

The Baking Powder Story in a nut-shell.

Adulteration Impurity Unhealthfulness Cheap Baking Powder Trust Baking Powder CALUMET BAKING POWDER

Received Highest Award World's Pure Food Exposition Chicago, 1907.

BRIEF CITY NEWS

Have Most Print It. Diamonds, Edholm, Jeweler. Rudolph F. Swoboda, Public Accountant. Pa. Bonds for Quality Citrus, 316 S. 15th. Kinschalt, photographer, 18th & Farnam. Dr. J. J. Foster, dentist, Continental Bldg. Bowman, 117 N. 16. Douglas shoes, $3.50. Note Harrison & Morton's attractive ad in special column. Electrical Wiring and Repairs—Burgess-Granden company, 1511 Howard street. Suitable safe—Police slight draft at maturity. H. D. Neely, manager, Omaha. $5,000 Omaha Home Telephone bonds and 50 per cent stock at $5. Wire Conn Bros, 130 First, Portland, Ore. The Omaha School of Automobile Engineering is a new feature recently opened at 214 1/2 Leavenworth street. It instructs in all phases of motoring and will form a special class for ladies. Keep Your Money and Valuables in a safe deposit box in the American Safe Deposit vault in the Bee building, which is absolutely burglar and fireproof. Boxes rent for only $1 a year, or $1 for three months. Omaha Theater Company—The Omaha Theater company, with a capital of $20,000, has been incorporated to operate moving picture shows, carnivals and theaters. W. R. Gourley and Ed L. Culver are the incorporators. Red Oak School Ma'am—Thirty teachers engaged in the schools of Red Oak, Ia., will spend Thursday and Friday in Omaha. The purpose of their visit is to study the school system in this city with the idea of bettering the schools of their home city. Beatrice Man Gets the Bargain—An electric runabout claimed to be worth $200 was bought Tuesday by William Steffen of Beatrice for $100. The car was put on sale October 6 at $400 and the price reduced $25 each day until sold. For fourteen days no buyer appeared. John E. Brady on Trial—John H. Brady, who was accused by suspects arrested in Denver of sending stolen property to them in that city, was placed on trial in district court Wednesday morning on a charge of breaking into the hardware store of James Morton & Sons Co. at Fifteenth and Dodge streets. It is charged he broke a window and stole fifteen pocket knives. Fugitive Willing to Go—On the charge of being a fugitive from justice, Harvey Penny of Des Moines, Ia., is being held at the police station till an officer from his home city arrives and takes him back to answer a charge of wife desertion. Detectives Ferris and Dunn made the arrest Wednesday morning. Penny has been working as an electrician in the city for some time and he expresses willingness to go to Des Moines without registration papers. Ed Doyle Comes Clear—Ed Doyle, charged with breaking into the junk store of Jacob Milder, was acquitted by a jury in district court Wednesday. Doyle was identified as one of two men who were seen the night of the burglary with two boxes of junk and as one of the men who afterward sold the stolen junk. He went up the stand in his own behalf and said he had merely met Dick Taylor with the stolen goods and had accompanied him, not knowing at that time the goods were stolen. The jury believed him and turned him loose. Grand Jury in Squads—In order to lighten the work of visiting the many public and semi-public institutions situated in Omaha the county grand jury has divided itself up into committees. Each committee will inspect the certain number of the institutions. This plan will shorten some of the routine work imposed on the jury and give it more time to devote to the hearing of criminal complaints. The Douglas county commissioners have been summoned before the jury Wednesday afternoon. They will tell the jury of conditions in the county institutions. Street Blockade Causes Collision—A blockade of the street at the corner of Thirteenth and Douglas at noon Wednesday resulted from a northbound Benson-South Omaha street car No. 23 running into a street wheel of a dirt wagon and scattering the load of material taken from the street, which is being repaved. Bystanders said that the trouble might have been averted by more care on the part of the motorman. The car was not injured beyond the extent of a bent passenger stand, but the wagon had one of its wheels completely demolished and suffered other damage. Indian Policemen Slip a Cog—One of the Indian policemen from the Winnebago reservation summoned to Omaha as a witness in some of the Winnebago bootlegging cases succeeded in getting a tank full of booze on the Omaha city reservation and put in an appearance Wednesday morning before the grand jury in such a state of inebriety that the taking of his evidence had to be postponed until he could be pumped out. In ascending the elevator to the grand jury room he stepped on the foot of one of the elevator conductors with such force that the elevator man is now carrying his foot in a sling. Appendicitis Develops Quickly—August Anderson, storekeeper for the Merchants hotel, is at the Omaha General hospital in a very serious condition. Wednesday afternoon he was forced to