CRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Liverpool Cables Fairly Strong on Both Wheat and Corn.

HIGHER VALUES ARE FORECASTED

Wheat Rapidly Working to Stronger 'asition and Conditions Justity the Bellef of a Rapid Hise.

Livertool cables came fairly strong on both wheat and corn, %%% higher on wheat and cold higher on corn, and notes an advancing tendency in the wheat and a firm corn market.

Wheat is rapidly working into a stronger position the world over and conditions both abyted and at home justify the belief for higher values.

Receipts of corn continue moderate and demand is still light. The weather is perfect for husking and this accounts for the light arrivals. With this weather very little increase in the movement is looked for in 10s next two weeks.

Wheat proved firm, with buying general and the crowd favoring the buil side. Offerinas were small and buyers had difficulty at pressing up any long wheat. December whigh opened at 10% and closed at 55%.

Corn spectred steady, but dull and trad-ng was light. Receipts were light and femand very moderate. With the movement of the new crop prices should fall some ower. December corn opened at 35% and closed at 53%c.

Primary wheat receipts were 1,160,000 busicle and shipments were 471,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 988,000 bushels and shipments of 1,076,000 bushels.

Corn receipts were 317,000 bushels and shipments were 215,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 281,000 bushels and shipments of 494,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 281,000 bushels and shipments of 494,000 bushels and shipments of 494,000 bushels of corn, 5,000 bushels of corn, 5,000 bushels of corn, 5,000 bushels.

Liverpool closed 342%d higher on wheat and 3d higher on corn.

and %nd higher on corn. Seaboard reported 600,000 bushels of wheat taken for export, Local range of options:

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Liberal primary re-ceipts offset the higher prices for wheat at European grain centers and caused a steady tone in the local market at the close final quotations being unchanged to %2%c higher. Corn and provisions were weak and cats firm. The wheat market was nervous all day

The wheat market was nervous all day and the volume of trade was not large. There was a little firmness manifested at the start, owing to the strength of the European markets, but selling by elevator interests soon caused moderate declines. This selling was largely due to a heavy movement, especially in the northwest and and to an absence of any export demand except for Durum and Manitoba wheat. The market, however, at no time showed any great weakness, support by several any great weakness, support by several of the leading belie having a tendency to check any general selling. Continued dry weather in the Ohio valley and other sections of the winter wheat belt inspired considerable buying. The market railled from the low point late in the day on covering by aborts and prices at the class were unthe low point late in the day on covering by shorts and prices at the close were unchanged to %4% he higher, with December at $1.01% and May at $1.05% (21.65% Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 986.000 bushels. The amount of bread stuff on ocean passage decreased 1.216.000 bushels.

Corn prices declined more than 1 cent today, owing to selling based on the government report, which estimated this year's crop to be $0.000.000 bushels in excess of that last year, and which placed the quality of the crop at $8.9, compared with $2.5 for the same time on the previous crop. The market closed easy, at net losses of 1.6% to %2%. Center of the same time on the previous crop. The market closed easy, at net losses of 1.6% to 1.6% to 1.6% and on May at 61% c. Oats were firm nearly all day. Cash oats at the sample tables were steady to 1.6% bigher. The market closed firm, with prices up the to 1.6% with December at 48% card May at 05% 50% 50%.

The provision market was weak all day and at the close prices were a shade to 1.607% to lower.

The Strength of a Bank is judged partly by the amount of money invested by its stockholders in the form of Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits. These give security to the depositor because that money stands between the depositor and any possible loss in the value of the securities held by a bank. The First National Bank of Omaha has frequently increased the amount of its accounts so that they might always maintain a proper relation to the amount of deposits.

Capital, Surplus and Profits

At present the amount in these accounts is over $1,200,-000.00. This certainly gives assurance of absolute security.

farming. On the contrary, he sesserted, the commission's object is to make such inquiries among the farm people as to determine the economic, social, sanftury and educational status of the open country.

Present at the hearing was a representaof Maryland, in addition to groups of business men, ministers, teachers, bankers and others. State and county officials also were well represented. The desire of the Maryland farmers to lend ald in the commission's undertaking was manifest in the discussions which followed Prof. Bailey's antwers. "The work of the commission." Prof.

Bailey said, "implies no criticism of the farmer; it is after conditions and tendencles and the means of bettering them. It is not an uplift commission, as that term is generally used. In the time at its disposal, we cannot make a scientific investigation into economic and social questions, but it can make a broad preliminary exploration of the whole field of country life and set going a new piece of welfare work. We desire the co-operation of any person who knows rural conditions and has an opinion to express."

Opinions as to the present condition of ountry life in Maryland were contributed freely by the farmers and the commissioners were gratified to note the interest which their preliminary canvass by letters had created. The hearing was one of suggestion and inquiry. The condition of farm homes, the school training as adapted to life on the farm, the returns obtained by the farmer from the sale of his products, the financial progress made by the farm tenants and labor conditions formed the basis of the discussions.

The members of the commission, Prof.

Bailay, Henry Wallace of Dec Motnes, Kenyon L. Butterfield of Amberst, Meen.; Dr. Walter H. Page of North Carolina, and Gifford Pinchot, onief forester, will confer with President Roosevelt at the White House tonight before departing on their tour of the south's industrial centers
