

IN WOMAN'S REALM

NOTES ON OMAHA SOCIETY

Metropolitan Club Members Give Comedy, Followed by Dancing Party.

VISITING WOMEN MUCH HONORED

Luncheons, Bridge Parties, Dinners and Long List of Informal Affairs Given for Their Entertainment.

Mrs. G. A. Hill was hostess Wednesday afternoon at the Omaha club at the second of a series of luncheon parties which she has given this week. Mrs. Holmes of Lincoln, Mrs. Hull's mother, was the guest of honor. The guests were seated at small tables, each having a hostess. A dainty color scheme of pink was used in the decorations, roses and shaded candles being in this color. Place cards with the monogram of the hostess in gold marked the places of thirty-five guests. The assisting hostesses Wednesday were Mrs. A. G. Best, Mrs. Charles Keller, Mrs. Howard Beldridge and Mrs. F. P. Kirkendall.

At Metropolitan Club

The members of the Metropolitan club will give a comedy and dancing party Wednesday evening at Metropolitan hall. Elaborate decorations of pink blossoms and pink-shaded lights and candles will be in the hall and reception rooms.

This is the first play given at the club this season and will be well attended. The play is presented by Mr. Julius Rosenfeld, chairman of the entertainment committee of the club, and the cast of characters for the comedy, "A Box of Monkeys," will include Miss Florence Miller, Miss Rosema Mandelberg, Miss Theresa Dreyfoos, Mr. Ralph Rothchild and Mr. Frank Goetz.

For Mrs. Urquhart

Complimentary to Mrs. Urquhart of St. Louis, formerly of Omaha, Mrs. W. E. Palmer entered into a series of card parties at her home Tuesday evening at her home. The guests were restricted to the old friends of Mrs. Urquhart. Wednesday evening Mrs. and Mrs. William M. Giller will entertain informally at dinner, and Thursday afternoon Mrs. P. W. Miesel will give a bridge party at her home in honor of Mrs. Urquhart.

Friends of Mr. Revelle Urquhart

Friends of Mr. Revelle Urquhart will be glad to hear of the success he is having as the juvenile leading man with the Allen Stock company, which is playing in Portland, Ore. This company is the second largest stock company playing on the western coast. Mr. Urquhart is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Urquhart, now of St. Louis, who formerly lived in Omaha, Mr. Revelle Urquhart having been born and reared in Omaha.

Birthday Party

In celebration of the third birthday of her daughter, Julia Catherine, Mrs. E. S. C. Lewis gave a children's party Wednesday afternoon for about twenty little guests, many of whom were accompanied by their mothers. A large birthday cake with three candles was one of the features of the entertainment, also favors which were given as souvenirs.

Anniversary Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Stoney were pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening at their home, 334 Lafayette avenue, by their children and grandchildren in celebration of the thirty-ninth anniversary of their marriage. The evening was spent informally. The house was decorated with chrysanthemums. Mr. and Mrs. George J. Stoney were married at Washington, D. C., November 18, 1868, while Mr. Stoney was serving with Light Battery F, Fifth artillery.

Complimentary Affairs

Complimentary to Miss Sellinger of Sheboygan, Wis., and Miss Connor of Evanston, Ill., who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Kiplinger, a number of informal affairs have been planned. Wednesday afternoon they were the guests of Mrs. Earl Kiplinger at a matinee party at Boyd's theater and Tuesday afternoon Miss Shirley Moore of Council Bluffs gave a luncheon at the Grand Hotel in Council Bluffs in honor of Miss Sellinger and Miss Anna Connor and Mrs. O. D. Kiplinger. Mrs. Earl Kiplinger was the other Omaha guest present. They spent the afternoon roller skating in Council Bluffs.

New Bridge Club

A new bridge club was organized and had the first regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. E. Rogers.

Harmonize with the Hair

Colorless women, she declares, should wear shimmering, glossy black, unless, indeed, they are painfully thin.

MANAGING THE HOUSE MAID

Results Are Mistress' Business, Methods Are the Affair of a Maid.