undergo an operation for appendicitis. He was at work as usual Wednesday morning when he was suddenly taken with cramps. Herman Peters, owner of his hotel, saw he was a sick man and immediately had three physicians on hand. After a consultation they decided he would have to undergo an operation before night. Mr. Anderson has lost no time from his work and had not complained until Wednesday morning. New Counterfeit on Deck—A new counterfeit $5 silver certificate has put in its appearance. It is of the Indian head variety, series of 1898, check letter "A," plate number 1941, W. T. Rogers, register and Chas. H. Treat, United States treasurer. The certificate is a poor photographic reproduction, printed on the silk paper without an insertion of the gold threads of the genuine. It is made by T. W. Crozier, a noted counterfeit, who is in custody in Canada, for making counterfeit certificates of the $5 and $10 denomination of the Farmers Bank of Canada. Pedestrian Tour Across Continent—Sergeant John Walsh, a former member of the United States cavalry, arrived in Omaha Wednesday morning, afoot from Boston on a round trip tour across the continent. He left San Francisco May 23, and completed the trip to Boston in schedule time, and is now on his way back. The wages for his trip were $5,000 and he is being taken under the auspices of several army officers at San Francisco as a test of physical endurance. Two men are making the trip. Sergeant Walsh is now 80 miles ahead of schedule time, his competitor being at Davenport, Ia. Christina Nelson Gets Verdict for $5,000—Christina Nelson was awarded a verdict in the United States circuit court Tuesday for $5,000 against James H. Sauer and his bond for the death of her husband, Carl Nelson, a millman, who was drowned in Cut-Off lake in January last as a result of his becoming intoxicated at the saloon of Sauer. The verdict was not recovered until the following April. The case has been on trial in the United States circuit court for about one week. Mrs. Nelson's attorneys were F. W. Fitch and E. S. Baker. Sauer's interests were looked after by Judge E. M. Bartlett. Liu Sung Dismisses Appeal—Liu Sung has concluded to accept the inevitable and has been assigned to the deportation docket, but skipped his bail pending an appeal to the circuit court of appeals. Finding little hope for his appeal and having a lingering desire to visit the tombs of his ancestors in the land of his forefathers, he decided to throw up the sponge and go back home. An order for his deportation has been issued and Liu will depart for San Francisco early next week with a deputy United States Marshal as an escort to see that he gets a through ticket to Chung Whung Foo. Election of Street Car Men—In its campaign to protect the public as far as possible the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company is holding education meetings for the motormen. A meeting was held Tuesday night at the Twenty-fourth and Vinton street barn, when H. B. Noyes, chief engineer of the company, explained to the motormen the electrical apparatus on the cars. They were also instructed in the proper way of handling the live overhead wires in case of a break. Meetings of a similar nature were arranged for the motormen of the Twenty-fourth and Ames avenue barn for Wednesday afternoon and evening. Lobeck Has a Campaign Joke—Comptroller Lobeck is succeeding in causing more or less confusion in local political camps by displaying a card on which is printed a vote for E. E. Lobeck for representative from Douglas County. After the leaders have scratched their heads in an endeavor to remember a legislative candidate by that name in this county Mr. Lobeck explains that E. E. Lobeck is a candidate for representative from Douglas County, Minnesota, in the coming election. Though the names are the same, the two Lobecks are not related, the father of the Minnesota being a Norwegian, while Omaha's comptroller prides himself on his Swedish descent. DAVIS FORMALLY ARRAIGNED Pleads Not Guilty of Rustin Murder and Will Be Tried in November. The trial of Charles E. Davis, charged with the murder of Dr. Frederick Rustin, will be started in criminal court some time next month. This announcement was made by County Attorney English Wednesday morning. There is a number of cases ahead of the Davis case, but it is believed they can be disposed of in time to allow the Davis case to be heard before the end of November. Davis was formally arraigned before Judge Sears Wednesday morning and entered a plea of not guilty. He was accompanied only by his attorney, W. P. Curley. Davis exhibited the same staid indifference as the long information was read to him as he has shown all through the case. Building Permits. Neils Paulson, 222 Lafayette avenue, frame dwelling, $2,500; L. McGrath, 402 Burt street, frame dwelling, $2,000; Presbyterian hospital, 134 South Tenth street, addition to hospital building, $4,000; Mrs. Patton, Twenty-seventh and Caldwell streets, frame dwelling, $2,000; Western Construction company, Thirty-seventh and Cass streets, frame dwelling, $2,900.

