

MRS. COPLEY THAW IS HAPPY

Sister of Pittsburgh Youth Glad to Be Free of Nobleman.

MARRIED LIFE ONLY NIGHTMARE

Mrs. Potter Palmer to Open New London Home—King Edward May Not Attend, Though Anxious to Do So.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special).—Mrs. Copley Thaw, as the countess of Yarmouth, says she wishes to be known hereafter, is now in Paris, where she proposes to spend a good deal of time in the future. Unlike the usual American woman, she never took to London, nor, indeed, to the English. To her friends she refers to her married life as a "nightmare" and avers "nothing would induce her to re-marry. She adds were she any possibility to change her mind, next time I should be for love and not for money."

Some American lost a brilliant position in not having become the wife of the president of the Board of Trade. For Winston is sworn to be prime minister of England and that sooner than anyone thinks. For the last couple of months there has been a growing confidence between Winston and his chief, a fact which leaked out at the time of Winston's wedding, when at the last moment Mr. Asquith found he could not tear himself away from his golf at St. Albans castle. The prime minister and his wife were represented at the reception by an extraordinary piece of silver which was probably bought for something under £5 and was, forsooth, their gift.

GOLD BRICK MEN DO WELL

Game Nearly Played Out in America Finds Gold Field in England.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special).—This city is the happy hunting ground at the present moment for the "gold brick" swindler. Deceit, in fact, that this form of confidence game has had a vogue of late, and has been explained and revealed times without number, it still proves effective in many cases and the criminal investigation department of Scotland Yard, alarmed at the activity of the "confidence men," has issued a warning in the following terms: "A fraud, commonly known as the 'gold brick' swindle, is at present being practiced in this country. In spite of the notices which have been issued, the scheme seldom varies, and usually begins with a letter addressed to some person or property and lately deceased—so that the letter may fall into the hands of the executor or the relatives of the deceased, and stating that the writer has made a valuable discovery of gold and desires to share his good fortune with his benefactor."

EARLY HOME OF FRANKLIN

Village of Ecton Full of Interest for Americans Who Visit Old Country.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special).—Few spots in England have more American interest than the little village of Ecton, in Northamptonshire, and particularly the churchyard in that quaint town. It was here that the forebears of Benjamin Franklin lived and here it was that the future signer of the Declaration of Independence acquired the habits of thrift which, perhaps, as much as anything else, helped to frame his future greatness. Throughout Ecton, in all sorts of old books and in the streets upon this name which contributed so largely to the making of American history. Indeed, the whole district is interesting to Americans, for not far from Ecton is the home of the family of George Washington, known as Sulgrave Manor. Ecton and Sulgrave Manor are visited nowadays by hosts of the descendants of the man who is said to have said that he could not tell a lie. Aside from the American interest of Ecton, the village itself has been immortalized by Hogarth, the great painter. It was he who painted the sign of the "World's End" inn in this place. Nobody knows today exactly what Hogarth's idea of the end of the world could have been, as a souvenir hunter many years ago added this interesting sign to his collection and ever since that time the "World's End" inn has been without a sign. Another curious relic of the village is the ancient "stocks" in which offenders of the day were "set," and the indication of the younger generation of those times. Perhaps the stocks were the only advertising medium in England before the advent of the modern newspaper.

ENGLISH EDITORS DISGUSTED

Austria's Coup in Seizing Two Provinces Rouses Wrath of Newspaper Writers.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special).—Perhaps the most significant and amusing indication of the British state of mind regarding Austria-Hungary's seizure of a slice of Turkey and its part in the Bulgarian coup has been compiled by London newspaper editors who, writing the editorial articles on the subject in the London papers and tabulated the adjectives applied to Austria as follows:

Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health, but who have exacting duties to perform, either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions, which seriously tax their strength, as well as in turning mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nerve. By its timely use, much serious sickness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeon's knife would be entirely unnecessary, had it not been for this "little woman's remedy" which is so good in time. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Earl Turns Down Offer

Shaftesbury Has Fine Voice, but Only for Private Use.

