HARTMAN'S

1414-16-18 Douglas Street

SOME people opened their eyes last Sunday when they followed up our tip and compared the offerings of various furniture stores. We knew they would—and no wonder. Our prices were lower in every instance—in many cases 25% lower—in some cases a full third under the lowest prices of any other concern. They found every article in the store priced on an equal basis, too. So we urge you again to make comparisons. Don't spend a cent for Furniture, Stoves or Rugs until you have our prices on the goods. We'll save you from 25% to 50% or we won't expect you to spend a dollar with us.

IS YOUR NOSE YOUR MISFORTUNE

"IN DOMESTIC, BUSINESS, SOCIAL OR PROFESSIONAL LIFE, IMPROVED PERSONAL APPEARANCE HAS BECOME A MODERN DAY NECESSITY."

A nose the most prominent feature of the face.

NO CUTTING
NO BANDAGES
NO LOST TIME

How often we fail to appreciate our own facial defects and yet instantly notice them in others. Every man and every woman owes it to himself or herself to look as well as possible.

Harmony of features is as essential to good looks as is harmony of notes to a chord of music, and often this harmony is ruined by an ugly nose or feature—sometimes the defect being very slight.

A conspicuous or irregular nose, lip or ear is to the face like a misplaced note in a chord of music.

Consultation is free either personally or by letter.

Mrs. Paul Bureleigh will give a bridge luncheon next Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Frank Harwood, one of the recent brides.

Comis Club.
The Comis club was entertained Thursday afternoon at luncheon and cards by Mrs. Henry Aabel. Halloween decorations prevailed. A large pumpkin filled with fruit formed the centerpiece for the table and favors to match were at each plate. The prizes for high five were won by Mrs. D. E. Loveloy and Mrs. J. A. Stowell. The guests of the club included Mrs. Stowell, Mrs. J. R. Moore, Mrs. J. P. Webster, Mrs. H. C. Pilgrim and Mrs. D. W. Tillotson.

Luncheon Party.
Mrs. Lester Drishaus, who is one of the brides, gave a unique luncheon Wednesday afternoon at her new home on Thirty-fifth avenue. She invited twelve recent brides and each one brought a sample of her own cooking. The centerpiece for the table was a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Those present were Mesdames Homer Shearer, J. TEXAS CLUB WOMEN OBJECT
Protest Against Working Women Prisoners on Fort Worth Rock Pile.
The club women of Texas are making an indignant protest because women prisoners have recently been set at work on the rock pile at Fort Worth. They say that since women are not allowed to have an equal voice with men in making the laws which they are forced to obey or to act as jurors they should not receive the same punishment meted out to men for the same crime. They point to the success with which Miss Hery managed women criminals while police matron of San Antonio. She set the women at work at the city hall. They cleaned the floors and windows and also did the laundry work for the city hospital. The women's club bought the necessary materials and she taught them to sew, and to make garments for themselves, and when they went out from the jail looking respectable, at least, and many of them showed their gratitude by refraining from repeating the offense for which they had been imprisoned.

ON THE TRAIL OF EDDIE FAY
Omaha Officers Are Looking for the Eminent King of Postoffice Robbers.
The federal and police authorities are on the lookout for the notorious Eddie Fay, the "king of the postoffice robbers," who has been operating in Wisconsin and northern Minnesota recently.

His last big haul was Monday night. It is believed, when he blew the safe of the Lake Nebagamon (Wis.) postoffice and got away with $4,000 in postoffice funds and stamps. Charles Dennis and Pat Flaherty are supposed to have been associated with him in the job. The previous big trick turned by this trio was at Superior, Wis., when they made a haul of $16,000 of postoffice funds and stamps by the usual method of safe blowing in 1903.

Flaherty and Dennis are known in Omaha, being associated, it was held, with "Chuck" Prince in the $5,000 fur robbery of Shukert's fur emporium in Omaha about ten years ago. Fay has never been known to operate in this immediate locality personally, though it is now thought by the postoffice authorities that he may have had something to do with the Denver registered mail pouch robbery of a year ago, as it bore some of the earmarks of his work.

Your Eyes Are All Right

if you do belong to "a race of spectacle-wearers"—so says Woods Hutchinson, M.D., in the November WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION, and he ought to know. Listen to this: "The modern eye is not degenerate; it is as good a piece of optical apparatus as any that walks or swims or flies." Then he goes on and tells in a very practical way just what we can do to assist Nature—facts that every pair of eyes should read. Such an article from such an authority commands a high place among the good things in

of WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION—a big jubilee magazine containing seven great stories by seven famous authors, the royal love story of the Czarina of Russia, and page after page of old-fashioned Thanksgiving cheer—all and more in the November