DEMOS FIGHT TERMINAL TAX Bryan and Shallenberger on Side of Railroads in This.

ED HOWELL AND FRANK RANSON These Two Ardent Champions of Corporation Interests Head Legislative Ticket in Douglas County. REPUBLICAN MEETINGS. Thursday Evening—Twenty-second and Cuming Streets—Eighth and Ninth Ward Republican clubs; speakers, John L. Kennedy, M. H. Baird and Nelson C. Pratt. Fourth and Dodge Streets—Colored Voters' Hall, South Omaha—Polish meeting; speakers, A. H. VanDusen and John L. Kennedy. Ritchie's Hall, Twenty-fourth and M Streets, South Omaha—Taft club of South Omaha; speakers, Attorney General William Thompson, O. C. Peterson, M. F. of Chicago; Thomas W. Blackburn and candidates. Idlewild Hall, Twenty-fourth and Grant Streets—Foraker (colored) club; speakers, M. H. Baird and candidates. Friday Evening—East Omaha—Speakers, A. W. Jeffers, W. G. Ure, Ed Leeder and T. A. Kollister. Ritchie's Hall, Twenty-fourth and M Streets, South Omaha—Colored Voters' Taft club; speakers, W. T. Wappich and John L. Kennedy. Saturday Evening—Registration Day—No meetings. Sunday, October 19—Bennington-Grohusen Hall—Speakers, A. W. Jeffers, T. A. Kollister, W. F. Wappich and others. Sunday, November 1—National Hall, Thirteenth and William Streets—Italian meeting; speakers, Prof. Sturand, H. G. Maggi and others.

Again there is wrath among the democrats. A Dalmatian disciple presents the criticism made upon our Jim for his blabbing about the scheme to milk the Omaha brewers for $5,000 to help Mr. Bryan out. "They talk about Jim doing foolish things," exclaims this patriot, "but what about those wise boys who framed up that legislative slate? They'd better go crawl in a hole somewhere. They put Ed Howell on for senator. Now, he's a live one, isn't he? He's only been beaten three times for mayor. Why, in that three-cornered fight when the republicans had two nominees in the field Ed Howell came out third and a bad third in the race. Any other man in Omaha but him could have been elected. If you want to get right down to brass tacks on the difference between Ed Howell and Jim Dalmatian just take the experience of the two men in the mayor fight. "Then there's Howell's record on that terminal tax fight. The most important and popular law enacted in this state for a long time is that very law, and Ed Howell is the man the railroads used in 1887 to introduce the bill preventing the taxing of terminals. Fine! "Then there's Frank Ransom, and another person named for senator. I guess the stock yards must have been willing to put in a big pile to get Ransom on the ticket. They know that if their own attorney is a member of the legislature it would save them at least $10,000 or $15,000. Fine! "Then these monkeys have the nerve to kick on Jim, telling the people that he's going after the brewers for Bryan. Why, that's the way Jim makes friends—to be outspoken. Of course, the brewers are supporting him. The Standard Oil is, and the Standard Oil is, and the Standard Oil is, and the Standard Oil is, and the Standard Oil is. We're going to see about that $20,000,000.

