Y. W. C. A. Party.

A little late but none the less enjoyable was the Hallowe'en party given by the Young Women's Christian association Monday evening in its rooms in the Paxton block. An the attendance is always large at this annual lark admission was by membership ticket only. Most of the young women came maaked and the evenng was altogether enjoyable, with its gram of Hallowe'en pranks, music and freshments. The rooms were lighted with jack o' lanterns or candles in potato holders and grotesque pumpkin faces grinned from the walls. The costumes the voters are going to pay but little atwere unique and many of the masqueraders combined in little stunts that contributed much to the evening's fun. We often say "Come in and Look," and we mean it. We are as much pleased when a man comes in "just to look," and give him as much pleased when a man comes in just to rook, and give init as much consideration as if he came to buy. It's all the same to us. The man who comes to buy has already made up his mind about this store. The man who comes to look wants to compare our goods and prices with others. A few moments in other stores usually prompts him to hurry back here. If you doubt this, "Come in and Look."
