Lancaster county gives Bryan a majority and the vote on other republican candidates also takes a big slump.

TAFT TALKS ABOUT RESULTS

President-Elect, at His Home, Discusses Outcome.

BUSINESS MEN WERE IN ACTION

Determined to Show Country that People Are Alive to Interests of the Country at Large.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 4.—"I believe I was elected by the business men of the country, democrats as well as republicans; that I received my share of the labor vote, and that the farmers generally stood by me. I am very much gratified."

William H. Taft was sitting in the library of his temporary home, the C. P. Taft residence, this morning when he gave expression to the above declaration.

"In my own state and Indiana the result was very much affected by the local liquor questions, and it is very difficult to figure out just how it operated."

Although Judge Taft was up the greater part of the night scanning the reports as they were received over the wires, which had been installed at the house, he arose early this morning.

"The president-elect Taft" the proper title now," was heard.

"Just Mr. Taft, if you please," was the cheery reply. "You know I am not elected president yet, and will not be the president-elect until after the meeting of the electoral college. We shall endeavor to remain in our capacity as private citizen as long as possible."

It is somewhat of a disappointment to Judge Taft that his two sons and daughters are not with him at this time the home conditions at the Taft residence radiate with good cheer and family felicity.

FILIPINOS PLEASED AT OUTCOME

Personal Friends of Taft in Island Send Congratulations.

MANILA, Nov. 4.—The news of the election of William H. Taft was received with the greatest enthusiasm by all classes throughout the Philippines.

The foreign press of China makes favorable mention of the visit of the American battleships to the center government and the Chinese people, so far as the latter are informed, are humiliated over the fact that only half the fleet under Admiral Sperry came to China.

The presence of the American ships at Amoy has again directed attention to the decline of American trade in China.

It has been announced that Judge Taft will come to the Philippines on a visit while he is president.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Hon. Charles N. "The house of representatives shall elect a board of managers consisting of four members which shall be charged with the direction of legislation which is now assumed by the speaker of the house."

FOREIGN PRESS WELL PLEASED

London Papers Regard Outcome of Election with Great Satisfaction.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The press of London regards the election of William H. Taft as a matter for general and world-wide congratulation, as it "insures" the power which Mr. Taft "which has been greatly approved in England."

"The policy which Mr. Taft has inherited," points out the Evening Standard, "is in a large measure accountable for the leap to the front made by America in recent years, and her present position, a power among the powers is due, to an unusual extent, to Mr. Taft's labors in close alliance with President Roosevelt."

The Westminster Gazette regards the success of William H. Taft as a victory of the man rather than the policy. "Mr. Taft in his admirable record of administrative efficiency, has shown himself safe, shrewd and resourceful, while Mr. Bryan never recovered in the popular esteem from sowing his wild oats on the silver question. We have yet to see what would happen if the United States if a really powerful man were to appeal boldly to the racial instincts of the masses against the domination of the wealthy men in the United States. Mr. Hearst reserves that role to himself."

Pursuing the same idea, the Globe expresses the opinion that the defeat of Mr. Bryan has cleared the way for Mr. Hearst to obtain a presidential nomination in 1912, either as the candidate of the democrats, "or some more extreme and more powerful organization springing from the ruins of the democracy."

The Globe concludes that the world at large may heartily congratulate itself upon the election of Mr. Taft.

GOMPERS WILL FIGHT ON

Head of Federation of Labor Declares He Will Not Yield in Efforts.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—"Temporarily defeated, but not conquered," is the way Gompers of the American Federation of Labor viewed the election in a statement issued today as follows:

"The original aim of the fight was for the cause of justice and human freedom. This is not the first time in the struggles of the masses that entrenched wealth, privilege and power gained a material, even though a temporary victory. The moral influence of the campaign is with the cause of the workers. The part labor took completed the moral and political complexion of the sixty-first congress, according to present information and with sixteen districts yet to hear from, will be, republicans 206; democrats, 160."

One hundred and ninety-six votes will control the house. The house of representatives in the sixtieth congress consisted of 196 democrats, 22 republicans and there are two vacancies.

The table follows:

Table with columns for State, Dem. Rep., and Guffey. Lists states like Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

PRESIDENT'S VIEW OF OUTCOME

Election of Taft Regarded Triumph Over Unwise and Improper Radicalism.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—President Roosevelt today gave his interpretation of the victory of the republican party at the polls yesterday when he said to the newspaper men whom he received in his office:

"This administration has meant a steady effort and progress which should never be allowed to deviate into an unwelcome radicalism on the one hand, nor into an unwelcome conservatism on the other. The nomination of Mr. Taft was a triumph over reactionary conservatism, and his election was a triumph over unwise and improper radicalism."

BRYAN WAITS FOR LATE NEWS

Wants to Hear from Indiana, Ohio and Kansas Before Making a Statement.

FAIRVIEW, LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 4.—Although he was not in the city when he actually went to bed, William J. Bryan was up and doing early this morning. So far as appearances went, there was nothing about his manner to indicate the disappointment which he must have felt over the result of the election.

ASHTON C. SHALLENBERGER.

COMPLEXION OF NEXT HOUSE

Two Hundred Six Republicans, Hundred Sixty-Nine Democrats.

