WOMAN'S REAL

Large Party at Chambers.

Metcalfe Entertains Inani Afternoon Tea Complientary to Her Guest, Mrs. Eddy of New York

LUNCHEON DOWNTOWN

es of dancing parties for this season at o'clock. istated by Mr. Ben Cotton, and some ost popular favor of the evening was the dance down the length of the ballroom while the other guests threw confetti, from Council Bluffs were present. which ended all formallty. Assisting at he favor tables were Mrs. S. D. Barkalow. drs. Ben Gallagher, Mrs. F. H. Davis and Isaac Congdon, assisted by Mr. J. E.

n and Mr. Isaac Congdon. ng the members of the club are Mr. Mrs. Ben Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kennedy, Mr. Mrs. Harry Wilkins, Mr. and Mrs. Westbrook, Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Smith, and Mrs. Edwin T. Swobe, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burns, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Wilam Hosford, Mr. and Mrs. George Red-Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kountze, Mr. and C. George, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. e. Mr. and Mrs. George Peek, Mr. and Arthur Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur d Mrs. Paul Hoagland, Mr. and Mrs. N. Mosher Colpetzer, Mesers. Robert as best man. The bride were a gown of durns, Frank Wilhelm, Lawrence Brinker, steel gray crepe, made princess, with trim-Wallace Lyman, Randall Brown, J. E. mings of white lace. Frank Haskell, Lee, McShane, Elimer Cope, Denise Barkalow, Paul Bea- at 9 o'clock a wedding supper was served ton, Will Schnorr, Aubrey Potter, Fred for the bridal party. Thomas, Joseph Baldrige, O. C. Redick. John Redick, Jack Baum, Paul Gallagher, iames Dixson, Taylor Belcher, Harry O'Neill, Waller Roberts, Edgar Morsman, Robert Morsman, Hal Yates, George Prinz, Harry Tukey, Stockton Heth, Ross Towle, day evening at the Burwood to see David protest, a good natured ridicule when a Stanley Ineson, C. D. Beaton, Lyman Peck, Warfield in the "Music Master," Mr. and radical change occurs in the millinery of Harry Tukey, Stockton Heth, Ross Towle, Wilfard Capon, Earl Gannett, Elmer Red- Mrs. H. P. Whitmore gave a box party fol- fashion, but even that soon dies out. The treasury of the Nebraska Woman Suffrage Eugene M. Bellar Addresses German ick, Richard Baum, Ben Gallagher, B. E.

pleased and satisfied with quality, finish and service.

combed cotton Vests, Pants,

Tights, Corset Covers ... $.50

nion Suits (all shapes) . . 1.00

Extra sizes. 1.25 b. 464—Heavy weight fleeced

combed cotton Vests, Pants,

Tights, Corset Covers. . . $.50

purchase in years. Always $1.50.

pare for colder days.

in fit and comfort.

Leis Westbrook, Dorothy Morgan, Mary | Alice Cudahy. In another party were Cap-Morgan, Marion Haller, Marion Connell, tain and Mrs. J. L. Hines and Captain and Miriam Patterson, Ruth Moorhead, Bess Mrs. R. I. Hamilton. Moorhead, Mary Alice Rogers, Helen Davis, Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. H. P. tillion Club Opens Season with Elizabeth Congdon, Sara Bourke, Loraine Whitmore will give another party, when Local Women Will Organize to Enter-Comstock, Mattie Robertson, Gertrade their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Hart of Moorhend, Jennie Wakefield, Ella Mae Council Bluffs and Mr. and Mrs. Harry

Bridge Luncheon.

Largest among Friday's affairs and one f the smartest parties of the month was the guests of honor, the other guests being he bridge luncheon given by Mrs. Carl Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cotton and Mr. and Mrs. Brandels and Mrs. D. M. Meyer in the A. J. Beaton. anquet room of the Hanson cafe. The handsome appointments of the room were supplemented by effective decorations on the tables, twenty of which were placed Cotillion club gave the first of its for the luncheon, which was served at 1 of Mrs. J. H. Shary. The guests present Sventy-five guests were present. numbers' academy Thursday evening. The and following the luncheon the afternoon dillion was led by Mr. Denise Barkaiow, was devoted to bridge, several handsome prizes being awarded.