There are mistresses and mistresses just as there are many minds and many methods and if there is to be harmony in the household there must be an understanding.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved her life. Read her letter. Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words. For years I suffered with the worst forms of female complaint, continually doctoring and spending lots of money for medicine without help. I wrote you for advice, followed it as directed, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has restored me to perfect health. Had it not been for you I should have been in my grave to-day. I wish every suffering woman would try it."

REDUCING FLESH UNDER CHIN

Method by Which It May Be Safely and Easily Accomplished by Anyone.

No one need hesitate in undertaking to reduce the flesh under the chin. It is not a difficult process at all, but must be done very carefully in order not to leave the skin in a loose, flabby condition, which is really more annoying than flesh. Bathe in hot water for several minutes, holding hot compresses to the flesh. Touch the fingers to cold cream and roll a little of the flesh at a time between them. Work in this manner for ten or fifteen minutes; then apply cold water for several minutes; put on skin tonic with a sponge, patting

The members will meet every second Tuesday and luncheon will precede the game of bridge. The members of the club are Mrs. H. Burrell, Mrs. H. H. Fish, Mrs. Ingwersen, Mrs. Young, Mrs. H. O. Edwards, Mrs. E. P. Smith, Mrs. A. A. Grimmell, Mrs. J. H. Osborne, Mrs. A. T. McGrath, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. J. B. Blanchard, Mrs. E. E. Rogers.

MR. GOSLING'S ADVENTURES

He Offers a Seat to a Woman in an Elevated Car—Unexpected Outcome.

"This," said Mr. Gosling, "I confess is rather puzzling to me, but I am inclined to think that I got it right."

"The elevated car in which I rode home last yesterday afternoon was as usual, at that hour crowded, and so, as usual I hung on by a strap. But a few stations along the man in front of me of whom I had been standing got up and went out, leaving a vacant seat which of course I might have taken, but which I did not take for a step or two further back in the car there was standing, holding on by a strap, a young woman talking with a young man who was standing near her, holding on by the next strap.

Prospective Pleasures

Mrs. William Kierstead will entertain at a series of card parties this month. The first will be Tuesday, November 17, at which time the game will be bridge. Again on Tuesday, November 24, Mrs. Kierstead will entertain at an afternoon card party. The next meeting of the new Kensington club will be at the home of Mrs. Paul Burleigh.

Come and Go Gossip

Mr. and Mrs. Love Kelly of Sioux City, who formerly lived in Omaha, intend to move to Kansas City to reside in the near future.

Mrs. Howard Hughes of Houston, Tex.

is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arm, strong at their home on South Thirty-fifth street.

A little daughter, Sally Sharon, was born last month to Lieutenant and Mrs. George B. Sharon of the Thirtieth Infantry, now stationed in the Philippines. Mrs. Sharon was formerly Miss Pauline Lowe of Omaha, daughter of the late General Lowe.

Miss Eugenie Whitmore, who has been visiting friends in the east since her return from Europe, is spending this week as the guest of Miss Florence Edwards, in Peru, Ill.

SUITING SHADES TO FACES

Evening Gowns Match Eyes and Flesh Tints, Street Gowns and the Hair.

A Parisian, who has made a success in New York by designing gowns says that she always selects colors for evening frocks to match eyes and flesh tints; day gowns are suitably different.

TRIFLES IN VANITY BOXES

Gold, Silver and Enamel Cases Hang on Chains from the Waist.

Gold or silver card cases and purses hung on a short wrist chain will be in general vogue this year. The shops are full of them and also of the gold and silver vanity cases that had such popularity last year.

In general, all three show similarity in style and make, but in many models the special use asserts itself unmistakably. The wild peepers are among the newest. They open with steam or spring clasps. In the button of the spring clasp a large semi-transparent stone is set. Acid work is much used to decorate silver purses.

Many of the vanity cases are plainly appropriate only for their special purpose. Yet even in some of these boxes one finds a place for visiting cards, and a book for change.

The newest thing of all in purse, card case or vanity box comes in French enamel. The covers of one model are striped in two shades of old blue, transparent enamel. The covers of another are striped in broad bands of colored silver and smoky transparent enamel. Still another model has covers done in elaborate flower designs in many colors on a background of plain white enamel. These things are costly.