SIXTEEN DISTRICTS STILL MISSING

Practically All Gains Democrats Make Must Be Made from Districts that Have Not Been Heard From.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Three hundred and seventy-two congressional districts have been heard from and the political complexion of the sixty-first congress, according to present information and with sixteen districts yet to hear from, will be, republicans 206; democrats, 160.

One hundred and ninety-six votes will control the house. The house of representatives in the sixtieth congress consisted of 196 democrats, 22 republicans and there are two vacancies.

The table follows:

Two Changes in Indiana.

Washington was quite unprepared for the retirement of C. B. Landis and Jesse Overstreet of Indiana. Both held chairmen assignments and have been long in the service.

NEW JERSEY

THRENTON, N. J., Nov. 4.—Revised returns give Taft a plurality in New Jersey of about 70,000.

These figures as the later returns come in may possibly increase the majority given Roosevelt four years ago.

One of the surprises was the small plurality given Mr. Bryan yesterday in Hudson county. Unofficial figures place him at 1,700. Four years ago Parker had 1,200. This year Kinkead and Hamill, democratic candidate leader of Hudson county, was tenth district, which comprise Hudson county, carried the county by combined pluralities of 14,000.

Robert Davis, the democratic leader of Hudson county was the one conspicuous leader in New Jersey who favored Mr. Bryan's nomination.

SIX SENATORSHIPS IN DOUBT.

The only senatorships remaining in doubt are those of Ohio, Indiana and Oregon, which are now represented by Senators Forsaker, Hemenway and Fulton, republicans; Penrose, Pennsylvania; Perkins, California; Platt, New York; Smoot, Utah; Stephenson, Wisconsin. All of whom will be succeeded either by themselves or other republicans.

Democrats: Clay, Georgia; Gily, South Carolina; Gore, Oklahoma; Milton, Florida; Overman, North Carolina; all of whom will be succeeded by democrats.

WEST VIRGINIA

CINCINNATI, Nov. 4.—While fuller figures this afternoon showed that Taft had carried West Virginia by a safe plurality of several thousand the state ticket may not have gone through with him.

W. H. TAFT PRESIDENT

Republican Candidate Has at Least 298 Electoral Votes.

BRYAN'S DEFEAT A CRUSHING ONE

United States Senate Will Be Republican Next Time.

MARYLAND, W. VIRGINIA DOUBT

Both States Appear Shaky as Late Returns Come In.

CANNON AND S. E. PAYNE WIN

Governor Johnson of Minnesota is Elected for Third Term, Though Taft Carries the North Star State.

How They Now Stand.

Of the states which at the outset of the day were generally placed in the Bryan column, Colorado and Montana were still subjects of counter claims.

Nebraska, however, has been decisively credited to Bryan. On the basis of the facts known early today, the table of electoral votes would be as follows:

Table with columns for State, Taft, Bryan, and Doubt. Lists states like Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

David Turpie surrendered his office to Senator Beveridge.

The final figures regarding the result in the house probably will show little change in numbers on the respective sides, but there will be a considerable shifting in the personnel of that body.

A number of surprises already have been recorded and probably the most pronounced was a defeat of representative Hepburn of the Eighth Iowa district.

Mr. Hepburn has been in congress so long and as chairman of the committee on interstate commerce he had been regarded as almost a fixture in Washington. He was a strong supporter of the president's policies.

Two Changes in Indiana.

Washington was quite unprepared for the retirement of C. B. Landis and Jesse Overstreet of Indiana. Both held chairmen assignments and have been long in the service.

That General Sherwood, the independent democrat from the Ninth Ohio district, who sprang into notice during his one term through his sharp differences with his soldier colleague, General Keifer, is elected, is not surprising, as he was elected in 1904 by a majority of forty votes in a district which had hitherto been overwhelmingly republican.

The defeat of J. T. McCleary by Mr. Hammond in the Second Minnesota district, brings to mind the fact that he resigned his position as second assistant postmaster general to make the recent race. Republicans generally are delighted with their gain of two members from the new state of Oklahoma.

The change will give the republicans three of the five members of the house from that state.

CANNON GETS BACK.

Among the more significant results were the re-elections by congress of Speaker Cannon and Chairman Berens E. Payne of the house committee on ways and means, and the certain re-election for a third term of Governor John J. Johnson, democrat, in Minnesota, which state, nevertheless, returns a plurality for Taft of probably upward of 75,000.

It became early evident that Thomas L. Hisgen, candidate of the independent party, had received comparatively meager support and that his vote would not materially affect the result. Little was heard early today as to the magnitude of the socialist or prohibition votes.

CLOSE STATES MAKE NO CHANGE

General Results Not Affected by Outcome in Them.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The overwhelming republican victory in yesterday's elections, which will carry William H. Taft into the White House, is not materially affected, so far as the chief result is concerned, by the fact that late today the result in several states remained in doubt.

The uncertainty also extends to several of the legislatures which will choose United States senators to fill vacancies caused by expiration of terms, of which there are thirty-one.

The uncertainty this afternoon may be summarized as follows: Colorado—Returns very incomplete. The state probably democratic.

Indiana—For Taft, but the governor, Thomas R. Marshall, is probably elected over James E. Watson.

Idaho—Almost certainly for Taft. Legislature probably republican.

Missouri—In doubt, claimed by both parties for president. But for governor, Hadley, republican, is leading Coward, democrat, by 15,000 on incomplete returns.

Maryland—In doubt, but probably for Bryan by about 1,900 with four counties incomplete.
