TALK OF COMMISSION PLAN

Lincoln Business Men Talk over the Project at a Banquet.

POLLARD'S PROSPECTS BRIGHT

City Attorney Steward Wants Another Assistant to Handle Police Court Business, but Council Inclined to Balk.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Oct. 27.—(Special.)—Lincoln is much impressed with the proposition of having a city government by commission and tonight an enthusiastic meeting of business men was held at the Lincoln hotel to discuss the matter.

Several delegations have been to Des Moines and other places and brought back reports favorable to the commission plan. A member of the Des Moines commission government was the guest of honor at the dinner at the Lincoln hotel tonight and told of the satisfactory working of the plan there.

Lincoln owns its own electric light and water plants and it is argued by the business men that it would be better for the city and the taxpayers if the commission plan were adopted.

Pollard's Prospects Bright. Reports being received at the headquarters of Congressman Pollard indicate that he will surpass his majority of 2,800 next Tuesday. Congressman Pollard stands sixth in the agricultural committee in congress and this being strictly an agricultural district he will get a tremendous vote. Secretary Wilson and Congressman Scott, chairman of the committee on agriculture, both have been in the district and have attested to the worth of Mr. Pollard in congress. The first district congressman is also on the sub-committee which gets up the appropriation bill and as a member of such committee he is of great benefit to the district.

City Attorney Wants Help. City Attorney Steward is anxious for the city council to give him another assistant whose sole duties will be to look after the police court business. It was expected the matter would be decided by the council last night, but it wasn't. In fact, the proposition is being generally opposed.

The city attorney has the same number of assistants as the county attorney, and yet Mr. Steward is not asking for help. This county attorney spends more than five days in the courts in one spent by the city attorney in his city court business. It has been figured that the police court business could be done on an average in one hour a day, the saving of the last, the cut after all the business of his office, but still finds time to do a big law business on the side. Some have suggested that if the city attorney would devote just a little less time to his own law business he would have no difficulty in looking after the city business, or if he preferred not to do that, could, under the ruling of the supreme court, resign his office. As long as the county attorney gets along with one assistant it is believed the city attorney will be forced to do the same. The city attorney receives $1,800 a year and his assistant $1,200. The work can be done in police court in one hour a day.

Outlook Good in Boone. ALBION, Neb., Oct. 27.—(Special.)—A great republican rally was held at the opera house here last night, which was addressed by Norris Brown and Mr. Brewster, candidate for state senator. Congressman Boyd was from St. Edward ill. There was a crowded house to listen to the discourse of Senator Brown and the republicans feel that he did a lot of good here for their cause. The conditions here look as if Taft would poll about the same vote that Roosevelt did four years ago and the bets are easy that Taft will carry Nebraska.

Republican Club at Scotia. SCOTIA, Neb., Oct. 27.—(Special.)—Scotia has a strong republican club, full of enthusiasm for state and national tickets. Many sensible men of other parties, having wholesome fear of Bryan and his policies, have united with the republicans and declared for Taft and continued good times. Good speakers will be secured and a final grand rally will close the campaign at this short Saturday night.

The Lehigh Concert band has been engaged to furnish music for the occasion and the rally is being looked forward to with much enthusiasm. The Taft club at this place is constantly growing in membership.

CAMPAIGN OUT IN STATE

Hastings Holds the Biggest Rally so Far in Fifth District.

BIG CROWD COMES FROM MCCOOK

Congressman Pollard Waking Things Up in His District—Other Portions of State Show Republican Activity.

HASTINGS, Neb., Oct. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—Republican activity in the Fifth district reached a climax tonight in a spontaneous demonstration that eclipsed any former event of the campaign. The manifestation was brought about in reply for the congressional candidates, Congressman Norris, but it grew to a general celebration for all the party ticket. The feature of the demonstration was the participation of 500 visitors from points west along the Burlington, most of whom came on a special train that left McCook Nebraska at 9:30 o'clock. The train arrived here at 3:30 in the afternoon and unloaded 425 passengers, all wearing Taft buttons and Norris ribbons. The delegation was headed by the McCook band, one of the finest musical organizations in the state. Many gentlemen from the west came on a regular train, arriving here about noon.

An impromptu parade was formed at the depot following the arrival of the special, with fully 500 out-of-town persons in line. Tonight there was a much longer procession, the visitors being augmented by hundreds of local republicans. There was a plethora of fireworks and red fire and an abundance of music. The rally crowded the opera house to its limit. President J. S. Norris presided at the meeting and introduced Judge Norris with brief formality.

Judge Norris emphasized the necessity of electing a republican house if republican policies are to be continued and also declared that with republican congress there should be a republican president. He was warmly cheered throughout his address. The Fifth district congressional committee met this afternoon for the consideration of reports from the various counties. These reports reflected a favorable condition. The committee reported that within the last two weeks there has been an awakening throughout the district that indicates the re-election of Norris by a large majority. They also united in declaring that the Fifth district will do its duty in carrying the banner for Taft, Sheldon and the republican ticket generally. From a democratic source a report was circulated this afternoon that the McCook special train was furnished gratis by the Burlington. The falsity of this was quickly proven, for all the passengers paid a regular fare. Conductors were aboard and collected tickets and fares in the usual way.

MCCOOK, Neb., Oct. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—One hundred and fifty enthusiastic McCookites, together with the McCook band, in the Norris chartered train to Hastings this morning to hear Congressman Norris speak in the Hastings opera house tonight. This number was augmented along the way between here and Hastings to over 400.