Informal Tea.

Mrs. J. M. Metcaif was hostess at a deand mirror decorated with a picture at lightful and informal afternoon tea Friday ne side. In one of the figures, the young in honor of her guest, Mrs. Eddy en stood in a row and the young women of New York City, who leaves Sunday for Mrs. B. B. Baker, Mrs. J. H. Shary, Mrs. ose their partners by flashing an auto Arkansas to visit enroute home. Mrs. mp upon the one with whom they wished Metcalf and Mrs. Eddy received their An attractive feature of the guests from 4 to 6 o'clock. The guests centing was the grand march at the close were restricted to old friends of Mrs. nd as the guests passed the favor table Eddy, who formerly lived in Council Bluffs. hey were each given a beg of confetti and American Beauties were used in decorating small brush and then each couple had the dining room, where Mrs. Clarence Richmond Day poured tea. A number of guests

Hostery Shower.

Miss Helen Riepen gave a hostery shower Friday evening at her home in honor of Miss Lavina Shorter, who will be one of the November brides. A color scheme of pink and white was used in leave Sunday for Arkansas to visit rela-Mrs. T. L. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Louis white wedding bells was used. The York City. guests included Miss Shorter. Miss Miss Ethel Klewit, Miss Laura Herr and Fred Shorter and Mrs. C. H. T. Rlepen.

Lee-Woodside. The wedding of Miss Marie Woodside and Joseph Barker, jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. H. wood. Kinsier, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Clarke, Mr. | Wood, at the Albion, on South Tenth Dodge, ir., Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Millard, Madge Woodside was maid of honor and and Mrs. Frederick Lake, Mr. and wore a blue silk gown. Mr. Al Kenner acted

> A reception followed the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee will be at home after November 15, at 2706 Burt street.

A few theater parties were given Thurs-

hos. Kilpatrick

Hosiery and Underwear of the right sort, shown in profuse variety. A dependable department whose pre-eminence

Hosiery Sale Saturday

An extensive assortemnt of women's fine lisle imported hosierv. A New York jobber's open stock of embroidered, lace and plain goods of the quality retailing at $1, pr., 63c

Underwear That Gives

Satisfaction in Every Particular undergarments, the greater our confidence that you will be

"Merode" (Hand Underwear

the land, who recognize its superiority in every essential of ials and weights, in a wide range of sizes, insuring perfection

We feature a few examples for your selection: -

No. $65-Medium weight finest, No. 566-Light weight Merino

Gloves for Men

Special Starting at 10 O'clock.

brown, tan and beaver. All sizes. The most fortunate glove

Saturday at 10 A. M., 98c a Pair.

Thos. Kilpatrick & Co.

A lot of fine Mochas, the popular soft finish, in grey,

Enjoy the convenience of this charming weather to pre-

White Vests, Pants, Tights.

at $.85

Union Suits (all shapes) . . 1.65

50% wool White and Natural

Vests, Pants, Tights....$1.00

Union Suits (all shapes) .. 1.50

Extra sizes 2.00

No. 671-Heavy weight Merino,

It is worn by thousands of American women, all over

We offer you "MERODE" garments in all styles, mater-

The more critical you are about the fit and quality of is recognized by Omaha's discerning shoppers.

Burkley. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keeline will also give a box party Saturday evening. when Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wharton will be Bridge Party.

Mrs. H. B. Ransdell entertained at bridge Friday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. Herbert Bell of Sault Ste. Marie, guess L. Hart, Mrs. Harry Miller, Mrs. W. A. Pixley, Mrs. William Pressler, Mrs. J. O. Mrs. Wahl, Mrs. J. Klausner, Mrs. Muser, Miss Daisy Jankowski, Mrs. Clemment, Bellman and Mrs. Ransdell.

Birthday Celebration.

party Wednesday evening in celebration of several invitations from the larger cities her forty-ninth birthday. The evening was with heated contests for the award. spent in music and games and those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Graves, Mr. the convention for three years, but had and Mrs. C. M. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Ar- hardly expected recognition before 1910, bethur A. Finzi, Mrs. M. F. Harris, Mrs. G. cause the last two meetings have been held W. Buck, Mrs. Ellen Rocho.

