Kabo Corsets

You'll appreciate the two leading features of Kabo Corsets—no metal eyelets, and non-breakable stays. Either of these is enough to make the Kabo a great favorite. If you have a medium bust and average figure, here is an excellent corset for you at a very low price. It is the Kabo Corset, style No. 680, made of fine batiste.

Price $1.00.

A Kabo dollar's worth of corset is the best value you can find. Other Kabo Corsets up to $3.50.

Come Thursday and see these Kabo Corsets.

Children's Winter Coats Arrived

We are pleased to announce the arrival of our stock of children's winter coats. All the newest styles in white and colored coats for children. Ages one to six years. Prices start at $3.50.

DINNER TO AMBASSADOR

D. E. Thompson is Honor Guest at the Omaha Club.

J. E. BAUM GIVES THE FUNCTION

Long List of Prominent Men of Omaha Are Entertained with United States Representative to Mexico.

D. E. Thompson, United States ambassador to Mexico, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by J. E. Baum at the Omaha club Wednesday afternoon. Those present included leading citizens of Omaha, representing all of its larger interests. Brief addresses were made by General Charles F. Manderson, Dr. George L. Miller and H. H. Baldrige.

Mr. Thompson delivered a short talk upon Mexican affairs, reviewing the general business, commercial, political and social conditions of that republic, that was listened to with the most interested attention. It was a synopsis of Mexican affairs told by an observant business man more comprehensive than any written article could possibly be.

These were the guests: C. H. Pickens, W. M. Burgess, T. C. Byrne, A. C. Smith, L. W. Carpenter, H. D. Neely, C. W. Miller, J. E. Green, C. N. Dietz, William Stull, G. P. Dietz, Dr. C. A. Hall, William Wallace, A. E. Leve, J. L. Park, W. J. DeFord, A. L. Reed, M. T. Barlow, C. E. Chase, Frank Colburn, W. A. Hamilton, J. R. Lehner, F. S. Wright, J. E. Conroy, C. T. Kountze, G. E. Bidwell, R. S. Hall, R. S. Hall, L. H. Drake, F. A. Barkalod, F. J. Kirkham, J. E. Webster, Euclid Martin, J. E. Kelby, J. S. Brady, J. E. Baum, C. E. Yost, D. A. Baum, H. H. Baldrige, D. Baum, Jr., C. D. Mulien, D. E. Thompson, Dr. George L. Miller, J. E. Baum, F. J. Kirkham, J. E. Webster, E. A. Cudahy, W. Farnam Smith, J. M. Cudahy, Lee Stratton, A. Kennedy, Ed Bignell, F. H. Davis, Ed Bignell.

Disas Has Two Years More. Mr. Thompson said to a reporter for The Bee: "There seems to be a misapprehension regarding President Diaz's candidacy for reelection to the presidency of the Mexican republic. He still has two years to serve on his present term and he has repeatedly indicated his intention of retiring at the end of his term. The friendly feeling between the citizens of Mexico and the United States is constantly growing. Mexico welcomes American industry and capital. The republic is heavily interested in all kinds of Mexican enterprises, mining and mercantile, as well as commercial. There is approximately $700,000,000 of American capital invested in various Mexican enterprises. In the city of Mexico alone there is a large number of Americans engaged in the capital industry. The Ed Dickinson's Orient railroad is progressing rapidly and will be completed within the not very distant future, and is going to be a big paying proposition when once in operation."

CRAWFORD HAS THE LEGISLATURE Friends Claim Big Majority for Him for Senator. HURON, S. D., Nov. 4.—(Special Telegram.)—Chairman Richards of the state republican league says Taft's majority will be about 18,000, and the state republican, for governor from 8,000 to 12,000 over Lee, democrat. He estimates that 75 per cent of the 148 members of the legislature will support of Governor Crawford for United States senator.

DEATH RECORD. Miss Virginia Jones. Miss Virginia Jones, a sister of Dr. Gertrude Cusaden of Omaha, died at her home near Chillicothe, O., Wednesday morning as the result of severe burns received in the explosion of a coal oil lamp on October 1. Till recently encouraging reports of her condition had been received by her friends in Omaha, where she visited her sister on two occasions, but weakening strength and arterial hemorrhage from the deeper injuries hastened her ultimate collapse. The burns caused by the explosion covered almost three-fourth of her body and she bravely suffered for a month before the final release came. Funeral services will be held at Chillicothe on Friday of this week and the body will be buried in the family lot at that city.

