BURGLARS RAID FUR STORE

Stole One Thousand Dollars Worth of Fine Wraps and Get Away.
Burglars in the store rooms of the Western Fur company, which occupies the second floor of the building at 112 South Sixteenth street and is owned by A. L. Kolovratsek of South Omaha, stole about $1,000 worth of the finest fur jackets and neck scarfs that were in the fur rooms and made a clean escape Wednesday night or early Thursday morning. The police were given full descriptions of the stolen goods and also of two men who are thought to have done the work.

Two theories of how the burglars operated have been advanced, one setting forth that entrance was gained to the second floor of the place through a rear window, while the idea of the owner of the establishment is that the burglars came to the store Wednesday afternoon about 2 o'clock as customers, asking the price of sable squirrel jackets, and that instead of leaving the place they hid among the stored fur goods till dark and then got away with the best specimens of various kinds of padded skins that Kolovratsek had.

Among the garments taken were eleven jackets made of electric seal, brook mink, beaver, Russian pony, sable squirrel, Persian lamb and other furs, and also six fine neck scarfs. The thieves also searched the cash drawer and took $150 in money. There was no burglar insurance on the goods or no watchman or other person in the establishment. Last December the same fur store was robbed of about $70 worth of goods, which were not recovered.

Married Man in Trouble.

A married man who permits any member of the family to take anything except Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung trouble is guilty of neglect. Nothing else is as good for all pulmonary troubles. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and is in a yellow package. Sold by all druggists.

Next Monday great sale Holiday Box Stationery, less than 50c on the Dollar.
A Friday Sale Tailored Suits
$19.50 Tailored Suits
$25.00 Tailored Suits
All Broken Lots Now $15

It's annoying to have a customer fall in love with a certain suit, then find that her size is missing. These broken lines cause disappointments at times in this manner. To avoid this as much as possible, we today have rummaged through all the suit stock, picked out all the one and two of a kind styles that were $19.50 and $25.00, and attached a $15 price tag to them. These are suits that never before were offered for so little. The styles and materials are simply superb. Most any size in the collection. If you find one to your liking you buy it Friday for only $15.

Once More, $15 Long Winter Coats

$3.95 These coats are of covert, plain cloth and fancy mixtures, good, heavy and warm. We carried them from last season, about 40 in all. The styles are loose and fitted and most desirable. To close them out Friday, choose any at $3.95.