Come and Go Gossip. much entertained during her visit, will

Whitmore is visiting Mrs. Shirk. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Weller are at the Col-

NEW HATS ARE HUGE AND LOW "Extreme," "Absurd," "Hideous," "Ridiculous," "Charming," All

Faithful Descriptions. The comparative severity with which the changing fashions in headgear are accepted inclines one to believe that the general public has cultivated its bump of philosophy at the expense of its sense of humor To be sure, there is always a little mild lowed by supper at the Omaha club, their woman who insisted that she never would-Tilson, J. W. Madden, B. Wood, Frank guests being Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wattles no, never-gives another illustration of the and Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Caldwell. In an- "first endure, then pity, then embrace" other box were Mrs. E. A. Cudahy, Mrs. F. formula and makes up for lost time by uh were Misses Jean Cudahy, Bess Baum, P. Kirkendall, Miss Florence and Miss being a bit more radical than her sisters in her acceptance of the new mode.

All of which is not a prelude to the assertion that the hats of the new season are hideous. On the contrary, they are more charming hats than usual, but some of them are amusing, and many of them are are plenty of exceptions to this last rule.

EVERYTHING FOR THE DINNER Turkeys Are Scarce and High, but

Other Things Are Reasonable.

Possibilities for the Thanksgiving dinner, or for any other kind of dinner, are unlim ited just now. The local market abounds in good things and even the most exacting housewife should be able to gratify almost any whim. Almost anything in fruits may be had, the big English hothouse grapes being in now, though they sell for $1 a pound. Pineapples are in again this week and sell for 35 and 40 cents each. Malaga grapes are 20 cents a pound and Tokay rapes 10 cents. Concord grapes will be atlable until Thanksgiving, and with anges, beautiful red apples and this aspriment of fruit the table should not want uts are in and sell for 40 cents a pound the shell. Pumpkins for decorative purposes, or for pies, are to be had and plenty of them, and they sell from 15 to 25 cents each. Sweet potatoes are 25 cents a peck and Irish potatoes from 65 to 90 cents a bushel, Among the other things to be had are Head lettuce at 10 and 13% cents each; leaf ettuce at 5 cents a bunch, cucumbers to and 10 cents each, cabbage 5 and 10 cents each, radishes 25 cents a dozen, egg plant from 15 to 50 cents each, summer squash cents each, Hubbard squash from 15 to r an attractive centerpiece. Black wala pound. Creamery butter is selling this week at 28 and 32 cents a pound and the tub butters from 15 to 30 cents a pound. Eggs are from 25 to 30 cents a dozen,

25 cents each and Bermuda onions 10 cents

Turkeys are coming in slowly and are hard to get, so the price is up. They are selling now at wholesale for 25 cents a pound. Spring chickens are Ilia cents a pound and hens 11 cents, ducks 14 cents. goese 13 cents and squabs from $3.50 to $4

Desperate Shooting in the chest require quick treatment with Dr. King's New Discovery. Prevents pneumonia. 50c and $1.00. For sale by

Beaton Drug Co. By using the various departments of The Bee Want Ad pages you get the best results

tain National Convention. SUFFRAGISTS MEET AT LINCOLN

Woman's Christian Association Will Hold Thanksgiving Donation Party for Benefit of Old

People's Home.

The acceptance of Nebraska's invitation to hold the next annual convention of the National Women's Christian Temperance union in Omaha has placed a big responsi-Yelser, Miss O'Connor, Mrs. William War- bility upon the shoulders of the women of ner, Mrs. C. E. Coons, Mrs. Allen Parmer, the state as well as of Omaha. The con-Mrs. Joel Wright, Mrs. Harry Hayward, vention is big; one of the largest gatherings of women held in this country, its voting strength averaging 1,000, and besides the delegates hundreds of other visiting women and men also attend its session. Naturally such a meeting does not want for places Friends of Mrs. H. C. Stalder gave a of entertainment, and there are always