Envelope cases are daily affairs. They are simulated as an envelope does. A seal is simulated on the point of the overlying flap in a dark blue or red semi-transparent stone. Pressing down this seal frees the clasp.

For the most part all these gold or silver purses and cases are hung upon short wrist chains; but they can be suspended upon long neck chains if preferred. As they are expensive, many women will carry on their wrist chains one of the new little silver or gold tags that have come from France for the purpose of carrying on their neck as big as a 5-cent piece and bear their name and address of the owner.

TAKING CARE OF THE HANDS

Oatmeal is Said to Be One of the Simplest and Most Soothing Remedies.

A little attention will keep even "house-worked hands" in very presentable condition. The best and simplest aid to this end is oatmeal. Make a small cheesecloth bag and put in a little oatmeal; use this for washing the hands at night and when they are put in a little oatmeal; and when they are put in a little oatmeal; and when they are put in a little oatmeal.

Croup Attacks Young Children in All Countries.

There is probably no country on the globe which does not know the disastrous results of croup. Mothers of small children, whether in the isles of the South Sea or in the frozen region of the north, are always on the alert for the first symptoms of this dangerous malady, which is sure to bring destruction unless proper attention is given to the little sufferers.

Croup Attacks Young Children in All Countries.

The following letter from South Africa shows that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which is so extensively used in the United States, is also a favorite medicine for croup in that country. It is fast supplanting other remedies in many parts of the world, wherever it has been used, and all unceasingly may be avoided by the anxious mother if this remedy is kept at hand. Mr. Fritz Everitt, manager of a general store for G. B. Jardine, at Indwe, Cape Colony, South Africa, says: "I have had occasion to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy very often with my three little children for croup and croup, and have never found anything that gave so good satisfaction and relief as quickly as this remedy. We are never without it."

LIVE WIRES TO CORN SHOW

Chicago Board of Trade Members Will Be Here.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO BE CHARTERED

Illinois Grain Dealers' Association Comes with Them on December Fifteen, Which is Grain Dealers' Day.

Five hundred of the liveliest citizens of the lively city of Chicago are coming to the National Corn exposition in a body. Chicago's famous Board of Trade will have a generous representation in this city on Grain Dealers' day, December 15. Unting with the Illinois Grain Dealers' association, it will charter a special train for the trip. The arrangements regarding the exposition of these excellent live wires whose presence will be noticeable even among the thousands and thousands of strangers in the city at the time were made in Chicago by officers of the Illinois Dealers' association, President E. W. Wayne of Delavan and Secretary E. W. Strong of Pontiac, who conferred with officials of the Chicago Board of Trade relative to the joint trip.

Highest Priced Price.

A unique feature of the premium list is announced. This is the Fort Huron shred, valued at $60 and is the most valuable single premium offered. The farmer displaying the best six ears of corn gets this prize about which there is enough interest to make it the most desirable of all, aside from its intrinsic value. It is the latest achievement in the line of farm machinery and up to now considered one of the most dangerous. The Fort Huron company has expended $80,000 to eliminate the element of hazard and in the manufacture of a self-feeder it claims to have been successful.

MUCH SOUGHT MAN CAUGHT

Alleged Forger is Arrested by Omaha Detectives and is Held for Other Offenses.

After a three weeks' search, another alleged crook of wide reputation has been captured by Omaha detectives. C. E. Coon, alias William Kenefick, who gave his home as Kansas City, Mo., was arrested by Detectives Patrick and Davitt Wednesday morning and locked up at the police station as a fugitive from justice.

WIFE DEAD, HUSBAND VERY LOW

George W. Forbes Has Slight Chance of Recovery—Mrs. Forbes Dies Monday.

Following the death of Mrs. Juliette Forbes Monday, it is learned that her husband, George W. Forbes, is in a most serious condition, with only slight chance of recovery. He has been unconscious for four days and suffers from a nervous trouble.

OFFICIALS VISIT DEER PARK

Councilmen and Park Commissioners Consider Best Steps to Be Taken.