STAGE HAS NO ATTRACTIONS

Might Secure Five Thousand Dollars a Week if He Would Sing in Music Halls on Continent.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special).—It has been reported that the earl of Shaftesbury has been invited to go on the American music hall stage at the modest salary of $5,000 a week. This beats Harry Lauder. It is the largest salary ever offered to an amateur or even to an earl. Lots of the English nobility have fainted away at the thought, but few have possessed the qualifications of the young earl of Shaftesbury, whose fine tenor voice entitles him to recognition and big pay. Of course, the fact of being entertained by a real live lord should count on the playbill. Though his lordship has at present declined the flattering offer of a thirty weeks' engagement in America at the sum named, it is just possible that he may reconsider his decision.

MAN PROUD OF BEING HANGED

Polish Bandit Gets Married Only Few Hours Before His Execution.

WARSAW, Oct. 31.—(Special).—Ladislav Gluszkowski, a young Polish bandit, tried and sentenced to death in Lodz, the chief manufacturing town in Poland, surprised the government by coming to the gallows with a light and is admirably suited for singing oratorio music. The handling of the solo betokened the true enthusiastic artist. Such a voice would indeed be an acquisition to the musical profession.

EARL TURNS DOWN OFFER

Shaftesbury Has Fine Voice, but Only for Private Use.

STAGE HAS NO ATTRACTIONS

Might Secure Five Thousand Dollars a Week if He Would Sing in Music Halls on Continent.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special).—It has been reported that the earl of Shaftesbury has been invited to go on the American music hall stage at the modest salary of $5,000 a week. This beats Harry Lauder. It is the largest salary ever offered to an amateur or even to an earl. Lots of the English nobility have fainted away at the thought, but few have possessed the qualifications of the young earl of Shaftesbury, whose fine tenor voice entitles him to recognition and big pay. Of course, the fact of being entertained by a real live lord should count on the playbill. Though his lordship has at present declined the flattering offer of a thirty weeks' engagement in America at the sum named, it is just possible that he may reconsider his decision.

Game Nearly Played Out in America

Finds Gold Field in England.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special).—This city is the happy hunting ground at the present moment for the "gold brick" swindler. Deceit, in fact, that this form of confidence game has had a vogue of late, and has been explained and revealed times without number, it still proves effective in many cases and the criminal investigation department of Scotland Yard, alarmed at the activity of the "confidence men," has issued a warning in the following terms: "A fraud, commonly known as the 'gold brick' swindle, is at present being practiced in this country. In spite of the notices which have been issued, the scheme seldom varies, and usually begins with a letter addressed to some person or property and lately deceased—so that the letter may fall into the hands of the executor or the relatives of the deceased, and stating that the writer has made a valuable discovery of gold and desires to share his good fortune with his benefactor."

EARLY HOME OF FRANKLIN

Village of Ecton Full of Interest for Americans Who Visit Old Country.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special).—Few spots in England have more American interest than the little village of Ecton, in Northamptonshire, and particularly the churchyard in that quaint town. It was here that the forebears of Benjamin Franklin lived and here it was that the future signer of the Declaration of Independence acquired the habits of thrift which, perhaps, as much as anything else, helped to frame his future greatness. Throughout Ecton, in all sorts of old books and in the streets upon this name which contributed so largely to the making of American history. Indeed, the whole district is interesting to Americans, for not far from Ecton is the home of the family of George Washington, known as Sulgrave Manor. Ecton and Sulgrave Manor are visited nowadays by hosts of the descendants of the man who is said to have said that he could not tell a lie. Aside from the American interest of Ecton, the village itself has been immortalized by Hogarth, the great painter. It was he who painted the sign of the "World's End" inn in this place. Nobody knows today exactly what Hogarth's idea of the end of the world could have been, as a souvenir hunter many years ago added this interesting sign to his collection and ever since that time the "World's End" inn has been without a sign. Another curious relic of the village is the ancient "stocks" in which offenders of the day were "set," and the indication of the younger generation of those times. Perhaps the stocks were the only advertising medium in England before the advent of the modern newspaper.