Omaha women have been trying to ge in the middle west and Milwaukee had a strong claim. Mrs. Stevens, national presi-Mrs. Eddy, who has been the guest of dent, and some of the other national offi-Mrs. J. M. Metcalf and who has been cers were guests at the state meeting at Lincoln last year, where they learned through evidences more convincing than the appointments and also a decoration of tives before returning to her home in New official reports of the active work being done in Nebraska for temperance by the Mrs. H. P. Whitmore returned home unions. At that time Mrs. Stevens sug-Leah Mandelberg, Miss Sarah Shearer, Miss Thursday morning after spending the sum- gested that if an invitation came from the Grace Shaeffer, Miss Alice Woodworth, mer abroad, Mr. Whitmore returned a few entire state to the Denver meeting it would on sale in two lots, weeks ago and Mrs. Whitmore had been probably be accepted. The invitation was Miss Minnie Herr of Council Bluffs, Miss visiting in New York City and in Dunkirk, sent and was seconded by all the women's Marie Donnelly, Miss Sadie Lesser of San N. Y., as the guest of Mrs. Henrietta Scott, organizations of Omaha, the Commercial Francisco, Cal.; Mrs. Lee Hoerner, Mrs. and in Tipton, Ind., where Miss Eugenie club, Ministerial union and other associations of men.

The entertainment of such a gathering lingwood hotel in New York City. Mr. and is a big undertaking, however, and a local Mr. and Mrs. Clair Baird, Mr. and Oscar L. Lee took place Wednesday noon Mrs. S. E. Stevens are also at the Colling- committee will be formed soon to make the preliminary arrangements.

Mrs. J. M. Metcalf leaves Monday evening; Both the Omaha and Frances Willard street, Rev. G. W. Wright officiating. Miss for New York City, to be gone three weeks, unions held educational meetings Wednesday afternoon, the former at the home of Mrs. John Dale in the Hanscom Park district, and the latter at the home of Mrs. George Covell, in Kountze Place. Both programs were followed by social hours. The unions have grown in membership and strength during the last year and there is a growing sentiment to hold the educational meetings in different parts of the city, I the homes of members, and so to work or on the neighborhood plan. Suffragists Reorganize.

> The Omaha Equality club is being reor ganized and will contribute its part to the association at its annual convention to b held at Lincoln November 5 and 6. Mrs Mary G. Andrews, 3431 Hawthorn avenue is a delegate from the state and is acting as temporary treasurer. The annual memberahip fee of 50 cents will be continued and will be received by Mrs. Andrews from all former or new members. For the present, at least, the Omaha association will be auxiliary to the state and will not actively carry the work of the association. This plan is deemed advisable, as both the Woman's club and the Women's Christian

Rev. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National Woman Suffrage association, will A. W. Jefferls, were present and all made attend the Lincoln meeting next week, and short addresses. Wappich, Koutsky, Best, if it can be arranged, she may speak in Harvey and Silas A. Barton all had some Omaha. Miss Shaw is recognized as one thing to say on the merits of their candiof the most brilliant women on the lecture dacy and the party they represented. plaiform, and having just returned from a The speaker of the evening said that he tour of Europe, where she attended the was one of the volunteer speakers and had International Council of Women and in- been on the road for five weeks making vestigated the conditions of women in all German speeches daily and was protty the countries, she will have much to tell.

For Old People's Home.

hold its meeting at the First Presbyterian he had many personal experiences in Chi-But all of the autumn millinery is not arrange for the annual Thankegiving dona- promises of Bryanism, showing how the calculated to increase the fund of public tion party for the Old People's Home. The paramount Issuez had changed regularly gayety, and even the most spectacular of usual plan of sending out 1,000 large paper from year to year as soon as they became the new hats when well worn by the right sacks to be filled with provisions and re- the least shop worn. He said he had no woman has its merits. Generally speaking, turned to the home will be followed. Canned doubt that about the next great issue of the hats favored in Paris are bigger than or preserved fruits and jelly, provisions, ever, enormousy wide of brim, low and such as potatoes, sugar, rice, beans and sirships for each head of a family as a U large of crown, guiltless of bandeau, and anything that can be returned in the paper substitute for the government ownership often but slightly trimmed, though there sacks, are asked for. Coal and donations of money are also especially desireable. The day of the "party" the officers of the home will be there to receive the donations and all who are interested in the institution. Guests will be shown over the house.