The twelve members of the city council and the five members of the Board of Park Commissioners visited Deer park Wednesday morning and looked over the location of the proposed grade through the park on Sixteenth street in an endeavor to come to some conclusion as to what had best be done. Property owners in the vicinity of the park petitioned for the building of the grade and the council ordered the same to be done. Park Commissioner Cornish later got this order rescinded for the reason that the building of a grade twenty-five feet high would practically cause the demolition of the park, making of it nothing but a couple of mud holes. The situation was gone over carefully by the 20 municipal organizations and President B. B. Berryman of the park board says he believes an amicable arrangement can be effected whereby the property owners will be satisfied and the park saved as well.

CAR KNOCKS DRIVER HARD

William Turpin Hurled to Ground and Paralyzed in Both of His Arms.

Serious injuries were received by William Turpin, a driver employed by the city, when his wagon was struck by a northbound South Omaha street car at Twenty-fourth and Dorcas streets and he was thrown to the pavement. This occurred at 1:15 o'clock Wednesday morning. Turpin's arms were apparently paralyzed, Turpin got regarding the use of them, and his head was badly bruised and lacerated. It is also feared he has sustained internal injuries.

ECZEMA CURE

Surprises Druggists

(From Chicago News) Leading druggists have been puzzled to understand why they are selling so much more of this remedy lately to the public, as this drug is generally used only in scientific work. An item in The News last week accounts for it, as it told of the discovery that citrox is probably the best known cure for eczema, fever, salt rheum and other skin diseases. The directions, as published in the Doctor's Guide by the original discoverer, are as follows: Dissolve a teaspoonful of pure powdered citrox in two tablespoonfuls hot water, and bathe the diseased part 20 minutes at a time twice a day. Be careful to make the solution fresh each time it is to be used and apply warm. Only the pure citrox, put up in sealed packages by the chemical works, is fit for medical use. Many interesting cases are reported to the Doctor's Guide by physicians, who say its action is marvelous, stopping the itching at once and drying up the eruption in a short time. The cures are permanent.

FT. MEADE NEEDS NEW WATER

More Adequate Supply is Demanded for Purpose of the Army.

A serious condition is reported from Fort Meade, S. D., where nearly 600 men of the Fourth United States cavalry, with a considerable number of civilian employees of the government are quartered, in regard to the water supply for the post. The question has been referred to one of two propositions that must be settled speedily and that is an immediate remedy of the conditions or the abandonment of the post.

The drinking and culinary water supply for the post is derived from the water system of the town of Sturgis, two and a half miles distant and is pumped through the water pipes. The requirements of the post are for 300,000 gallons daily, but about October 1 of the present year the water was shut off between the town and fort and now the supply of drinking water has to be hauled from a hydrant in the town of Sturgis, the supply being limited to 2,400 gallons daily or in four loads of 600 gallons each and this limited supply must be husbanded closely.

The water supply for the stables and other purposes is now obtained from a well about thirty feet distant from a temporary reservoir built by damming the creek that runs past the post. It is into the creek that the sewage from the town of Sturgis is dumped, the creek flowing from Sturgis to the fort. Some distance from the town the creek sinks and the bed is dry for 100 or 200 yards and then the water oozes out again into the creek bed a short distance above Fort Meade.

Colonel Davis, chief surgeon of the Department of the Missouri, was recently sent to Fort Meade.

Colonel Davis found the conditions to be practically as stated and made his report accordingly, which has been sent to Washington.

About the only way out of the dilemma for the government is either to build its own water supply system by artesian well or to pipe the water for the post from Dead Man's gulch, about five miles from the fort. Both of these propositions will involve a considerable expenditure of time, and time just now is very precious, and something will have to be done at once.

Colonel Davis has recommended the immediate building of an open air distilling plant at the post, the water supply being obtained from the creek or well now in operation there for the stables and washing purposes.

Following the death of Mrs. Juliette Forbes Monday, it is learned that her husband, George W. Forbes, is in a most serious condition, with only slight chance of recovery. He has been unconscious for four days and suffers from a nervous trouble.

An old settler and a resident of Omaha for thirty-eight years, Mr. Forbes is well known among the older residents of the city. He owns considerable property in the north part of the city and lives at 8313 Florence boulevard.

The body of Mrs. Forbes is at the Burket undertaking rooms, 411 North Sixteenth street, awaiting the arrival of a son from New York, whose absence has delayed preparations for the funeral.