Mrs. Emma Thompson. The body of Mrs. Emma Thompson, wife of J. C. Thompson, an Omaha printer, will arrive in Omaha, Wednesday and funeral services are to be held Thursday. Mrs. Thompson died at Loveland, Colo., from which place the body is being brought. The Thomasons live at 938 North Twenty-fourth street, Omaha. Mrs. Thompson was 64 years old.

Mrs. Carrie Waldron. Mrs. Carrie Waldron, aged 81, died at a hospital, Tuesday afternoon. Her home was at 24th and Broadway streets and she is survived by a son. The body will be taken to Schuyler, Neb., Thursday, for burial.

Betting on Election. OMAHA, Nov. 4.—To the Editor of The Daily Bee: From the report in the morning edition of the Daily Bee, entitled "Much Betting Has Been Done," and from other recent reports in the daily press, on the question of betting on the result of the election, it would seem that some of our citizens have overlooked, as well as overlooked the provisions of Section 223 of the Criminal code, which makes it a crime to bet, or wager upon the election of any person to any office, post, or situation which by the constitution, or laws of this state, is made elective, or shall make any bet or wager upon the election of the president or vice president of the United States; or upon the election of electors of president or vice president of the United States. The penalty being a fine of from five to one hundred dollars.

This section being a part of the Criminal code, is not like the "anti-trading" law, nor enforceable, and yet some of the dignitaries and "high-up" citizens, and in a few instances officers of this city and state, have, on the last election, stepped high enough to come within the provisions of this section of the Criminal code. Respectfully,

PLAIN CLOTHES CITIZEN.

Boys Have Accident. BOONE, Ia., Nov. 4.—(Special Telegram.)—"I guess I'll have to shoot you," were the words used by Ernest Taylor as he pointed a rifle at Willis Miller. The hammer was snapped and the ball passed through the boy's left wrist, tearing his glove and coat. The lad escaped other injury. Had the rifle been turned a fraction of an inch death would have resulted. The boy's were out hunting and the remark was made in mere fun.

Ex-Archbishop General Harmon, democrat, claimed to be elected governor, but republicans dispute. Democratic gains in legislature. West Virginia—Latest returns favor Taft. Bennett, democrat for governor, is in the lead, but the republicans claim all five congressmen, admitting only two districts in doubt. The pluralities of Taft and Hughes in New York state are somewhat modified by returns received late today, though the result was not materially changed. With 89 out of 600 districts missing, and two estimated, late today Taft's plurality has been raised to 199,885, an increase of about 2,000 from the earlier estimate, and with ninety-seven districts missing and thirty-five estimated, Hughes' plurality for governor has been reduced to 6,819.

Today's returns leave no doubt upon the election of the full republican state ticket by substantial pluralities all along the line. While Taft carried New York by a plurality of over 150,000, Chandler received late today by about 50,000, and Tammany hail put in office all of its important local candidates.

MARYLAND. BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 4.—The latest returns from yesterday's election show that the result in Maryland on the presidency is close. According to the latest figures, Taft had polled 62,896, while Bryan had polled 67,423, a plurality for Taft of 45,127 in four of the counties the pluralities are estimated. In some other counties a few precincts are missing, so the state really is in doubt. Congressman Pearce, of the Sixth district, about whose election there has been doubt, is safe with a plurality of 580. The congressional delegation from this state still remains three republicans and three democrats, but with a slight change in the personnel. Covington, democrat, defeated Jackson, the present incumbent, in the First district, and Krommiller, republican, won over Wolf, the present democratic representative in the Third district.

KANSAS. TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 4.—Returns from sixty-nine counties complete and incomplete have been received. These give Taft 23,091 and Bryan 16,417. Later returns are reducing the estimated plurality of Taft and of Stubbs, for governor. Stubbs' plurality is placed at 20,000 to 25,000 and Taft's about 8,000 more.

The election of Joseph L. Bristow to the United States senate is assured. Returns received up to tonight show the election of thirty-nine democratic representatives and five democratic senators, seventy republican representatives and thirty republican senators. This leaves sixteen representatives and five senators still in the doubtful column.

The republicans have a majority in the legislature of fifty-six, not counting the doubtful members and of thirty-five, counting all the doubtful ones in the democratic column.

OHIO. CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 4.—A plurality
