CHILDREN'S DRESSES

it's really surprising to see the beautiful really-to-put-on-and-wear Dresses for little girls and so many of them. They are no longer the slip-shod, carelessly put together garments they once were. There's style to them, too, just as much care in the making as you expect in womer's dresses. Prices are most reasonable; why the making alone would cost as much. New, long waisted, French blouse dresses with kilted and pleated skirts, all new effects in Manchester Galatea in scores of styles, Anderson Ginghams and Sea Island Percales, sizes 6 to 14 years, at each—