ENGLISH EDITORS DISGUSTED

Austria's Coup in Seizing Two Provinces Rouses Wrath of Newspaper Writers.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special).—Perhaps the most significant and amusing indication of the British state of mind regarding Austria-Hungary's seizure of a slice of Turkey and its part in the Bulgarian coup has been compiled by London newspaper editors who, writing the editorial articles on the subject in the London papers and tabulated the adjectives applied to Austria as follows:

Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health, but who have exacting duties to perform, either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions, which seriously tax their strength, as well as in turning mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nerve. By its timely use, much serious sickness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeon's knife would be entirely unnecessary, had it not been for this "little woman's remedy" which is so good in time. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Earl Turns Down Offer

Shaftesbury Has Fine Voice, but Only for Private Use.

STAGE HAS NO ATTRACTIONS

Might Secure Five Thousand Dollars a Week if He Would Sing in Music Halls on Continent.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special).—It has been reported that the earl of Shaftesbury has been invited to go on the American music hall stage at the modest salary of $5,000 a week. This beats Harry Lauder. It is the largest salary ever offered to an amateur or even to an earl. Lots of the English nobility have fainted away at the thought, but few have possessed the qualifications of the young earl of Shaftesbury, whose fine tenor voice entitles him to recognition and big pay. Of course, the fact of being entertained by a real live lord should count on the playbill. Though his lordship has at present declined the flattering offer of a thirty weeks' engagement in America at the sum named, it is just possible that he may reconsider his decision.

MAN PROUD OF BEING HANGED

Polish Bandit Gets Married Only Few Hours Before His Execution.

WARSAW, Oct. 31.—(Special).—Ladislav Gluszkowski, a young Polish bandit, tried and sentenced to death in Lodz, the chief manufacturing town in Poland, surprised the government by coming to the gallows with a light and is admirably suited for singing oratorio music. The handling of the solo betokened the true enthusiastic artist. Such a voice would indeed be an acquisition to the musical profession.

EARL TURNS DOWN OFFER

Shaftesbury Has Fine Voice, but Only for Private Use.

STAGE HAS NO ATTRACTIONS

Might Secure Five Thousand Dollars a Week if He Would Sing in Music Halls on Continent.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special).—It has been reported that the earl of Shaftesbury has been invited to go on the American music hall stage at the modest salary of $5,000 a week. This beats Harry Lauder. It is the largest salary ever offered to an amateur or even to an earl. Lots of the English nobility have fainted away at the thought, but few have possessed the qualifications of the young earl of Shaftesbury, whose fine tenor voice entitles him to recognition and big pay. Of course, the fact of being entertained by a real live lord should count on the playbill. Though his lordship has at present declined the flattering offer of a thirty weeks' engagement in America at the sum named, it is just possible that he may reconsider his decision.

Game Nearly Played Out in America

Finds Gold Field in England.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special).—This city is the happy hunting ground at the present moment for the "gold brick" swindler. Deceit, in fact, that this form of confidence game has had a vogue of late, and has been explained and revealed times without number, it still proves effective in many cases and the criminal investigation department of Scotland Yard, alarmed at the activity of the "confidence men," has issued a warning in the following terms: "A fraud, commonly known as the 'gold brick' swindle, is at present being practiced in this country. In spite of the notices which have been issued, the scheme seldom varies, and usually begins with a letter addressed to some person or property and lately deceased—so that the letter may fall into the hands of the executor or the relatives of the deceased, and stating that the writer has made a valuable discovery of gold and desires to share his good fortune with his benefactor."

