DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Ante-Election Lassitude is General in Commercial World.

DECREASE IN IDLE MACHINERY

Collections Are Improving in Farming Sections—Large Orders for Iron and Steel Expected After Election.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

Ante-election lassitude is general in the commercial world, especially as to the placing of contracts for undertakings, but there is a gratifying decrease in idle machinery at manufacturing plants, testifying to confidence in a good demand when the present uncertainty is over. Lack of rain has been a serious drawback, low water retarding mill work and river shipments, while winter wheat is getting a poor start and forest fires cause great damage. Collections improve in farming sections as the crops are sold, but are still only fair on the whole. Considering the amount of business in the iron and steel industry that is

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Approach of Election Breeds Conservatism in Buying.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Retail trade still reflects the influence of warm weather and the approach of election breeds conservatism in the northwest buying and projection of new enterprises. However, there is more doing and more confidence in buying of raw material by manufacturers, who apparently forecast a change for the better in the latter part of this year of the early part of next. The large movement of wheat to market is responsible for the optimistic tenor of reports from the distributive centers in the northwest. Effects of the drought are shown in the Ohio, live and live tributaries, the holding up of large quantities of coal along that stream and prevalence of destructive forest fires and the low stage of water supplies. Reports as to collections vary, being best in the northwest and poorest at the south. Business failures in the United States for the week ending October 23 number 221, as against 244 last week, 230 in the like week of 1907. Business failures in Canada number eighty-one, which compares with twenty-nine last week and thirty-nine this week last year. Wheat, including flour, exports from the United States and Canada for the week ending October 23 aggregate $1,732,221, as against $1,687,027 last week and $1,700,539 this week last year. The seventeen weeks ended October 23 this year, the exports are $6,280,765 bu., as against $5,175,105 in the corresponding period last year. Corn exports for the week are 284,417 bu., as against 262,083 last week and 79,122 in 1907. For the seventeen weeks ended October 23 the corn exports are 1,010,653 bu., as against 1,008,801 in the same period last year.

night at Anselmo Mr. Ryder addressed a large and appreciative audience. On Monday night N. T. Gadd and H. W. George were at the Rice school house, about eight miles west of Merna, and on the night of October 21 were at the Robinson school house, south of Arnold.

The farmers are giving more attention to politics this year than they have for several years and there is no falling away by republicans.

Republican Club at McCook.

MCCOOK, Neb., Oct. 23.—(Special.)—A republican club was organized in McCook tonight, with an initial membership of 20 members. W. C. Allison was chosen president and Lloyd Jennings secretary of the organization. The club has taken hold of the local situation with an earnest and vigor which spells success in capital letters, and indicates that McCook and Red Willow county will be there with the goods for Taft and the entire republican ticket in November.

Max Baehr Reaches Home.

ST. PAUL, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Max J. Baehr, the American consul at Cienfuegos, Cuba, is here on his annual vacation visiting his old home and large circle of friends, who are glad to see him. Consul Baehr has made a splendid record as an efficient and faithful diplomatist in a position where the difficulties certainly have been great, and we understand that he is in line for further promotion. Howard county is proud of its able citizen and wishes him well in whatever post he may undertake. Mr. Baehr's family, who have been residing in this city, will join him the coming year, as the sanitary conditions at his post are now considered fairly safe.

Tribe of Ben Hur. He leaves a wife and one little child.

FREMONT—The political situation in this county is still quiet, but the voters are beginning to pay more attention to the campaign and the school house meetings especially are more largely attended. Dodge county has not given a democratic majority for a presidential candidate for twelve years and the county committee most express themselves as confident that the record will be kept up.

WYOMORE—There are two cases of diphtheria in the city. One was supposed to be under strict quarantine, but the other day permission was given Dan Pauver and his boy to go out and stack corn near his house, in which there is a case of the disease. Pauver was found down town getting lumber later that day and now there is a mild scare prevailing, although physicians say there is not at this time much danger of infecting the city.

WYOMORE—Park Commissioner A. D. McCandless is planning to plant foliage and flower beds in the various city parks next spring. In two parks, McCandless and Furnas, there are about eleven acres of ground and there are just an even 100 trees growing there. Next year, it is thought, the trees will be large enough that the parks may be thrown open to the public, a project long considered to have a big lake and driveway constructed in Arbor State park. This plot contains thirty-two acres.

WOMEN SEE SWIMMING EXHIBIT

Interesting Program Given at the Y. M. C. A.

For the first time since the new home of the Young Men's Christian association was occupied, the women friends of the members were given an opportunity Thursday evening to witness the sports enjoyed in the swimming pool. Numerous expert exhibitions of plain and fancy strokes, diving, treading and floating, with a few exciting water polo matches, were witnessed by fully 150 men and women.

From the time eighteen of the association's crack tank men entered and dived into the plunge all at one time, making