Major Jim is not so squeaky just now as he was, but he is clinging to the campaign contributions with a hold that refuses to be shaken. The hungry workers all look to Jim as the real Santa Claus now. Three of the Thursday evening meetings will be held in Omaha and two in South Omaha. The Taft club of South Omaha will have charge of one of the meetings, which will be held in Ritchie's hall at Twenty-fourth and M streets. Two prominent speakers will address this meeting. W. T. Thompson, attorney general, and O. C. Peterson, M. F., of Chicago, a noted Swedish orator, Thomas W. Blackburn and candidates will also deliver addresses. The other meeting in South Omaha will be held in Rex hall and will be more especially for Polish voters. J. H. Van Dusen and J. L. Kennedy will be the speakers. In Omaha two meetings will be held Thursday night for the colored voters. The Foraker club will have charge of one of the meetings, which will be held in Idlewild hall at Twenty-fourth and Grant streets and the other will be in the hall at Fourteenth and Dodge streets. The fifth meeting will be held at Twenty-second and Cuming streets, under the auspices of the Eighth and Ninth Ward Republican clubs. John L. Kennedy, H. H. Baird and Nelson C. Pratt will be the speakers. Plans have been laid by the county committee for a large meeting at Bennington for Sunday afternoon. Mr. Jeffers, Mr. Hollister, Mr. Wappich and other candidates will be the speakers. The Bohemian Republican meeting held in Bartos' hall at South Omaha Tuesday evening was a rousing affair and the attendance was large. The principal speaker was O. L. Kolar of Chicago and he explained the issues of the campaign plainly and carefully, much enthusiasm being manifested for the entire ticket. Editor O. Charbat, T. A. Hollister, nominees for county attorney; Joseph Kowalsky and W. F. Wappich, nominees for the legislature, and G. H. Brewer, nominee for coroner, also addressed the meeting. Pursuant to pledges made at a meeting last Thursday night members of the Foraker Republican club members, but all for to raise in support of the county attorney, personal solicitation in behalf of the republican ticket several meetings have been projected. One of these will be held Thursday evening, October 22, at Idlewild hall. The twenty-fourth and Grant streets. The principal speaker will be Attorney H. J. Pinkett. Retractions will be served. A Shooting Scrape With both parties wounded, demands Bucks, a horse and a dog. Burns or injuries, 25c. For sale by Heaton Drug Co. GIRLS MAY INVOLVE OTHERS Confessed Shoplifters Are Expected to Inculpate More Women. Following the thorough investigation that department has instituted in the cases of Annie Smith-Lemming, Bulah Solomon and her sister, who gives her name as Mrs. Wright, it is expected that the story of the wholesale shoplifting operations of the three girls and their confederates will come out in all its details. Tuesday, after the girls, who appear to be not over 20 years of age, had been given jail sentences or had their cases transferred to the juvenile court, an effort was made to get complete confessions from them, but each of the trio told a different story, and till Wednesday morning they decide to tell all they knew. Their statements are said to involve other young women in their series of thefts, and the detectives under Captain Savage are now working to locate the other girls and the merchandise they are supposed to have taken from various department stores. A suit case filled with stolen property is thought to have been recovered this morning and other stolen articles were taken from the Solomon home on North Twenty-fifth street Tuesday. When taken to the county jail the Solomon girls and Mrs. Wright told Chief of Detectives Savage they had been operating the shoplifting business under the guidance of an elderly woman, whose name the police will not disclose until the woman is arrested. The girls say the woman is quite old and an old-timer at the shoplifting business. WARFIELD TICKETS TOMORROW Prospects Point to a Dozen Bayers for Each Ticket. At 9 o'clock Thursday morning tickets will be placed on sale at the Burwood theater for the four performances of David Warfield in "The Music Master." The company of this eminent star has been announced since last May and the inquiry for tickets has been almost continuous. To protect the public from speculators, only six tickets will be sold to any one purchaser. You can build up your business by using The Bee Want Ad columns.

"If the democrats should win out in Douglas county and Nebraska the voters would have no kick coming, for the democrats have served notice on everybody that they are for the corporations as against the people," remarked a member of the republican county committee. "Jim Dalmatian stands up and publicly proclaims that the brewers are contributing to Mr. Bryan's election. Brother-in-law Tommy is milking the railroads as usual. Ed Howell, the railroad senator and Frank Ransom, the stock yards attorney, are two of the candidates for state senate. "Democrats are making a howl about home rule in this campaign. It is a false cry. They are opposed to home rule and they know it, but are using this slogan because they know it will attract voters. With their records against them, the democrats can ill afford to cry 'home rule.' "This is the statement of one of the members of the Omaha Real Estate exchange, who was active in the fight that placed on the statute books of Nebraska the law to tax railroad terminals. Ed Howell, the man who introduced the bill in the legislature in 1887 that enacted the law preventing the taxation of railroad terminals is running on the democratic ticket for state senate. That's part of the record. Tommy Allen, Bryan's brother-in-law, who appealed to the democrats of Nebraska in 1896 to cater to railroad support by secretly fighting the republican terminal tax plank, is still Mr. Bryan's brother-in-law. That's part of the record. Shallenberger, in the interest of whose candidacy for governor, Brother-in-Law Tommy made this appeal two years ago, is still the democratic candidate for governor. That's part of the record. Neither Bryan nor Shallenberger has ever been a member of the Omaha Real Estate exchange, who was active in the fight that placed on the statute books of Nebraska the law to tax railroad terminals. Ed Howell, the man who introduced the bill in the legislature in 1887 that enacted the law preventing the taxation of railroad terminals is running on the democratic ticket for state senate. That's part of the record. Ed Howell, the corporation-bonded senator of 1887, is this late day trying to explain why he imposed that anti-terminal taxation law on the people. Evidently he thinks an explanation is due. But his is a flimsy one. It is: "I had to let that go through or I never could have got the Omaha city charter bill passed." In the classic vernacular of an Omaha citizen who stands for the interests of Omaha and who has heard this excuse from Howell, "Rate."