A COMPLETE FOOD 50 Highest Awards in Europe and America

A medical writer says: Baker's pure cocoa acts as a gentle stimulant, invigorating and correcting the action of the digestive organs, furnishing the body with some of the purest elements of nutrition.

Walter Baker & Co., Ltd. Established 1780. DORCHESTER, MASS.

OU'LL soon cast your vote on the good clothes ques' tion and we're anxious that you should vote right We know that you will if you give us a chance to show you the best line of Men's Suits and Overcoats shown anywhere.

Hart, Schaffner & Marx

Hand tailored. They're cut right, they're designed right, they're tailored right and made of absolutely all wool fabrics always,

We're certainly prepared to suit anybody's tastes in colors, style, patterns; in quality and low price.

Suits or O'Coats

Two Enormous Clothing Purchases place us in a position to offer our customers Saturday special values we are certain cannot be duplicated in Omaha and never surpassed in any store in the land.

104-108 Blecker St.

sold to us for cash their entire surplus of men's suits and overcoats at 50c on the dollar, nearly 25,000 garments in the lot-not one worth less than $15.00 and up to $22.50, all newest fall styles, fabrics and colors,

$12.00 and $15.00 Cravenette Rain Coats-Manufacturer's discontinued lines, bought at 50c on the dollar; over 500 garments in the lot; on sale at, choice

Boys' Suit Specials for Saturday Selling—$5.00 $4.00 Knee Pants Suits at$2.95 And a Foot Ball Free With Each Suit.

$1.00 Knee Pants

TRY HAYDEN'S FIRST PAYS

has risen like a rocket. Bets are confined almost entirely to the state, whether Bryan will carry Nebraska or not. Deluded democrats are still risking a little money on Plattsmouth Man Captured.

Chief John Briggs arrested Charles

Hickson of Plattsmouth last night. He was taken off the train by the chief at 6 o'clock. It is reported that the man which may develope into a murder charge. He is said to have got into a fight and struck a man, inflicting serious, if not fatal, injury. The police in South Omaha were warned that Hickson was trying to make his escape, but none of the details of his alleged crime were Dinner for King's Daughters.

Mrs. William Berry, assisted by the women of the third division of the Presbyterian King's Daughters, entertained nearly 150 guests at dinner last even-itable objects of the society. The dinner was a most pronounced success in every way. The women worked for the enter

Republican Meetings.

Judge Hannibal will speak this evening at Ritchie's hall. The efforts will be directed more especially to the Danish fraternities, but the candidates will be bringing it to so happy a conclusion.

known to the police last night.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Voters in Native Tongue.

ISSUES

Republican Meetings Scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday-Big Roll to Bet on Taft's Election.

Temperance union are doing the same work night to hear Eugene M. Bellar of Chicago. as the suffrage association, and local The fact that the speech was advertised women are too busy to duplicate their as in the German tongue restricted the crowd to the Germans almost exclusively. The various local candidates, headed by tired. He spent much time in explaining the tariff and the result of the democratic experiments under Cleveland's administra-The Woman's Christian association will tion which resulted in hard times in which church Tuesday morning at 10 e'clock to cago and Milwaukee. He then took up the the party would be a means of providing of railroads.

> Bryan had a fine, plausible statement of the need and as good a story of the cure as any patent medicine fakir, but the trouble was bound to follow with the taking. We have had plenty of airships which made a fair start, but most of them met with considerable difficulty in alight-

> He said the principles of the democrats had changed so wonderfully since Jefferson that that rugged patriot would never recognize his party. On one point the party favors state rights and in the next breath demands a federal supervision of private business such as would put the hardest headed whig of the olden days to shame. The usual democratic picket was in evidence, but when he was invited to come forward and make a speech he declined and left the hall. His interruptions were taken good naturedly as a thing characteristic of the democratic party that could not be

> > No Labor Meeting.