EARLY HOME OF FRANKLIN

Village of Ecton Full of Interest for Americans Who Visit Old Country.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special).—Few spots in England have more American interest than the little village of Ecton, in Northamptonshire, and particularly the churchyard in that quaint town. It was here that the forebears of Benjamin Franklin lived and here it was that the future signer of the Declaration of Independence acquired the habits of thrift which, perhaps, as much as anything else, helped to frame his future greatness. Throughout Ecton, in all sorts of old books and in the streets upon this name which contributed so largely to the making of American history. Indeed, the whole district is interesting to Americans, for not far from Ecton is the home of the family of George Washington, known as Sulgrave Manor. Ecton and Sulgrave Manor are visited nowadays by hosts of the descendants of the man who is said to have said that he could not tell a lie. Aside from the American interest of Ecton, the village itself has been immortalized by Hogarth, the great painter. It was he who painted the sign of the "World's End" inn in this place. Nobody knows today exactly what Hogarth's idea of the end of the world could have been, as a souvenir hunter many years ago added this interesting sign to his collection and ever since that time the "World's End" inn has been without a sign. Another curious relic of the village is the ancient "stocks" in which offenders of the day were "set," and the indication of the younger generation of those times. Perhaps the stocks were the only advertising medium in England before the advent of the modern newspaper.

ENGLISH EDITORS DISGUSTED

Austria's Coup in Seizing Two Provinces Rouses Wrath of Newspaper Writers.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special).—Perhaps the most significant and amusing indication of the British state of mind regarding Austria-Hungary's seizure of a slice of Turkey and its part in the Bulgarian coup has been compiled by London newspaper editors who, writing the editorial articles on the subject in the London papers and tabulated the adjectives applied to Austria as follows:

Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health, but who have exacting duties to perform, either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions, which seriously tax their strength, as well as in turning mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nerve. By its timely use, much serious sickness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeon's knife would be entirely unnecessary, had it not been for this "little woman's remedy" which is so good in time. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Earl Turns Down Offer

Shaftesbury Has Fine Voice, but Only for Private Use.

STAGE HAS NO ATTRACTIONS

Might Secure Five Thousand Dollars a Week if He Would Sing in Music Halls on Continent.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special).—It has been reported that the earl of Shaftesbury has been invited to go on the American music hall stage at the modest salary of $5,000 a week. This beats Harry Lauder. It is the largest salary ever offered to an amateur or even to an earl. Lots of the English nobility have fainted away at the thought, but few have possessed the qualifications of the young earl of Shaftesbury, whose fine tenor voice entitles him to recognition and big pay. Of course, the fact of being entertained by a real live lord should count on the playbill. Though his lordship has at present declined the flattering offer of a thirty weeks' engagement in America at the sum named, it is just possible that he may reconsider his decision.

MAN PROUD OF BEING HANGED

Polish Bandit Gets Married Only Few Hours Before His Execution.

WARSAW, Oct. 31.—(Special).—Ladislav Gluszkowski, a young Polish bandit, tried and sentenced to death in Lodz, the chief manufacturing town in Poland, surprised the government by coming to the gallows with a light and is admirably suited for singing oratorio music. The handling of the solo betokened the true enthusiastic artist. Such a voice would indeed be an acquisition to the musical profession.

Miller, Stewart & Beaton Carpet Sweepers—We sell Bissell's Grand Rapids carpet sweepers, eye bearing; price is, each $2.50. Window Shades—We make window shades, all colors and quality, ranging in price from $2.00 to $25c. 415-415-417 South Sixteenth Street.

