surprise when it was published that the State Journal had sold space to the democrats. Many republicans believe some agreement might have been entered into long ago, because of the fact that the State Journal has at times given greater space to Bryan, and for this reason republicans here have not been as favorable to the State Journal.