That's part of the record. Ed Howell, the corporation-bonded senator of 1887, is this late day trying to explain why he imposed that anti-terminal taxation law on the people. Evidently he thinks an explanation is due. But his is a flimsy one. It is: "I had to let that go through or I never could have got the Omaha city charter bill passed." In the classic vernacular of an Omaha citizen who stands for the interests of Omaha and who has heard this excuse from Howell, "Rate."

That's part of the record. Ed Howell, the corporation-bonded senator of 1887, is this late day trying to explain why he imposed that anti-terminal taxation law on the people. Evidently he thinks an explanation is due. But his is a flimsy one. It is: "I had to let that go through or I never could have got the Omaha city charter bill passed." In the classic vernacular of an Omaha citizen who stands for the interests of Omaha and who has heard this excuse from Howell, "Rate."

That's part of the record. Ed Howell, the corporation-bonded senator of 1887, is this late day trying to explain why he imposed that anti-terminal taxation law on the people. Evidently he thinks an explanation is due. But his is a flimsy one. It is: "I had to let that go through or I never could have got the Omaha city charter bill passed." In the classic vernacular of an Omaha citizen who stands for the interests of Omaha and who has heard this excuse from Howell, "Rate."

That's part of the record. Ed Howell, the corporation-bonded senator of 1887, is this late day trying to explain why he imposed that anti-terminal taxation law on the people. Evidently he thinks an explanation is due. But his is a flimsy one. It is: "I had to let that go through or I never could have got the Omaha city charter bill passed." In the classic vernacular of an Omaha citizen who stands for the interests of Omaha and who has heard this excuse from Howell, "Rate."

That's part of the record. Ed Howell, the corporation-bonded senator of 1887, is this late day trying to explain why he imposed that anti-terminal taxation law on the people. Evidently he thinks an explanation is due. But his is a flimsy one. It is: "I had to let that go through or I never could have got the Omaha city charter bill passed." In the classic vernacular of an Omaha citizen who stands for the interests of Omaha and who has heard this excuse from Howell, "Rate."

That's part of the record. Ed Howell, the corporation-bonded senator of 1887, is this late day trying to explain why he imposed that anti-terminal taxation law on the people. Evidently he thinks an explanation is due. But his is a flimsy one. It is: "I had to let that go through or I never could have got the Omaha city charter bill passed." In the classic vernacular of an Omaha citizen who stands for the interests of Omaha and who has heard this excuse from Howell, "Rate."

That's part of the record. Ed Howell, the corporation-bonded senator of 1887, is this late day trying to explain why he imposed that anti-terminal taxation law on the people. Evidently he thinks an explanation is due. But his is a flimsy one. It is: "I had to let that go through or I never could have got the Omaha city charter bill passed." In the classic vernacular of an Omaha citizen who stands for the interests of Omaha and who has heard this excuse from Howell, "Rate."

That's part of the record. Ed Howell, the corporation-bonded senator of 1887, is this late day trying to explain why he imposed that anti-terminal taxation law on the people. Evidently he thinks an explanation is due. But his is a flimsy one. It is: "I had to let that go through or I never could have got the Omaha city charter bill passed." In the classic vernacular of an Omaha citizen who stands for the interests of Omaha and who has heard this excuse from Howell, "Rate."

That's part of the record. Ed Howell, the corporation-bonded senator of 1887, is this late day trying to explain why he imposed that anti-terminal taxation law on the people. Evidently he thinks an explanation is due. But his is a flimsy one. It is: "I had to let that go through or I never could have got the Omaha city charter bill passed." In the classic vernacular of an Omaha citizen who stands for the interests of Omaha and who has heard this excuse from Howell, "Rate."

That's part of the record. Ed Howell, the corporation-bonded senator of 1887, is this late day trying to explain why he imposed that anti-terminal taxation law on the people. Evidently he thinks an explanation is due. But his is a flimsy one. It is: "I had to let that go through or I never could have got the Omaha city charter bill passed." In the classic vernacular of an Omaha citizen who stands for the interests of Omaha and who has heard this excuse from Howell, "Rate."

