October Our Business Birthday

The celebration of our Twentieth Business Birthday will be made an occasion of more than usual interest to our friends and customers.

A long service is proof of good service.

In the twenty years that Browning, King & Co. have been in Omaha a majority of the well-dressed men and boys in this city have found this out.

We continue, as we began, to give the best values to be had anywhere in clothing, furnishings and hats.

The precise date of the opening of this store, the 25th, falling on Sunday—we will celebrate the occasion on Saturday and Monday, October 24th and 26th.

To all our men friends making purchases on these two days we will give a handsome leather card case, and to our lady friends and customers a beautiful potted fern.

We invite you all to assist us in celebrating our birthday on Saturday and Monday next.

They then opened the safe and took $125 in cash.

There is no clue to the guilty parties. The work was done during the storm.

INSTALLATION OF DR. CHERRY

Services Held at Ponca on Behalf of Former Omahaan.

PONCA, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special)—A large congregation gathered to witness the installation of the Rev. Joseph B. Chery, Ph. D., as pastor of the Presbyterian church of Ponca last night. The Lutheran, Methodist and Baptist congregations of the city adjourned their prayer meetings to attend the service.

Dr. Chery's work is opening with splendid prospects and the people of Ponca are very much encouraged. The fraternal relations between the various churches of Ponca are such as to inspire good hope for the cause of Christianity here. Church federation is already in practical operation in this field. The order of services was as follows:

Reading of Scripture—Rev. A. E. Deltz, Pastor—Rev. H. G. Langley, Secretary—Prayer—Rev. W. C. Osborne, Moderator of Niagara presbytery.

Solo—Mr. Pearl Barker.

Charge to the Pastor—Rev. A. V. Weil, Randolph, Neb.

Charge to the People—Rev. J. M. Caldwell, Chicago, Neb.

Officer Fights with Prisoner.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special)—The arrest and detention of a supposed crook, in an injured condition, the slight injury of George Keys, a specially deputized officer, and the escape of the man's pals, was the result of a fight in a closed cab between the officer and the men here today.

The men had been arrested in the proscribed district, where they had been attempting to sell some cloth, believed to have been stolen. The police officer in charge was engaged in the search for two other men and deputized Keys, a hackman, to take the men to the city jail. Both strangers were handcuffed. A driver was secured and the drive to the city begun.

At the B. & M. crossing the two men assaulted the special officer. In the scuffle that resulted one of the men managed to free the manacles from his wrist. Jumped through the cab window and made his escape. The other was safely landed. He will be held pending further investigation. He is believed to be a member of a gang which committed a burglary at Shelton a short time ago. A similar robbery was also committed at Lexington recently.

Insurance Agent Arrested.

BEATRICE, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special Telegram)—C. D. Depass, who has been soliciting business in this vicinity for the American Accident Insurance company, was arrested last evening on a complaint sworn out by J. E. Austin, charging him with unlawfully soliciting accident insurance without a certificate from the state auditor. The complaint charges Depass with having received the premium on a $2,500 policy from J. A. Clarke without authority from the state auditor.

CLIFF, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special)—Many of the former democratic and populist voters who have been voting Bryan's paramount issue are coming out for Taft and prosperity and Sheldon for governor. Cliff will give a rousing majority for Taft, which was twelve years ago a Bryan hot bed. The farmer voters are satisfied with the prices they are receiving and will not trade prosperity for wind. At the republican speaking last night six Bryan voters took Taft buttons and declared their intentions to vote for Taft and Sheldon. Everything points to the election of the senatorial and representative ticket.

WEST POINT, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special).

The republicans of Cumby county were out in force last evening at Bemmer, the occasion being the crowning effort of the campaign. Hon. W. E. Andrews, former congressman, was the principal speaker of the evening. The opera house was filled with an interested audience. The speaker holding the closest attention in an address of over an hour and a half. The legal candidates were present and addressed the crowd, as also the candidate for county attorney, Mr. McLaughlin, the pastor of the Lutheran church, Rev. H. G. Langley, were present from West Point and Winer, a special passenger coach being provided by the railway company for the accommodation of the visitors from those places. The address of Mr. Andrews was a masterly effort, his arguments being trenchant and convincing and doubtless will have a material effect in the campaign, and the result will be a material reduction of the normal democratic majority which this county has polled in former years.

STELLA, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special).

Stella opera house's usual seating capacity with many additional chairs standing room, was filled to its utmost capacity last night to listen to Senator Burkett, who for more than one and one-half hours held the close attention of his hearers in a clear and full discussion of many of the political issues before the voter at this time. This was Mr. Burkett's first visit to this city and he more than filled the expectation of the people. Speaker Nettleton spoke for about thirty minutes, hurriedly going over the state issues in a plain, business like manner, while Dr. A. J. Jensen gave a short talk, these two gentlemen being before the people for reelection.

COURT UPHOLDS SUNDAY LAW

Highest Nebraska Tribunal Sustains Douglas County Judge.

OMAHA MEN ARE DENIED WRITS

Legal Test of Act Governing Sunday Closing Results Unfavorably to Those Opposed to This Policy.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 22.—The supreme court today sustained the legality of the Nebraska blue laws, forbidding almost all Sunday business transactions. The supreme court of Douglas county to grant a writ of habeas corpus for John Ryan, an Omaha cigar dealer, and Jacob Caldwell, an Omaha barber. These men were arrested under a state statute and the prohibition of the court becomes state wide.

TROUP AND DONAHUE TALK

Judge Not Surprised and Chief Will Do as Ordered.

"I am not surprised in the least at this decision of the supreme court. I was positive that I was right in my decision," said Judge Troup of the district court, who heard the cases, when shown the Associated Press dispatch from Lincoln. "There is no law on the statute books that has been so uniformly upheld by the supreme benches of the several states as has this Sunday closing law. Just what this decision of the supreme court covers I, of course, do not know. It may mean the closing down of everything and again it may allow newboys to sell papers and the street car company to run its cars.

"If the people in this day have advanced ideas and take a broader view of things, and this Sunday closing law has become obnoxious, the only thing to do is to repeal it. That is the part of the legislature. All laws are to be enforced, the blue laws' will be the order."

The petitions for writs of habeas corpus presented by John Ryan and Jacob Caldwell were heard by Judge Troup and denied by him. Writs of this sort are not granted because of error in a lower court, but on the ground that the lower court did not have jurisdiction.

Chief of Police Donahue says that when he has received official notification of the finding of the supreme court and has been ordered by higher authority so to do, he will close up all places of business in the city of Omaha, even though a much larger force is necessary.

"The laws are to be enforced, whether the people like them or not," said the chief. "and if I am ordered to enforce them I will do so to the best of my ability."

Sheriff Bralley said he would see to the carrying out of the law in the country towns and villages where it has been violated.

"I do not believe in any religious law," said L. B. Johnson, president of the council and acting mayor in the absence of Mayor Dahlman, "and I look on these blue laws as religious measures. You keep Sunday as the Sabbath day, I keep Saturday as that day. If this law were to be enforced I believe it ought to be enforced on Saturday, the seventh day, when the scriptures say we shall rest and keep holy, I am not in favor of enforcing this law."

We succeeded. This is a men's and boys' store that is attractive to ladies.

Get these three harmless ingredients and mix this recipe yourself. There are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause. When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish kidneys have failed to eliminate, having it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering; frequently resulting in deformity; often reaching the brain, when death ensues.
