Argentina reports played a large factor in the wheat market and higher cables coupled with builtsh news caused good buying on the start.

It was a noticeable fact that for several days the market has been bare of offerings despite the liberal receipts. There are continuous dry seeding reports from hroughout the winter wheat belt. Wheat started strong and advanced casily on good buying at the opening.

Confirmed frost reports in Argentina and further bullish news throughout the winter wheat section and dry seeding reports proved the main factors in the advance December wheat opened at 20%c and closed at 20%c. Corn open firm and higher on firmer cables and light receipts, but refused to advance with wheat, owing to slack demand and more liberal offerings in the country for new crop shipments.

December corn opened at 55%c and closed at 55%c.

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade. CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—News from Argentina was again the chief factor in the local wheat market and caused a sharp upturn in prices today. Although all of the gain was not maintained, the market closed firm, with prices up 14c to 15c. Corn.

and provisions were easy, wheat market was strong all day, although sentiment in the pit was less bull-ish during the final hour. At the opening the market was influenced by an advance of % to % pence in Laverpool, which, it was said, was due to lighter offerings from was said, was due to lighter offerings from Argentina and to late dispatches from Rosario, which claimed that the damage by frost to the Argentina erop would probably reach as high as 10 per cent of the total yield. The market here was also affected by an estimate made by European crop statisticians on the amount of wheat to be shipped from Argentina this week, this authority claiming that the exports this authority claiming that the experts this week would be much less than was indicated by previous advices. An active demand for cash wheat in the northwest and southwest also tended to strengthen the market here. Minneapolis houses reported that cash wheat premiums there had advanced to 25c over the December delivery, the highest premiums paid this season, while Duluth reported thirty boat loads taken for export. Weather conditions in this country, which apparently had little effect early in the day, caused some selling late in the session. Rain was again predicted in sections of the winter wheat belt, which, if it meterializes, will promote fall plowing. The market reacted about 1/2 from the high point during the last hour, but closed firm, with December at 30% and May at $1.03%. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 541,000 bu. Primary receipts were 1,00,000 bu, compared with 50,000 the corresponding day a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of cell cars, against $73 last week and 378 a year ago.

The corn market became quite weak late in the session, the close being at the bottom point on mearly all deliveries. Prices at the close were $4,50\forall to $40 below the previous close, with final quotations on December $3\forall o and on May $2\forall 50\forall contract grade.

Oats were firm early because of talk of a 'deal' in the May delivery on the part of a leading trader. Selling later in the day by this same dealer, however, dispelled visions of a 'corner' and caused free selling by local traders which resulted in moderate weakness. Cash oats were steady to be higher. The market closed easy, with December the lower at This. Receipts, I'll cars.

Provisions weak. An advance of 6610c in live hogs seemed to have no effect. Prices at the close were 24c to 106124c lower.

Local confirmation of this report was lacking, but a substantial expansion to demand from consumers was reported and some heavy sales were said to have been effected at a firm price. An item of the day's news that had a cheering influence was the purchase of some large orders of print cloth for future delivery from the New England mills. Rains in the west were of good effect, although the lack of them in the Ohio valley was still an influence in strengthening the wheat market.
