Must Not Lay Down. NEW YORK, Oct. M .- Joe Gans has been signed to meet Tommy Murphy before the new Pole Athletic club in this city the latter part of this month. If the bout is dition has only one peer. He is "Battling" Nelson, and in a short bout even Nelson Banio before the "old master" of the ring, providing, of course, that everything connected with the match was "up and above board." The fact that Gans has againtaken Al Herford as his manager makes New York enthusiasts suspicious. Had Gans come on unattended and arranged matches with the boys here. New York's fans would have thought more of him.

Jim Buckley, who has signed up Gans and Murphy, and a refere and promotor of bexing whose record is untarnished, declares that the contest will be a square outlook there will be plenty of one.