Some Remarkable Values for Prudent Buyers

Mattresses, Oriental Rugs, Linoleum and Portieres

Great Sale of Mattresses

THIS IS MATTRESS WEEK AT OUR STORE—We are going to show everyone who will call at our store that this is the place to buy a MATTRESS. MATTRESS MAKING AND MATTRESS SELLING is one of OUR SPECIALTIES. We carry a large stock embracing a wide range of prices which covers practically everything made in the Mattress line and we can save you money on every purchase. Our Special Box Springs. 45-lb. felt Mattress with double Imperial Stitches edge, made up in renaissance blue and drab ticking, will compare in every way with the Ostermoor Felt at $15.00, our price $10.00. Large line of Mattresses, all full sizes and extra good value. Prices range as follows: $2.75 $3.75 $4.50 $9.00 $10.00 $14.00 $16.50

Important Sale of Portieres

The enormous increase in our drapery and curtain business in the last year is only a natural consequence of our admirable system of quick sales and small profits. As a special inducement for early trading we will offer for the first three days this week very special values of PORTIERES that will pay you well to inspect. $20.00 Velour Portieres, per pair $12.50 $38.50 Fringed Velour Portieres, per pair $25.50 $25.00 Silk Tapestry Portieres, per pair $15.50 $15.00 Silk Damask Portieres, per pair $10.75 $9.75 Mercerized Damask Portieres, per pair $5.95 $5.00 Rep Portieres, with tapestry border $3.50 $3.00 Fringed Tapestry Portieres, per pair $1.75 $5.00 Figured Tapestry Portieres, per pair $2.50 $2.00 Figured Tapestry Portieres, per pair $1.25 $25.00 Craftsman Portieres, per pair $15.00

Special Sale of Printed and Inlaid Linoleum

We closed out the entire surplus stock of one of the largest manufacturers of IN-LAID AND PRINTED LINOLEUMS at greatly below the regular price, and we are going to give our customers full benefit of the great saving in this purchase. 50c Printed Linoleum, per square yard 25c 50c Printed Linoleum, per square yard 29c 60c Printed Linoleum, per square yard 38c 70c Printed Linoleum, per square yard 48c 75c Printed Linoleum, per square yard, 12-ft. wide 48c 85c Printed Linoleum, best grade, 12-ft. wide, per square yard 59c $1.10 Inlaid Linoleum, per square yard 68c $1.50 Inlaid Linoleum, per square yard 88c $1.65 Inlaid Linoleum, per square yard 98c

Gas Ranges and Heaters—We are exclusive agents for the well known Vulcan Gas Ranges and Heaters; call and get our prices.

Sectional Bookcases—We are agents for Gunn's Sectional Bookcases and Filing Cabinets.

MAN PROUD OF BEING HANGED

Polish Bandit Gets Married Only Few Hours Before His Execution. WARSAW, Oct. 31.—(Special).—Ladislav Gluszkowski, a young Polish bandit, tried and sentenced to death in Lodz, the chief manufacturing town in Poland, surprised the government by coming to the gallows with a light and is admirably suited for singing oratorio music. The handling of the solo betokened the true enthusiastic artist. Such a voice would indeed be an acquisition to the musical profession.

MORGAN AND THE GUILDHALL

American Financier Gives One of Costliest Modern Books to Library. LONDON, Oct. 31.—(Special).—J. Pierpont Morgan is much in evidence at the London Guildhall just now. All down one side of the entrance leading to the great and historic library is lined with enormous photographs labeled, "Presented by Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan." At first glance an American wonders whether the Guildhall itself has been presented to Mr. Morgan, but on close examination it appears that these great photographs are taken from Mr. Morgan's latest excursion into bookland. "The North American Indian," by E. S. Curtis. It sounds like a contradiction in terms to speak of Mr. Curtis' book as being by Mr. Morgan, but the financier paid for the research in getting up these great books and afterwards paid for the special paper and binding and very special photographic photos which accompany the books. Without his aid it would have been impossible for this extraordinary work to be produced at all.

Have ROOT print it

Commendation or condemnation of your goods may depend upon the character of your printed matter. A. I. Root, Incorporated, 1210-1212 Howard Street, Omaha.

Fall Announcement '08 Guckert & McDonald TAILORS 317 South 15th St. Established 1867.