fairs. The republican state committee urges republicans to vote the straight party ticket next Tuesday; urges republicans to take no chances, unless democrats who are satisfied with the prosperity and progress republicans in voting for a continuance of the state and the nation to join with the present government.

Tom Allen's Windup.

A letter sent out by the democratic state committee which shows how the democrats are trying to play both ends at the same time, has been snared in Lincoln.

It is a letter to confidential agents of Tom Allen and it asked the agent to send it to the state committee the names only of the church going voters of his community. To those church going people only, the letter said, would be sent Mr. Bryan's "Prince of ePeace."

To the nonchurch-going voters Mr. Allen will send Mr. Bryan's attacks on prohibition.

Mr. Morley, who was an officer in a South Dakota company in the Spanish American war, has just returned from a trip through that state, where he lived for upward of twenty years and says that South Dakota will give the republican ticket. Up-state, though, will be for Hughes and I look for the republicans to carry the state for the governor. But there is not a doubt but that nationally the state will go for Taft.

"New York will go for Taft without a doubt," said Harry J. Morley, a broker in the metropolis, who called at headquarters yesterday to see his former classmate, Chapman Frank Crawford and "Congressman" A. W. Jeffers. "Tampa and the bookmakers are working hard for Chapman and Greater New York probably will go for the democratic state ticket. Up-state, though, will be for Hughes and I look for the republicans to carry the state for the governor. But there is not a doubt but that nationally the state will go for Taft."

CIRCULAR LETTER DENOUNCED

It. Thomas had a personal grievance against Governor Sheldon.

Governor Sheldon addressed a big meeting at Havelock last night and during his speech he devoted considerable time to showing the shop men of the insincerity of Sheldon at Havelock.

The liquor dealers Mr. Allen will send, is presumed, Mr. Shallenberger's promise to veto any county option bill. To the prohibitionists Mr. Allen probably will send Mr. Shallenberger's promise to sign any county option bill.

the leaders of this movement, however, have no faith in the promises made by Mr. Shallenberger because he pledged himself to the brewers of Omaha to veto any county option bill that might be passed.

Uses Clash of Civic League.

Another contemptible letter sent out in the interest of the democrats was caught this morning and branded. It is mailed out by E. Arthur Carr and was printed on the letter heads of the United Civic League of Lincoln. Carr's name appears on the letter head as secretary of the league.

The circular charges that Taft is opposed to prohibition and urged the people to vote against him. Carr attempts to prove the charge by enclosing a clipping saying that Taft fought the adoption of the constitution of Oklahoma which provides for prohibition.

C. C. Flansburg is president of the Civic League. He said: "E. Arthur Carr was repudiated by the Civic League as secretary. He was forced to resign. He has no authority to use the letter of the league. I have never heard of a meager piece of political work, and it should have no influence in this campaign. The league is absolutely non-partisan and was organized solely to look after local affairs in the city of Lincoln."

George E. Tobey, secretary of the civic league, says: "The civic league had nothing to do with the letter sent out by Dr. Carr. The league repudiates these letters. The organization is non-partisan. Dr. Carr had no authority to use the letter head of the league."

J. M. Gule called up the Bee over long distance telephone from the state headquarters of the Anti-saloon League in Lincoln and made this statement:

"I would like to see a copy of that circular. The league never sent such an out nor authorized Mr. Thomas to. If he has sent such a circular abroad he did it on his authority and not that of the league. The league is not supporting Mr. Shallenberger nor anybody for governor."