Exhaustive inquiry yesterday failed to show where there had been any meeting of the employed or unemployed laborers Wednesday night to whom were credited certain resolutions in the World-Heraid signed "Committee." No one could be found who knew of a call for a laborer's mass meeting. No one saw any laborers in a mass meeting. No laborer could be of the resolutions. Suspicion points to wing, the employed laborer, is the person who wrote the article as it appears. These two adopted the resolution unanimously and signed themselves the full "committee." The object is a vain hope of offsetting the effect of the big successes of A. W. Jefferis and George L. Sheldon at the pack-right in his hands and promised to cover any bet on general results up to $10,000. In less than ten minutes he had all the dem ocrats up a tree looking on wistfully, but not daring to wager any large amount After much coaxing he placed $200 in small The Reasons for the bets on the results, and the democratic Pepularity of the sporting blood was cooled down below the normal. Since the big meeting at Madison Business Men's Lunch Square, Wednesday night, republican stock

> At HANSON'S CAFE are reasonable prices, quick and efficient service and the best bill of fare in the west. They all come here after closing eir stores Saturday night.

is charged with assault in Plattsmouth have the trouble of washing the windows Vote for Joseph Koutsky, republican candidate for state legislature.-Adv. Jetter's Gold Top Beer delivered to any part of the city. Telephone No. 3. COAL! Try Howland's celebrated Silver Creek. Office, 438 N. 24th St. Tel. South 7. VOTE for either party. Keep your bank account with the Live Stock National bank. Mrs. Robert Woolstein of Portland, Ore., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. H. Clark.

Vote for Wesley P. Adkins, republican candidate for state senator from South Omaha.—Adv. The women of the Christian church have ing at the residence of Mrs. Berry. The a rummage sale today at Twenty-fourth bject was to raise funds for the char-The Keystone club gave its first dance last night at Rushing's hall. A splendid attendance was out. J. W. Rich, father of C. M. Rich, has been indisposed of late. He is well along in years and quite feeble. tainment for days and deserve credit for

Mr. and Mrs. George Beam spent several days in South Omaha enroute from Sloux City to Grant's Pass, Ore., where they will reside in the future.

Great reductions all over the fraternities, but the candidates will be present and will speak in English.

Saturday night a meeting will be held at New Settlers' hall at Thirty-sixth and U streets. All the candidates of the local ticket and several of the state candidates will be present.

Magie City Gossip.

A good pony buggy for sale. E, care of Bee office, South Omaha.

Many hallowe'en pranks were played last night in all parts of South Omaha. No unusual damage was done. Most people will separate coats now only $7.50. First-class cravanette suits, $10.0, on $15.00 for them. Splendid sweater coats, $15.00 units, the coats and

Orchard & Wilhelm 414-16-18 South 16th Street SATURDAY SPECIALS SPECIAL IN THE BASEMENT

Enamel Soap Dish-This is an all white enameled soap dish with draining pan, made to hang on the wall. Can also be used to set on sink or stand. An unusual good value, sells regularly for 25c; Saturday only, each....10c 30-inch Sash Curtain goods, in grenadine and net, with edge and insertion, white and Arabian color, worth 35c to 40c, per yard. Saturday special, yard......19c

Baking Bowls-In Japanese blue, and white. They have a burnt finish and can be used in ovens for baking. In three sizes-7-inch, 8-inch and 9-inch:

Sell at 30c, 40c and 50c. Special Saturday; 7-inch, each, 19c

Rocker Special

For Saturday Only-[like cut]substantially constructed, golden finished, shaped wood seat, full size comfortable rocker, regular selling price $3.00; Saturday only, each $1.65 found who knew anything of the origin Jerry Howard alone as the able representative of the unemployed. The other ing houses and the South Omaha Live Stock Wad to Bet on Taft. According to Jay Laverty and other prominent live stock commission men, a great wad of Taft money arrived at the exchange yesterday in the pockets of an Idaho sheepman. He had plenty of money, and it was all his own. It was money he made under republican prosperity. There was no bluster about it. He had the money