That's part of the record. Ed Howell, the corporation-bonded senator of 1887, is this late day trying to explain why he imposed that anti-terminal taxation law on the people. Evidently he thinks an explanation is due. But his is a flimsy one. It is: "I had to let that go through or I never could have got the Omaha city charter bill passed." In the classic vernacular of an Omaha citizen who stands for the interests of Omaha and who has heard this excuse from Howell, "Rate."

That's part of the record. Ed Howell, the corporation-bonded senator of 1887, is this late day trying to explain why he imposed that anti-terminal taxation law on the people. Evidently he thinks an explanation is due. But his is a flimsy one. It is: "I had to let that go through or I never could have got the Omaha city charter bill passed." In the classic vernacular of an Omaha citizen who stands for the interests of Omaha and who has heard this excuse from Howell, "Rate."

That's part of the record. Ed Howell, the corporation-bonded senator of 1887, is this late day trying to explain why he imposed that anti-terminal taxation law on the people. Evidently he thinks an explanation is due. But his is a flimsy one. It is: "I had to let that go through or I never could have got the Omaha city charter bill passed." In the classic vernacular of an Omaha citizen who stands for the interests of Omaha and who has heard this excuse from Howell, "Rate."

GENUINE STETSON HATS For those who wear Stetson's famous hats we have on exhibit 104 styles—we are positive we can please you. CROFUTT & KNAPP HATS Crofutt & Knapp make good hats. They are commonly sold at $3.50—but we distribute them at $3.00.

Wear the "Asbury" Hat $2.50 The right hat at the right price. "Asbury" hats are made of high grade materials—we know it—we dictate in a measure the methods of their manufacture. "Asbury" hats are snappy—shapely—and slightly. As a provision against sameness, a pleasing change from black, we're introducing new brown shades in derbies and absolutely unique colors in soft felt hats—greens in every imaginable hue—greens to harmonize with suitings of greenish cast. We've got your hat.

Nebraska Clothing Co. Omaha's Leading Clothiers. BOYS' CAPS AT 50c. GIRLS' NEW TAMS 50c.

Pennsylvania Short Line from Chicago The Very Best New York Service. 23 Hour New York Train Leaves Chicago 8.15 a. m. Daily. 28 Hour New York Train Leaves Chicago 10.05 a. m. Daily. 24 Hour New York Train Leaves Chicago 11.00 a. m. Daily. 18 Hour New York Train Leaves Chicago 2.45 p. m. Daily. 28 Hour New York Train Leaves Chicago 3.15 p. m. Daily. 23 Hour New York Train Leaves Chicago 5.30 p. m. Daily. LEARN ALL ABOUT IT. By asking the Agent of any connecting line for a Pennsylvania Map Folder or by calling at Pennsylvania Short Line Ticket Office at 248 South Clark Street, Chicago, or by addressing C. L. Kimball, Assistant General Passenger Agent, No. 2 Sherman Street, Chicago.

"The Standard Railroad of America" DEMOCRATS ARE HEADED OFF Politicians in Real Estate Exchange Are Tripped on Trick. TRY TO FORCE GUARANTY CLAUSE Call Up Old Resolution, but Their Hand is Seen by Members Who Oppose Political Schemes. GIRLS MAY INVOLVE OTHERS Confessed Shoplifters Are Expected to Inculpate More Women. MONEY PUTS WOMAN OFF Belief She Has Lost Savings of Ten Years Upsets Reason of Ruia Ely. BABY'S VOICE Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. Angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass is such that she looks forward with dread to the hour when she shall feel the thrill of motherhood. Every woman should know that the danger and pain of child-birth can be avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, which renders pliable all the parts, assisting nature in its work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this crisis in safety. $1.00 per bottle of book of information to women sent free. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO. Atlanta, Ga.

Lace Curtain Sale THIS WEEK AT Miller, Stewart & Beaton's 413-15-17 South 16th Street

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulcers, fibroids, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, nervous prostration. Why don't you try it? Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

FOUR GIRLS Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Read What They Say. Miss Lillian Ross, 526 East 84th Street, New York, writes: "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured my nervous headaches, after everything else had failed to help me, and I feel it only let others know of it." Katharine Craig, 2505 Lafayette St., Denver, Col., writes: "Thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's 'Vegetable Compound' for months from nervous prostration." Miss Marie Stolzman, of Laurel, Ia., writes: "I was in a run-down condition, suffering from depression, indigestion, and poor circulation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me well and strong."