FAKE SYMPATHY FOR SOLDIERS

Grand Island Democratic Paper Changes Tune This Year.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Oct. 31.—(Special Telegram)—Several thousand issues of the Grand Island democrat were sent out this week to old soldiers in other parts of the state, containing several articles of a grossly misrepresentative nature and unjustly assailing the record of Governor Sheldon.

Our election of last Tuesday has evidenced once again that the citizens and taxpayers permanently located here have really nothing to say by reason of the fact that the old soldiers, standing in the state, prescribe for us whom we shall have for officials.

The genuineness of the sympathy for the old soldier, whom these papers are now trying to inveigle into a vote for the democratic ticket is thus apparent. C. G. Vanness, a member of the Home, and republican committeeman, vigorously denounced the issue of the democrat as misrepresentative of the old soldiers of the Home as a class.

BEATRICE, Neb., Oct. 31.—(Special.)—Peculiarly a spectacular torch, light and fireworks demonstration, a big republican meeting was held at the Paddock opera house last evening to wind up the campaign in this city.