STAMPA, Neb., Oct. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—In a signed statement put out today Hon. Charles Woodruff says: "I shall not vote for James P. Latta, democratic candidate for congress in the Third district, chiefly because during his primary campaign he secured a poll of his district under the false pretense that it was for Bryan, when as a matter of fact it was for himself, and because he did not include the cost of that poll in his sworn statement of expenses to the secretary of state. I will not vote for a democrat if I know it."

POLLARD AT TALMAGE. TALMAGE, Neb., Oct. 27.—(Special.)—Congressman Pollard spoke here last evening to a large and appreciative audience. The hall was completely filled and many were compelled to stand.

BEATRICE—The charge of the democrats that the republicans have stolen their railroad and trust regulation policies from the democrats is false because the original act creating the Interstate Commerce commission was passed by the republicans in 1887. Since the law passed in 1898 was simply an amendment restoring to the commission the power to fix a reasonable rate and enforce it. It was thought that the commission had this power when the republicans took the matter up and to restore the sentiment of the business interests of the country rather than the financial interests, and should the convention be called the needs of currency reform will be discussed from the standpoint of the business men rather than from that of the bankers.

ROBERT R. LEWIS, Atlantic association commissioner in China for American business, will be in Omaha November 29, and has been invited by the Commercial club to speak before its members on the subject of "Business Conditions in the Far East." Mr. Lewis and G. J. Ingwersen of the South Omaha Live Stock exchange were elected to membership in the Commercial club at the meeting of the executive committee of that organization Tuesday noon.

NATIONAL CURRENCY REFORM

Convention in New York Invites Omaha Commercial Club and It Accepts.

The Commercial club of Omaha has accepted an invitation from the New York Business Men's association to participate in a National Currency Reform convention, should one be called after a preliminary meeting in New York, November 29.

The Commercial club will not participate in the meeting in November, which is to determine whether such a convention should be called, but the executive committee has sent word to the New York business men that the Omaha organization will participate in such a convention should it be called. It is understood the convention is to be held in New York, which is to reflect the sentiment of the business interests of the country rather than the financial interests, and should the convention be called the needs of currency reform will be discussed from the standpoint of the business men rather than from that of the bankers.

ROBERT R. LEWIS, Atlantic association commissioner in China for American business, will be in Omaha November 29, and has been invited by the Commercial club to speak before its members on the subject of "Business Conditions in the Far East." BRYAN MAN MISSES POINT Takes Bet If Bryan Wins Banks Will Close Four Months After Inauguration.

Here is a bet actually made and taken down at the Merchants' hotel: Republican—I'll bet that if Bryan is elected 50 per cent of the national banks of the United States will be closed four months to the day after Bryan takes the oath of office.

Democrat—I'll take the bet. And $10 was put up by each man. The affair created much amusement and the ardent Bryan man had left the hotel apparently in blissful forgetfulness that the Fourth of July always comes just four months to the day after the 4th of March and that, despite Mr. Bryan's hallooing during his anti-imperialism campaign eight years ago, Independence day is still celebrated as a holiday.

GENEROUS GIFT TO SUFFRAGE

College President Objects to Introducing Domestic Arts Into Curriculum of Institutions for Higher Education.

The delegation from the local Young Women's Christian association to the convention of the state association held at Grand Island Friday, Saturday and Sunday returned last evening. It is expected that one and possibly another of the national secretaries in attendance at the convention will visit the Omaha association Tuesday and a luncheon will be served for them in the association rooms by the Board of Directors.

The house committee has announced a banquet to be given November 30 and the proceeds to go to furnishing the new building. The committee, which includes representatives from all the churches, hopes to make this one of the big feasts of the winter. Orchard & Wilhelm have granted space on their main floor for the sale and friends of the association are contributing the articles to be sold.

National Suffrage Meeting. Speaking of the convention of the National Woman Suffrage association held recently at Buffalo the Women's Journal says:

The event that spread more joy among the delegates than any other one thing took place on the afternoon devoted to raising the money for the coming year's work. College girls had the places in the needs of the association and Mrs. Upton, with her genial and jovial appeals, had turned the last dollar out of the pockets of the state delegations, and we were still short of the mark. Mrs. George Howard Lewis came to the rescue with a magnificent sum of $10,000, which fairly took the convention by its heels and filled everybody with rejoicing.

The growing tendency to incorporate domestic science and arts into the curriculum of colleges and universities for women seems likely to suffer a temporary setback or, at least, to encounter some opposition from members of the faculty of several educational institutions who believe that these subjects have no place in institutions for higher education. They point out that there is not time for them and that their teaching is not consistent. Miss Mary Carey Thomas, president of Bryn Mawr, said recently:

The tendency nowadays is to throw the entire responsibility on teachers, instead of mothers. College girls are not the places in which to train a girl in every detail of her home duties and to specialize as sociologists suggest.

Announcements. Under the auspices of the Omaha Women's Christian Temperance union the Democratic club will give a musical and literary entertainment Thursday evening, October 29 at Emmanuel Baptist church, Twelfth and Pinkney streets. Harold Thon will speak on "The Court of Last Appeals" and E. E. Thomas on "Reforms of the Day."

The Presbyterian women's quarterly union missionary meeting will be held Wednesday, October 23, at the Presbyterian church in Florence. Devotional service will be held at 11 o'clock and luncheon will be served at noon. A program will be given in the afternoon and Miss Glenn, formerly of Japan, will be the principal speaker.

Musical Department. The musical department of the Woman's club will hold its first meeting of the fall Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the club rooms. A miscellaneous program will be given under the direction of the department leader, Miss Blanche Sorenson. The department will continue its plan followed last year of admitting members upon the payment of $2 for the season. This is a special membership and admits its holders to no other privileges of the Woman's club.
