McFarland's Death a Mystery

Mother at Cedar Falls Knows of No

Circumstance Warranting Action.

CEDAR FALLS, Ia., Oct. 28.—(Special)—

The news that S. C. McFarland had committed suicide while on a German train and near his home in Berlin, was received with universal sorrow and surprise here.

His mother, Mrs. Peter McEndy, and sister,

Mrs. Marion McFarland Walker, are residents of Cedar Falls and upon them the shock has fallen with heavy weight. In consequence the water all over flowed their land being half a foot deep in salt. Complaint was also made that the outet was not comble d as provided in the plans and specifications. The board announced that it would investigate both matters completely.

BIDS ON THREE NEW PROJECTS

Auditorium, Rest House in Parks and Swimmers.

Four bids for the construction of the auditorium and public sales building at the corner of Washington avenue and Bryant street were received yesterday by the Auditorium company. The bidders were E. A. Wickham, George F. Hughes,

C. C. Norgaard and W. B. Hughes.

The committee having the matter in charge decided to defer awarding the contract until late morning. The amounts of the bids were not made public.

Three bids were received yesterday by City Auditor McAneny as clerk of the Board of Park Commissioners for the building to be known as the "Rest House" which the commissioners propose erecting in Fairmount park. The bidders were E.

A. Wickham, C. Hafer and George Hughes.

As Commissioner J. J. Brown is one of the judges of election the board will not meet until Wednesday to open the bids.

Captain Brown stated yesterday that he was opposed to erecting any more buildings in Fairmount park or using the funds levied for the maintenance of the public parks for such purposes. Commissioner Graham, who suggested the erection of the auditorium, attended a meeting of the commissioners yesterday.
